Rob Motorist On S. Santiam

Albany, Ore. (UP)—Herbert Edward Wood, Roseburg, was slugged and robbed of $150 in cash and travelers checks yesterday when he attempted to help two stranded motorists.

State police here said Wood was treated and released at Langmack hospital in Sweet Home for head injuries suffered when one of his assailants struck him behind the ear with a heavy object.

Wood told police he saw a car stalled along South Santiam highway 20 in a heavy snowstorm Sunday. He stopped to offer aid. He said while he was getting a tow rope out of the back of his panel truck one of the two men stuck a gun in his ribs and the other struck him.

They took $100 in checks and $150 in currency before abandoning Wood beside his truck.

Chicago Grain

Chicago (AP)— A big spurt in December lard featured an otherwise listless and lower market on the board of trade Monday.

This was the last day for trading in December contracts. At the start of session open interest in December lard totaled 6,840,000 pounds. With lard stocks at Chicago very small, the shorts in the December contract were forced to cover their position by buying futures.

There was little feature in the rest of the market. Corn and soybeans firmed early but lost their gains later. Wheat, oats and rye were a little lower from the start.

Wheat closed ½ to 1½ higher, the December contract making the gain in the final minute finish at 2.01½-2.02½.

Corn finished ¼-2½ lower, Dec. 1.50¾-¾, oats ¼-3¼ lower, Dec. 73¼-¾, rye ¼-1¼ lower, Dec. 1.31¾-½, soybeans unchanged to 1 cent higher, Jan. 2.99¾-3.00 and lard 5 to 25 cents a hundred pounds higher, Dec. 18.40-18.60.

Chicago Livestock

Chicago (AP)— Hogs sold off sharply while steers and lambs scored equally sharp gains Monday.

Salable hog receipts totaled 12,000 head, more than both a week ago and a year ago. Butchers sank 25 to 75 cents while sows moved at steady to 25 cents lower prices. Top was $23.25. Most good and choice 180 to 230 pounds hogs sold at $24.25 to $25.00.

Slaughter steers and heifers held strong to $1.00 higher. Vealers were strong, cows choice and prime steers sold at $28.25 to $29.00. Salable receipts totaled 15,000 head.

Lambs jumped 50 cents to $1.00. Most good and choice wooled lambs moved at $19.00. There were 4,000 salable sheep.

Stock Market

New York (AP)— The stock market softened Monday after showing improvement early in the session.

Changes either way amounted to about a point with losses slightly outnumbering the gains.

Volume built up during rising phases and contracted when the slow retreat began. But the day came to an estimated 1,000,000 shares. That compares with 1,550,000 shares traded Friday when the market was advancing.
