District 2B Tourney to Open Here

1st Round Pairings Decided

The complicated process of picking eight teams for the District 2B basketball tournament has ended and eight teams will square off Wednesday in the opening round at Willamette university.

Involved will be four teams from the Marion County B league,, one each from Polk, Yamhill and Clackamas-Multnomah, who in turn played second place Yamhill county for the eight position.

First round pairings:

2:00—Gervais (Marion 3rd) vs. Perrydale (Polk 1st).

3:30—Mill City (Marion 1st) vs. Colton (P-Y-M-C 2nd).

7:30—Yamhill (Yamhill 1st) vs. Corbett (C-M 1st).

9:00—Jefferson (Marion 2nd) vs. Scio (Marion 4th).

Two playoff games were necessary last night to complete the brackets. Jefferson whipped Gervais, 61-51, to decide second and third in Marion county, and Scio edged St. Paul, 52-46, for fourth place.

The single elimination tourney will continue Thurusday and Saturday, Friday being skipped because of a Willamette-Lewis and Clark college game on the Willamette floor.

One team will be eligible for the state tourney in Salem March 11-13.

UP Poll Places Wildcats First, Hoosiers Next

By EARL WRIGHT

NEW YORK (UP)— Coach Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats, who led for six straight weeks earlier in the campaign, regained first place today in the United Press college basketball ratings as a series of upsets caused a major shuffle among the 10 top teams.

Kentucky (23-0) edged Indiana (18-3) by just two points, 296 to 294, in voting by the 35 leading coaches who make up the United Press board. Twenty three of the coaches voted the Wildcats tops. Only 10 made Indiana their first choice, but the Big Ten team received far heavier support for succeeding places. Vote was based on games played through Saturday night.

TEAM
1. Kentucky (23) (23-0)	296
2. Indiana (10) (18-3)	294
3. Duquesne (22-2)	221
4. Western Kentucky (28-1)	151
5. Oklahoma A&M (21-4)	129
6. Notre Dame (1) (19-2)	127
7. Kansas (15-4)	115
8. Holy Cross (22-2)	90
9. Louisiana State (19-2)	80
10. LaSalle (21-4)	65

PU vs. Pacific Tonight in NAIA

PORTLAND (AP) — The University of Portland will attempt to defend a title it has held for the last five years when it meets Pacific University Tuesday night in the opening round of the district 2 NAIA basketball tournament.

But Pacific U, co-champion of the Northwest Conference, hopes it can break the Portland victory string, and win for itself the Oregon district berth in the national tournament at Kansas City later this month.

Eastern Oregon and Southern Oregon, the other entries in the district tournament, also will play Tuesday night.

Last City Loop Week to Start

Three City league basketball games tonight will start the final week of competition. The leader, Marion Motors, must win three games this week to retain its lead over the YMCA, which is a half-game behind and with two to go.

The schedule:

Naval Reserve vs. YMCA, 7:00; Aumsville Firemen vs. St. Paul Mustangs, 8:00; Wolgamott Service vs. Marion Motors, 9:00.

Charles Replaces Valdes In Ring's Heavy Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Ezzard Charles has replaced Cuba's Nin oValdes as the No. 1 heavyweight contender, Willie Pep has dropped to the bottom of the featherweight rankings, and Eddie Chavez has taken over the No. 1 position among the lightweights.

These were among the major changes made in the March Ring Magazine ratings, released Tuesday by editor Nat Fleischer.

Valdes lost his top-ranking because of his very close decision over unranked Archie McBride in a Havana bout. The big Cuban dropped to second behind the former heavyweight champion who gets another crack at the heavyweight crown June 17 when he meets Rocky Marciano.

Pep, twice-holder of the featherweight crown, fell all the way from the No. 1 ranking to tenth as a result of being stopped in two rounds by 20-year-old Lulu Perez. The young Brooklyn boxer-puncher advanced from fifth to third among the 126-pounders.

Wallace (Bud) Smith, the Cincinnati clouter who was the No. 1 lightweight challenger, fell to third following his knockout loss to welterweight Joe Miceli. Chavez, of San Jose, took over first and Cuba's Orlando Zulueta moved up from third to second.

Johnny Bratton also got the axe. The Chicago welterweight, drubbed by Johnny Saxton, plummeted from third to tenth among the 147-pounders.

Nate Brooks, the newly crowned North American bantamweight champion, vaulted into a No. 4 ranking as the result of his title victory over Billy Peacock.

Seattle's Harry (Kid) Matthews, who knocked out Jack Nelson of Salt Lake City in the first round of a Spokane match last month, was ranked No. 9 among the heavyweights.

Scio Earns 4th Beating St. Paul By 52-46 Tally

JEFFERSON—Scio had the edge all the way in a playoff here Monday night, defeating St. Paul, 52-46, to decide fourth spot in the Marion County B league. They had been tied with records of 11-7.

Scio earned a berth in the District 2B tourney to open in Salem Wednesday, and will meet Jefferson at 9 p.m. in the first round. Jeff won a playoff for second place last night from Gervais.

Scio led 17-11, 29-21 and 44-30 at the rest periods. Gordon O'Reilly and Bob Slover led the victors with 15 apiece, while Sam Smith posted 19 for St. Paul.

St. Paul (46)		(52) Scio
G. Smith 9	F	8 Daine
Rambeau 5	F	Stewart
Kirsch 9	C	15 Slover
S. Smith 19	G	15 O'Reilly
