EDITORIAL.

Colorado is attracting world wide attention, just now, on account of the stand that has been taken by the Miners' Union, the Citizens' Alliance, and the State authorities. It would be folly to defend one organization and decry the acts of the others, for where so much anarchy prevails, there must be lawless acts among all factions, but it looks very much as if the greater provocation is on the part of the Citizens' Alliance and the militia, or the authority behind the latter. The members of the Miners' Union are supposedly citizens of the United States and of Colorado, and citizens of the United States and have the protection of such. If they have been guilty of a misdemeanor, they should have impartial trial and punishment adequate to the crime of which they have been proven guilty; but we do not see where justice is served, nor do we know of any law but disposition that will drive a citizen out of his State and dump him upon another community. Colorado needs Federal protection.

Coquille Bulletin: On Tuesday evening of last week, Grandma Odler, while at work on her lawn and amongst her flowers, fell and broke her left arm a short distance above her wrist. Dr. Colla was called and set the member, and at last accounts the patient was improving.

The Public Nuisance wanton and unprovoked outrage, was that blowing up of the Coldwater and station was its hard to destruction of life—even assuming it to have been done by enemies of the office owners. Human nature being as it is, such outrages are perfectly natural and often to be reasonably expected in any community where Colonel Coldwater for [illegible] has been [illegible] of a trade that [illegible] your class.

Aged Mexican War Veteran Finds A Remedy in Alinac

Chicago, June 18.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Paris, Ill., says: Daniel G. Burr, aged 81, a survivor of Company H, Fourth Regiment, recruited at Paris, Ill., June 4, 1846, for the war with Mexico, has held a reunion by himself in the fair grounds here. As he had done annually for 40 years, he called the roll of his company from the original roll he had written with quill pen, and of which he had custody as Orderly Sergeant of the company. He spent the day in meditation, eating his picnic dinner alone, and in the evening a friend drove him back to town.

Sued By His Doctor.

"A doctor here has sued me for $12 50, which I claimed was excessive, for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Coachella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus. It never fails. Sold by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who are persistent in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. B. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once, and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Regulations to Govern the Floating of Loose Timbers and Logs, and other Methods of Navigation that Position of the North Fork of the Coquille River, Oregon, between its Mouth and Grand Ford, at the Junction of the North and East Forks

In pursuance of the authority conferred by Act of Congress approved May 14th, nineteen hundred, entitled "An Act Authorizing the Secretary of War to make regulations governing the running of loose logs, steamboats, and rafts on certain rivers and streams," the following regulations are prescribed for the North Fork of the Coquille River, Oregon, between its mouth and Grand Ford, whereon the floating of loose logs is the principal method of navigation.

REGULATIONS.

That during the one hundred and forty four (144) hours extending from midnight of each Wednesday to midnight of the following Tuesday, no timber and logs, and rack rafts (so called) of timber and logs, may be run, and parties engaged in this business may use the waterway in such reasonable manner as may be necessary for the proper transaction of such business, providing that during any other period than that designated above, said parties shall so arrange their work as to leave the channel of said section of the river free from floating logs and timber, and shall not obstruct or delay any other navigation interests.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Mr. George K. Babcock was thrown from his wagon and severely bruised. He applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely, and says it is the best liniment he ever used. Mr. Babcock is a well-known citizen of North Plain, Conn. There is nothing equal to Pain Balm for sprains and bruises. It will effect a cure in one-third the time required by any other treatment. For sale by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

Home Circle Column

Some Thoughts As They Fall From The Editorial Pen. Pleasant Evening Reveries. A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

The habit of treating those who are nearest and dearest to us with discourtesy, is one that clouds the sunshine of too many homes. If you are young and looking for your prince, just test his home conduct. Do not be guided in your choice by what a young man is in the parlor; find out what he is in his mother's sitting-room. Do not judge him by the way he can tip his hat, but by the way he treats the old, especially his parents. The home where courtesy and consideration rules is always a happy one, if it be the humblest of cabins, and courtesy is a virtue that pays the practice. There should be a sacred respect observed in the most intimate of friendships. Wives have no more right to scold their husband's peculiarities than they have to take the same liberty with acquaintance. We have no more right to rub the bright finish off a friend's character than we have to take the gloss off our neighbor's black. We may hurt the feelings of a country acquaintance and they may never know why, but all our intercourse of [illegible] people who have had little for our society but when we stab the loved mother's heart, that blood is such a [illegible] we cannot pretend to forget, or cannot the wounded feelings of a mother of a sister. ### Triumphs of Modern surgery.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped, and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns, and like injuries to heal without suppuration, and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic, and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal without suppuration, and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Sold by C. Y. Lowe, Druggist.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

5321 2 Oregon St.,
Portland, Or., Oct. 17, 1903.

I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine years with uterine misplacement and completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and side and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Treasurer, Portland Economic League

Periodical headaches tell of female weakness. Wine of Cardui cures permanently ninetean out of every twenty cases of irregular menses, bearing down pains or any female weakness. If you are discouraged and doctors have failed, that is the best reason in the world you should try Wine of Cardui now. Remember that headaches mean female weakness. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui today.
