LOCAL ITEMS.

J. A. Tobin, of Parkersburg, is in town.

W. Rohm was doing the town Sunday.

Circuit court convenes next Monday.

Note the appearance of J. H. Nosler's drugstore.

Thomas Whalan, of Empire, was in town Thursday.

The Aronsville saw mill has a new addition of 40 feet.

C. H. Volkmar and Marsell Bennett visited this place last week.

Uncle Levi Gant, of Bandon, made us a pleasant call this morning.

The mountains will be literally covered with blackberries this season.

P. Monoch and J. Carlson, of Marshfield, went over by yesterday's stage.

D. W. Stevens, a former resident of this river, is a resident of Northwood, D. T.

We beg pardon for the limited amount of reading matter in this week's HERALD.

Mr. Forgy of Ellensburg, Curry county, recently killed 3 hogs which weighed 1,238 lbs.

Dr. Leneve has renovated his drugstore and placed the postoffice at the south end of the building.

Mr. D. H. Getchell will be up soon from the city, and will go about preparing for a big run of salmon at the cannery.

Johnny Leneve went over to the bay this morning to bring Mrs. N. W. Leneve over to care for her little daughter who is sick.

Our thanks are due Messrs. M. C. Miller and W. Sinclair for assistance in getting immigration circulars into pamphlet form.

Coos bay is literally alive with eastern clams which were planted there some year ago. They are as fine as can be found anywhere.

Ho for Coos bay!—Our old friend, Fred Jarvis, has started up his stage running from this place to Utter City twice a day. See his ad in this paper. n37tf

Mr. J. B. Hunt, of this place, cured in good shape, some hay he had cut, during the late rainy weather. It would have spoiled for anyone else.

Mr. Simpson and sons, of Dora, have rented J. A. Collier's house on the Willard place adjoining town and moved in yesterday. Mr. S. brings a fine race horse with him.

Rev. A. L. Todd, of Douglas county, arrived here among his old friends last week. He is in feeble health but has preached for us twice since his arrival. We hope to soon be able to note his returning health, and will, too, if he stays here any length of time.

One of three steers, posted by T. J. Patty, remains unclaimed, and the owner is notified to come and claim property and pay costs. The animal is 3 years old and would weigh about 400 lbs; has an upper bit and slit in each ear. It has a small white spot in forehead, but is otherwise red.

Mr. I. Hacker is in town this morning posting notices on delinquent property. It inveriably occurs that these delinquent taxes are due for years past when the property was owned by others than the present owners. It is too bad for a person who buys property to find years afterward that it was delinquent for taxes when he bought it. The former holders are responsible and should be dealt with according to the merits of the case.

The woods are full of nice, big salmon berries.

The fruit crop hereabout will be good this season.

J. Harry Hunt was in town Wednesday.

Henry Clarno, of Curry county, has located at Norway.

Mr. W. H. Carothers is expected up by next steamer from San Francisco.

Mr. T. J. Perkins called on us yesterday. He has our thanks for favors.

Several teachers are wanted in this county. Apply to Supt. J. T. McCormac.

Grandpa McEwan was in down from his mountain retreat one day last week.

Parker's mill has been averaging 28,000 feet of one inch lumber per day lately.

J. W. Carman, of South Coquille, was in town Wednesday en route to the bay.

John Shelton brought over several loads of freight, last week, from Utter City.

County Judge G. M. Dyer and wife are visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Elbert Dyer will be over to stop with Geo. McEwan a few days—then look out for your bill.

Messrs. Angell and Vowel are building a good, substantial sidewalk in front of their premises.

W. Sinclair, Esq., returned Saturday from a trip up Middle fork. He has our thanks for favors.

Geo. Merriman and family passed through this place last week, en route to Ellensburg, from Drain.

Dr. Scott's electric appliances—belts, corsets, brushes, soles, etc., at Nosler's drug store. Call and get his prices.

Mr. Frank Getchell, father, mother and sister-in-law, Mrs. D. H. Getchell, accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Gibson arrived in town Wednesday.

Mrs. G. W. Majory, of South Coquille, returned from an extended visit to California, last week. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. A. A. Lansing, and family.

Will Oddy and lady who took a trip out through the Goose Lake country, returned last week, via. San Francisco. They say they have seen no part they like as well as they do this county.

Mr Hume has accepted the challenge of one of the Jackson county horsemen, and while not informed when the race will be had, we understand that the Coos county fair grounds is the place.

Last Friday George Koontz and Rud Whitted killed a large cougar near Mrs. Doyle's place on Rink creek. A dog put it up a tree and the boys both shot it killing it instantly and gave it a shot each while it was falling. They brought the beast to town and kept it on exhibition the remainder of the day after killing it. It was 7 feet long. Young Koontz had killed a bear a day or two before.

The farm of Dr. Wingate, near the mouth of the John Day river Wasco county, burned to the ground last Thursday. Nothing was saved from the building of any value. Mrs. A. G. Johnson, son and daughter were occupying the house at the time of the conflagration.

Godfry Rohm was in town yesterday.

The Norway saw mill has started up again.

The steamer Ceres is again on her route.

Mrs. Daniel Roberts, of Marshfield was in town Tuesday.

While other parts are suffering from storm, cyclones, etc., we are as cosy as a bug in a rug.

The schooner Truckee is due and daily expected to arrive. She is to take a cargo at Parker's mill.

C. W. Von Pegert expects to have his sash and door factory ready to start up in July or August.

Mr. W. Gallier has been under the weather for a few days. Blacksmithing does not agree with him.

Immigrants who visited the state board at Portland one day last week, had upwards of $40,000 in money.

Messrs. Self and Campbell accompanied by their families and Uncle Bob Dean started for the beach Sunday.

Dr. R. P. Thompson a first class dentist has settled in this place, and will practice his profession. He comes from Humboldt county, California.

Send this issue of the HERALD to your friends as it contains a description of the Coquille valley, for which they have been asking you ever since your arrival here. Don't forget it.

The boys of this place are going to have a match game of base ball on the 4th of July at the Halls prairie fair grounds. They go up Saturday to practice.

A good shower set in here last night and though it comes but slowly, it will prove sufficient, for it has continued most of the time up to our going to press—11 o'clock Tuesday.

Two sons of Mr. Simpson who purchased J. B. Hunt's place were near Dora were looking for a vacant house in this place yesterday. They are fisherman, and are just up from Humboldt county, California.

The HERALD boys have already this week printed 3000 8-page, 3-column-10 inches to the column-pamphlets, besides getting out both sides of the HERALD. Considering that the work has been done on a Washington Hand press, we think it hard to beat. It was necessary to make over 4,300 impressions.
