THE COLUMBIAN.

U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

TO MAJOR E. C. ADAMS

Honored and gallant one, scorn not my lays,
Contain not the rudeness that sings to thy praise
Though crude be the verse, yet the purpose is true
I love to give honor where honor is due.
With thy fearless and brave thou hast faithfully stood
In defense of thy Country, hast shed thy life-Blood.
The costliest offering man could afford,
The richest libation that ever was poured,
And as freely accepted as it freely was given,
The offering like incense ascending to Heaven.
Treasured there till the giver shall meet his award;
Such offerings are holy in the sight of the Lord,
And the patriot's memory on Earth will endure,
His love for his country as sacred and pure
And as strong and as deep as the love unfelled
A mother's devotion bestows on her child.
Wealth gives its possessor an ephemeral fame,
To Eternity time bears the patriot's name,
In undying remembrance such names ever dwell
As Washington, Brutus, Botzaris and Tell.
If there's aught in this world on the land or the ocean
The noble and virtuous may truly admire
It is those that have lighted the torch of devotion
At Liberty's altar with patriot fire,
And fought in its light for their country's salvation,
And riven the bonds of the captive and slave,
And proffered their lives for the life of a nation
And unshrinkingly stood on the brink of the grave.
The foes of their country have fallen before them
Or fled from their presence in terror and shame,
They have twined for themselves a bright garland of glory,
And written their names on the record of fame.
Ever onward to victory the stars and stripes bearing
We are proud of the braves who such victories could win,
We are proud of their deeds, we are proud of their daring,
Forgive us, O Father, if such pride be a sin.

Philander Hazen's youngest daughter has been very sick with malarial fever.

Enoch Mecker intends to bring milk to St. Helen from his ranch on Sauvie's Island.

Mr. Whitney is putting in an extensive stock of goods. His show-cases are very fine.

Mr. George Roussell has quite a class in painting in Portland, so his uncle informs us.

Professor McElroy will hold a Teachers' Institute in St. Helen on the 29th day of May.

Part of the poem to Major Adams was omitted by mistake, we publish it entire this week,

Mrs. Garrison, wife of Professor Garrison, and Miss Blank are visiting their sister, Mrs Allen.

Mr. J. S. Davenport always carries a full stock of goods, and a great variety of desirable articles.

It is said the immigration is bringing in $500,000 a month. Surely we ought not to have hard times.

Rev. Mr. Hanna preached an evening last week at Bayview school-house to an audience of seventy.

Will C. King by the resignation of Dr. Jessup has become G. W. C. T. of the I. O. G. T. of Oregon.

Rosa Edmonds went down street the other day in a hurry, saying as she went "I'm running for office!"

The varieties of potatoes Obed Blakesley has for sale are Early Rose, Peerlees and Burbank Seedling.

Mr. J. C. Mason went a-fishing not long since at the mouth of Milton Creek, and caught a fine string of trout.

Rev. Mr. Hanna preached last Sunday eve at the M. E. Church in St. Helen to a respectable congregation.

Mr. J. C. Mason introduced us to two Portlanders, heavy owners of property in that vicinity. One of their names was Poole.

There 25 camps of Chinamen near Dann's old place. They are there to finish up the railroad, and put it in running order.

Hon. Binger Hermann will not speak in St. Helen. He doubtless regards us as all good Republicans or as incorrigible Democrats.

The most successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

ST. CHARLES, ARK., Aug. 23, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & CO., GENTS:—I take pleasure in informing you that I used nearly all of the bottles of Kendall's Spavin Cure that you sent me from St. Louis, according to directions, and to my satisfaction (and I must say to my surprise) in about two weeks my mare was entirely well of her lameness caused by a leg spavin of over one year's standing and in three weeks time the swelling was all gone and the mare is now entirely well and can trot as glib as ever. I consider the bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure worth to me $150.00 as the animal was worthless as she was on three legs and could scarcely get around on them and now she is the finest buggy animal in these parts and with the remnant of the bottle after curing the mare I have nearly cured a severe corn on the ball of my big toe that has given me great pain for two or three years. I have only applied Kendall's Spavin Cure four times and the corn now is nearly out by the roots and without any pain. In short I think it is the best liniment that is in use. I have Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases and I would not take any money for it if I could not get another. Hoping you great success I remain

Yours respectfully, R. C. MARTIN.

KENDALL'S SPAVINE CURE ON HUMAN FLESH.

VEVAY, IND., Aug. 12, 1881.

DR. B. J. Kendall & Co., GENTS:—Sample of circulars received to-day. Please send me some with my imprint printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Voris, one of the leading farmers of our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he expected. Cured the pain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,
C. O. THIEBAND.

Price $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietor, Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt. Send for illustrated circular.
