No Case of Pneumonia on Record.

We do not know of a single instance in all our experience where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey & Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. You can get it at Graham & Wortham's.

The schools here are arranging a program for their Christmas tree but as it comes on Sunday they will be ahead of time and have it Friday, the 23d in Mrs. Howard's room.

There will be a dance Friday night, December 9 in Carpenter's hall. Everybody invited.

Beaver Creek

Our first practice for Xmas last Friday afternoon causes us to anticipate a fine program.

Prof. Geo. Bethers, county school superintendent of Lincoln county, who is visiting relatives in this vicinity, gave us a very pleasant call Friday afternoon. Mr. Bethers says there is a scarcity of teachers in his county.

Our school will commence their Lewis and Clark exhibit work soon, but probably will not finish it until early in next term.

Our school is not out as stated last week, but will close the 16th inst.

All travel across the Wilkenson bridge at the school house is cut off owing to the the north bent sliding into the creek.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. Kings New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles cured her. Guaranteed by Allen & Woodward, druggists. Price 50c and $1,00, Trial bottles free.

COLLEGE JOTTINGS

Items of Interest In and Around the O. A. C.

William M. Parsons, travelling secretary of the Y. M. C. A. delivered an address to the young men of the College, Tuesday evening.

President Gatch was confined to his room the first of the week with rheumatism.

Tuesday morning at chapel Lieutenant Quinlan made a short address and presented the cavalry detachment, of the OAC regiment, with a guidon. This is a banner and is used for displaying the movement of troops.

Guy Walker, who attended OAC last year, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Kate Ketchum, of Independence. Mr. and Mrs. Walker have the best wishes of a host of students.

Bert Yates, a former student at OAC, left Tuesday for Vancouver, where he will be employed by the Oregon Daily Journal.

The Juniors are to have their annual party this evening and all are looking forward to a very pleasant evening, as the class are noted for giving jolly affairs.

The recital given by Prof. G. Taillandier last Wednesday was a treat to the students. In spite of the stormy evening the chapel was filled. Prof. Taillandier told many interesting and amusing incidents in the lives of our five great musicians, Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin and Liszt, and illustrated their style by playing a selection from each. The evening was a pleasant one and the students are anxiously awaiting the recital on December 16, which he announced would be given on that date by his pupils.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is the safest for children and delicate persons. Graham & Wortham hav it for sale.

Closed for the Winter.

The Benton County Lumber Company closed down their plant the early part of the week on account of the wet weather, and will not resume operations for some time to come or probably during the winter.

The mills have been kept running steadily since last spring, and an immense business has been done. A force of perhaps forty men have been thrown out of employment by the shutting down of the mill.

The Piano Lecture-Recital given by Prof. Gerard Taillandier of the OAC at the college chapel Wednesday evening, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. Prof. Tailander's selections were written during the 18th and 19th centuries, witn the intention of showing the progress made in piano music during that time, and also to compare the music composed and played in the 18th century with the music in this day and time. He gave a brief description and sketch of each selection on the program, which was very interesting and instructive.

Mrs. E. W. Strong, who has been visiting in Portland for the past two weeks, returned home yesterday.

E. W. Strong has made a contract for 3,000,000 feet of logs for next year's sawing at his mill in this city. The logs are expected to be ready for the drive from the McKenzie river by the first part of next June. This will, perhaps, be the largest drive ever brought to Corvallis, and it will be no little task to bring them through successfully.

A Talented Agent.

Mrs. Home-Seeker—You certainly don't expect anybody to take this house? Why, it sags terribly. The floors all run downhill.

Agent (a smart man)—It was built that way on purpose, mum, to keep peace in the family. Greatest invention of the age, mum.

Mrs. Home-Seeker—Keep peace in the family?

Agent—Yes, mum—nothing like it. Whenever your husband drops his collar butons, he'll always know where to find 'em.—N. Y. Weekly.

It Puzzled Her.

"I can't understand about this wireless telegraphy," said Mrs. Wunder.

"Why, it's plain as day," said Mr. Wunder. "They just send the messages through the air, instead of over wires."

"I know that," said she, "but how do they fasten the air to the poles?"—Baltimore American.

The Diplomatic Grocer.

"I don't see why you continue to deal with Sands?" said Mr. Hauskeep, "he's the most dishonest grocer in the neighborhood."

"How can you say such a thing?" exclaimed Mrs. Hauskeep, who is growing distressingly stout. "He weighed me on his scales the other day and I only weigh 151. I think he's real gentlemanly."—Philadelphia Press.

Tonsorial Repartee.

"How do you part your hair?" said the barber after he had finished cutting it.

"With a comb," replied the irritable customer.

"I didn't know. It looked, when you came in, as if you might have been doing it with a hayrake."—Chicago Tribune.

All the Same in His Case.

He—I believe the great trouble with the American people is that they sleep too much. Most men say they have to sleep seven or eight hours out of every 24, but I find that I'm just as bright if I sleep only four hours as I am if I sleep twice that long.

Looking English.

Aunt Debby (viewing the city)—What does that sign "Misfit Store" mean?

Uncle Abner (a close observer)—I s'pose that's where these 'ere anglermaniacs gets measured for clothes so folks'll think they was made in London.—N. Y. Weekly.

Kidding His Mother.

Richie, all undressed, ready for his bath stood before his mother—Now, mamma, I'm a little kid.

"Yes, dear."

"Do you know what kind of a kid I am?"

"No, Richie."

"Why, I'm nakid."—Boston Herald.

A Foregone Conclusion.

The Sage—Did I see you talking to Capt. Hawk just now?

The Innocent (with enthusiasm)—Yes; and isn't he a splendid fellow? He's the man for my money.

The Sage—Ah! and he'll have it, too, before he's done with you.—Ally Sloper.

A Great Reader.

"I suppose you read a good deal," said the young woman.

"Yes, indeed," answered the young member of congress. "I make it a point to read everyone of my own speeches as soon as they come from the typewriter."—Washington Star.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Benton.
Paul Truitt, Plaintiff, vs.
Charles A. McCullough, Defendaut.

To Charles A. McCullough, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the above-named plaintiff, in the above-entitled cause now on file with the clerk of said court, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to apoear and answer said complaint as hereby required, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in his said complaint towit: A decree of the above-entitled court adjudging and decreeing the plaintiff to be the owner in fee simple of the following described premises towit: The S W ¼ of the N E ¼; the N W ¼ of the S E ¼; the E ½ of the S W ¼ of Sec. 36, T 11 S., R 7 west of the Will Mer in Benton county, Oregon, save and except a strip of land 60 feet wide being 30 feet on each side of the center of the main line of the W V & C R R Co now occupied by the C & E R R Co as a right of way through said above described premises, and further decreeing that said defendant Charles A. McCullough has no estate, right, title or interest whatever in or to said real property, and that defendant be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any claim whatever in or to the said premises or any part thereof adverse to the plaintiff therein, and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is published in the CORVALLIS GAZETTE once a week for six consecutive weeks, by order of Hon. Virgil E.
