Sheriff Helman is having his office neatly refited; and a new well dug in front of the court house, and he says if Dallas can't have a hotel he will furnish bummers quarters and plenty of water this winter.

Fire at Corvallis.

We learn from private sources that a serious fire occured at Corvalis during the week, by means of which Sol King's livery stables were entirely consumed with nearly, if not all their contents. Some sixteen head of horses were consumed in the stables. As near as we can learn, the entire block in which the stables were situated was burned. It is supposed to be the result of an incendiary torch. A small fire was started in the remote south west corner of the city to attract attention, and while the people were looking after this the stables were fired. In absence of further information we refrain from comment.

Failed To Connect.

The Salem Stage, which carries the mail, failed to put in appearance on last Thursday evening; and up to time of going to press had not reported in Dallas. From a telegram frhm the driver, Mr. Boshton, to Post-Master Smith we learn that the delay was caused by some accident to the Salem ferry, rendering it impossible for the Stage to cross the river. We suppose it will be in on time to day. The failure caused quite a little flutter of excitement in Dallas, some fearing that an accident had happened to the stage itself. We are glad to learn that this is not the case.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

J. W. Shelton, of Carlton, is visiting friends in town.

A. B. Griggs has gone to Portland and Astoria this week.

Thomas Rash has returned from Eastern Oregon. Willamette has attractions which bring people back.

There is a house in town which is occupied by eight school girls. It is known as "the abode of the Angels.,,

Miss McFadden's class in drawing is making commendable progress in the art. She also has a class at Independence

The "News" says: "The steam-beatmen on the Willamette are praying for rain." What a story! who ever heard of a steamboatman praying, for rain or any thing else.

King, the Good Templar lecturer, was here a few days ago on his way to Corvallis, where he is talking of starting a paper to be the organ of the Templars, and named the Home Guard.

The family of Bedford Haley, the wife being a daughter of old Mr. R. R. Haley, of this place have returned from California, where they have been living for a number of years, to visit their aged parents.

There is a clock in good running order in the postoffice which was brought across the plains in 1852 and has been running over forty years. It is not worn enough to be perceived on any of its works, and keeps good time.

INDEPENDENCE.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Mrs. H. P. Lock, is now lying quite low with the lung fever.

Pretty dull, but we will soon have a newspaper in our town.

Mr. W. F. Middleham and family moved to Portland this week.

Irvine & Alexander have a fine lot of timothy seed, just from the east.

Mrs. J. E. Davidson, is recovering from her severe spell of sickness.

Rev. J. L. Hirckner will hold service here next Sunday, morning and evening.

The little steamer Isabell is now making regular trips between here and Salem.

Mr. Wilks of old town lost one of his children last week with the scarlet fever.

Mr. M. L. White, has several pair of fine Plymouth Rock chickens FOR SALE at $2.50 per pair.

Mr. Eli Young, has moved from here to Portland where he expects to make his future home.

Mr. T. W. Belt was in our town a day or two last week. He has gone into merchandising in Philemath.

Irvine & Alexander have moved their large stock of merchandise into Belt's brick building, next door to the postoffice.

Merchants will do well to "look a leedle out" for one McWillis, from Alsea, who is selling honey through the country. His word is entirely unreliable. He will sell to one merchant under promise not to sell to any other, and then sell to the next one he comes to on the same terms.

Mr Stine, our newspaper man, has moved to our town and is living in the house formerly occupied by the Riverside. He is having the house fixed up in good shape. Some of his outfit has already arrived. Mr. Stine, will be prepared to run a first-class paper as all of his fixtures are new. The first issue will be out next week. We wish him the greatest of success in this enterprise.

That Logging Team.

Tom. Farley has been driving around the most previous looking team that has come within the range of our perspective for many a day. It consisted of three yoke of veritable exen, some of which looked as if they might have crossed the plains in '49, but we don't think they did. The team is being fitted up by T. B. Rowell for logging purposes at the mill which he recently bought of Mr. Riley. It takes Tom. Farley to gee-haw them to perfection. It forcibly reminds one of the chivalrous days of the fifties.

Fatal Accident.

On last Sunday, while Mr. Charles Messinger and a companion were out hunting geese, an accident occurred which resulted in the death of the former. It seems that they saw a flock of geese sitting on the ground and attempted to creep up near enough to get a shot. While thus in the act of creeping, the gun of Messinger's partner was discharged by accident, the contents taking effect in Messinger's body, and producing wounds from which he died in a short time. It is a noticable fact that a large number of these accidents occur on Sunday. Men ought to learn that God's laws may not be broken with impunity. A good healthy state of morals demands the observance of the christian Sabbath.

Mr. Jos. Emery, of the Agricultural college, has raised some of the finest potatoes this year on his farm we have ever seen. He brought 17 of them to town the first of the week, which filled a half bushel measure heaping full, and sent them to Portland for exhibition at the Mechanics' fair. They are of the Peerless variety.—Lemon.

Died.

At the family residence, in Polk County, Belle, infant Daughter of John McDowell and wife aged one year, three months and twenty days.

Our darling Belle
This evening at two
We bid you farewell
Hereafter hope to see you

My watch is running, your heart is still,
We'll miss you crawling, and submit to God's will,
Our friends were kind, she suffered long,
And yet her little mind near got wrong,
Death's sting came, she looked at Ma and me,
And in the house what she could see;
One arm around it's mothers neck,
The other mine, we kissed her quick.

We did all we could the Dr. too,
Was kind and good, he could not give her over.
But alas she's gone and me and you
Will pass over the other shore.
Fare well Our darling Belle

John McDowell,
Louisa McDowell.

EARS FOR THE MILLION!

Foo Chee's Balsam of Shark's Oil

Positively Restores the Hearing and is the only Asolute Cure for Deafness Known.

This Oil is abstracted from peculiar species of small White shark, caught in the Yellow Sea, known as CARCHARODE ROUSELERI. Every Chinese fisherman knows it. Its virtues as a restorative of hearing were discovered by a Buddhist Priest about the year 1410. Its cures are so numerous and many seemingly miraculous, that the remedy was officially proclaimed over the entire Empire. Its use became so universal that for over 300 years no Deafness has existed among the Chinese people. Sent, charges prepaid, to any address at $1.00 per bottle.

Hear What the Deaf Say.

It has performed a miracle in my case.
I have no unearthly noises in my head and hear much better.
I have been greatly benefited.
My deafness helped a great deal—think another bottle will cure me.
My hearing is much benefited.
I have received untold benefit.
My hearing is improving.
It is giving good satisfaction.
Have been greatly benefited, and am rejoiced that I saw the notice of it.

"Its virtues are UNQUESTIONABLE and its CURATIVE CHARACTER ABSOLUTE, AS THE WRITER CAN PERSONALLY TESTIFY, BOTH FROM EXPERIENCE AND OBSERVATION. Write at once to HAYLOCK & JENNEY, 7 Dey Street, New York, enclosing $1.00, and you will receive by return a remedy that will enable you to hear like any body else, and whose curative effects will be permanent. You will never regret doing so."—EDITOR OF MESSENGER REVIEW.
