After Acute Bronchitis

CURED BY USING

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

Catarrh for Twenty Years.

Warner Lake, Ore., Jan. 16, 1896. I had catarrh for over twenty years, and tried a great many remedies, but nothing did me any good until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was also troubled with numbness in my limbs, but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I am free from all the ailments. My son has also been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. P. A. Fowler.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Fred Hart now carries his right arm in a sling the result of a crushed and dislocated elbow joint caused by a peculiar accident. A rope and pulley service has always been used by the family of Mr. J. C. Hart, who resides in the rooms over the depot, for the purpose of drawing wood, water, etc., up stairs. Fred has been in the habit of using this rope as a means of getting down stairs, "fireman fashion," in answer to the whistle of the train which arrives about 6 o'clock. Wednesday morning at the usual time he started down on the rope but the knot at the end had been untied, consequently the rope slipped through the pulley, letting Fred fall to the ground floor, full force. His arm struck on a truck badly crushing and dislocating his elbow. Dr. McSwords was called and the injured member was carefully dressed, and while Fred is getting along nicely, yet it is safe to say that he will not travel by the "rope route" any more.

A little daughter of Fred Webber, Holland, Mass,, had a very bad cold and cough which he had not been able to cure with anything. I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says W. P. Holded, merchant and postmaster at West Brimefield, and the next time I saw him he said it worked like a charm. This remedy is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases such as colds, croup and whooping cough, and it is famous for its cures. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Phill Cohn, druggist.

CORDRAY'S THEATER.—For some time past Cordray's theater has been making extra efforts to please the theater going public. The Bacon stock company now presents a play each week. Last month "The Harvest Queen," a very popular play, and "Over the Garden Wall," a laughable comedy were certainly very creditably presented. This week "Uncle Daniel," a good and wholesome comedy, has been the draw-card of attraction. Heppnerites who visit Portland and desire an evening of pleasure should not forget Cordray.

NATURAL CONCLUSION.—A nervous looking man went into a store the other day and sat down, when a saleswoman offered to serve him. He said he didn't want anything. She went away and he sat there half an hour or so when the merchant went to him and asked if he wanted anything. "No," said the nervous man. "I just wanted to sit here, my doctor has recommended perfect quiet, and he says above all things I should avoid crowds. Noticing that you did not advertise in the newspapers I thought this would be as quiet a place as I could find; so I just droped in to spend a few hours."

A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 50 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.
