Where They Met.

McKinley Bill, with Napoleon eye,
Says "Bryan let's drink some Linwood Rye;
We meet as friends, my words are few
I hope they don't, dear Brian Bore U."
And Bryan says, in a joking manner,
"I wonder if that's what's the matter with Hanna
That's horse and horse, you funny feller
When I see my wife I am bound to Teller."
Then they gravely bowed, and they winked an eye,
And they drank some more good Linwood Rye.

Robbery at Fossil.

J. A. Burdell, of this city, who came over from Fossil Sunday last, brings the report of a robbery that occurred at that place the previous Friday night, when $300 was taken from Mr. Hoover's safe. The thieves entered his merchandise store, and with tools they had taken from the blacksmith shop, broke off the handle of the safe and with the use of powder blew off the door when they easily reached the money, which was composed almost wholly of five dollar gold pieces. At the time he left no clew to the robbery was reported.

BASE BALL.

The Heppner and Morrow County Nines Play the Fifth Game to Settle the Championship of the County.

The Heppner and Morrow County base ball nines played probably the last game of the season last Saturday to settle the so-called championship of Morrow county, each nine having previously won two games apiece. While the score was large the game was rather evenly played and was interesting from the first call to "play ball" until the last out was recorded in the ninth, which showed the Heppner boys winners by a score of 34 to 31.

The game was called promptly at 2 p. m. with Heppner Blackman and Earl McFarland as umpires, Bruce Kelly as official scorer and the Heppner boys at the bat. They scored but two runs when the opposing nine came to bat and placed 11 runs to their credit in their half of the inning. The Morrow County boys retained the lead until the seventh when the Heppner nine forged ahead, keeping the lead until the finish, winning by the above mentioned score.

In the batting record the lead perhaps belonged to Norman Myres who scored 6 runs with 2 outs, J. McGuinn and Clyde Saling who scored 5 runs and 2 outs each, and A. W. Patterson 6 runs and 1 out. In fielding Jim Raney, Frank Natter and Vawter Crawford probably made the best records, having scored the most assists and put outs.

The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Heppner..	2	2	3	2	7	5	11	1	1	—34
Mor. Co..	11	3	1	1	8	1	5	1	0	—31

The players were arranged as follows: Heppner—N. Myers, p; A. W. Patterson, 3d; Vawter Crawford, ss.; H. Bagley, lf.; Frank Natter, 2d; J. Mills, 1st; L. Matlock, c; Percy Garrigues, rf; Wm. Dunn, cf.; Morrow County—J. McGuinn, c; Jay Shipley, 2nd; F. Hart, lf.; J. McFee, p.; O. Saling, 3d; Jim Raney, 1st; J. Hart, rf.; Ed Saling, cf; Jim Brown, ss.
