A FUTURE GALA DAY.

The winds will ripple the banners gay,
When Johnny comes marching home.
The crowds will sing and the bands will play,
"When Johnny Comes Marching Home."
And the cheers will rise
Till they reach the skies
And shiver the sparkling dome,
While each dancing star
Marks the time afar,
When Johnny comes marching home.

The east and south and the north and west,
When Johnny comes marching home.
Will look their proudest, and bring their best,
When Johnny comes marching home.
And the far-off breeze
Of the tropic seas
O'erlapping the fragrant foam,
Will claim a share
In the chorus rare,
When Johnny comes marching home.

How to Subscribe for the New Bonds.

The war loan which is now being offered will be sold to subscribers at par during the period of subscription, which ends July 14, 1898. The method of subscription has been made as simple as possible. Blank forms may be obtained at every money-order postoffice, and at most of the banks and express offices, and on these forms is clearly indicated all that it is necessary for the subscriber to fill out. The subscriber may himself mail to the treasury department at Washington the blank form filled out, together with his remittance covering the par value of the amount of bonds for which he wishes to subscribe. That remittance may be in whatever form best suits the subscriber's convenience—in currency, bank draft, check, postoffice money-order, or express money-order. The day the currency is received, or the day the proceeds are received from the checks, drafts, or money orders, the subscription will be entered and will immediately begin drawing interest. When the bonds are delivered, a check will accompany each delivery covering the interest at 3 per cent from the day the subscription is entered to the 1st of August, the date of the bonds, and from which date the bonds will carry their own interest.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The First Fight on Cuban Soil," since the beginning of our war with Spain, will be described in the July McClure's by Mr. Stephen Bonsal, who was himself an eye-witness of the fight. Mr. Bonsal also took the photographs from which his article is to be illustrated.

The financial question is prominent in politics and you want this book. It is bound neatly in paper and retails for 50 cents the world over. Come early before all the premiums are gone. LOCAL SQUIBS.

B. F. Swaggert is up from his Juniper ranch.

The rainy period seems to be over for the present.

Chas. Bockler was in from Monument on last Thursday.

Lawrence Sweek is over from the John Day looking after his wool.

Joe Eskelson reports crops better than average out on Social Ridge.

Mr. Profit, of the Haystack section, took out a big load of supplies this week.

Statements for the Famous Simple Account File printed at the Gazette office. tf.

R. J. O'Reilly, traveling freight agent of the Missouri Pacific, was in Heppner on last Thursday.

Warm weather is ripening barley and is pushing wheat along towards a bountiful harvest, next month.

County Clerk-elect Crawford is receiving numerous applications for deputy, but thus far has made no selection.

Mr. C. W. Lawrence, representing Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, the Remington typewriter people, was in town yesterday.

Frank Melvin, of Julietta, Idaho, representing the Minneapolis Lithograph Co., is looking after the interests of his house in this section.

Edmund McNett, representing P. F. Collier Pub. Co., of New York, is in Heppner soliciting subscriptions for various publications.

It has been reported at Pendleton that the Hessian fly is doing some damage to the crops in Umatilla county, but the report lacks confirmation.

The first lot of wool sold this season at The Dalles was disposed of on Wednesday. The lot consisted of 67 sacks and brought 12¼ cents a pound.

Cure that cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best cough cure. Relieves croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25cts. Sold by Conser & Warren. v

A. M. Gunn spent a day or two this week in the Eight Mile section looking after his wheat interests. He expects to harvest a large amount of grain this fall from present indications.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold by Conser & Warren. v

Pendleton's postmaster will receive after July 1, $2,000 per year, instead of $1,800. The Heppner office also goes up from $1,300 to $1,400 July 1st. Even postmasters are prospering.

G. V. McHaley, a merchant of Hamilton, Grant Co., was in Heppner on business Wednesday. His brother, Rice McHaley, was elected county clerk of Grant county at the recent election.

The Fourth of July celebration is a sure go. Arrangements are being made for the big "doings" and a program such as Heppner never saw before will be carried out to the letter. See the big ad.

The Washington volunteers complain very much of their treatment at the Vancouver barracks. They are made to work at labor that is very distasteful to many of them and it goes against the grain. A soldier's life isn't much of a pic-nic anyway.

A remarkably rich gold ledge was discovered on Willow creek, Malheur county, 30 miles south of Baker City. The ledge is two feet wide, and the ore from it is so rich that three men have been taking out from $30 to $50 a day with hand mortars.

A Hood River fruit company has begun canning strawberries. The present establishment has a capacity of 4000 quart cans a day. The company is paying 2½ cents a pound for berries, which are delivered in prune baskets, and the baskets returned.

At Athena on Wednesday, Charles Huffman, an immigrant, shot two men, by the name of Fred Heckman and D. M. Walter, whom Huffman claimed robbed him of $50. He used a double-barreled shotgun, and it is thought Heckman's wounds will prove fatal.

Ex-Postmaster Stephen Green, of Oregon City, plead guilty to embezzling postal funds in Judge Bellinger's court in Portland Monday, and was fined $100. Robbing a postoffice while one is postmaster appears not to be a very serious affair, judging from the lightness of this fine.

Wool is selling at Heppner now from 8 to 12 cents a pound. But little is changing hands as the market seems to be at a standstill. However, wool may be expected to move soon. Wheat is on the downward grade and is worth but 50 cents at the present time, with indications that it may go lower.

Hon. H. L. Benson, circuit judge-elect, has gone to Klamath county. He expects to become a resident of that section after July 1st, as he will hold court in the eastern portion of the judicial district, Judge Hanna attending to the business in Jackson and Josephine counties as before, says the Jacksonville Times. Judge Benson was the speaker of the so-called Benson house in 1897.

E. C. Clement, United States postoffice inspector, was in Heppner Wednesday and examined the books of Postmaster Williams. It is not boasting, but simply justice to Bro. Williams to say that he stands right at the head in the estimation of the postoffice department for the excellent manner in which he has conducted the business of the postoffice at this place. They have no fault to find with Joe.

A Sure Thing for You.
A transaction in which you cannot lose is a sure thing. Biliousness, sick headache, furred tongue, fever, piles and a thousand other ills are caused by constipation and sluggish liver. There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescibed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,
