THE ELECTION IN SQUAWVILLE.

It Was Non-Partisan as to the Fate of the Candidates.

From The Denver Post.

Fur somethin' like a score o' years ol' Uncle Billy Reese
Has ladled out our Squawville law as justice of the peace.
An I've a notion when the call from Angel Gabr'el comes
"I'll find him yit a-sittin' there a-twirlin' of his thumbs.
A notion struck us t'other day 't'd be bong 'tong a few
Fur us to have a election day as outside people do,
An' when the idee fust was broached it seemed so new an' strange
We coupled to it with a whoop that seemed to jar the range
We was'nt fly on politics, but had a notion that
We'd manage fur to pull it off with laudable eclat,
An' as a sort o' primal move we counted up our clans,
An' found 'bout half was Democrats an half Republicans,
We'd never had no officers in that whole mountain belt
Exceptin' justice of the peace, which Uncle Billy helt,
But all the same we cottoned to the firm belief that we
Could handle an election day in style, awey up in G.
Both parties helt conventions, an, I want to tell you, pard,
They was'nt Sunday-school affairs conduted by the card,
But all the same each party chose its leader fur to pack
Its standard in the race along the candidatial track.
Us Democrats put up a man we thought 'd win fur sure,
A man that could both read an' write, ol' Colonel Jack McClure.
Whilst them upon the other side named Faro Tommy Ward,
As sq'ar' a fellow-citizen as ever dealt a card.
The battle scarcely had begun, afore we heard it said
That Ward had left a' Eastern state, a price upon his head.
An' that if it was run to earth the death o' Texas Jim,
A feller that was slugged an' robbed, might be ascribed to him.
Ol' Faro turned a whitish cast when charged with this offence,
Which seemed to show his guilt without no furthur evidence;
Then party lines was cast aside an' politics forgot,
An' jest to purify the camp we hung him on the spot.
Then came a painful rumor that ol' Colone Jack McClure
In former antecedents was'nt absolutely pure;
That some one had it from the states that he had chocked his wife
An' had to change his residence fur safety to his life.
We brought the accusation home to him, an' then the cuss
Allowed his prev'ous record did'nt cut no ice with us,
An' then ag'in the party lines were giv' a resting berth,
An' Reps. an' Demo's both chipped in to raise him from the earth.
Again we called conventions, with the stated view to fill
The vacancies created by a moral people's will,
But every candidate we named declined with skeery face,
Each claimin' that he had no time to monkey with the place.
There was'nt a rooster in the camp that wasn't asked to run,
But all of 'em shied at the game, an' every cussed one.
I'm willin' fur to bet my head ag'in a lump o' clay,
Had records that they was afear'd never stand assay.
An' so, as I remarked afore, ol' Uncle Billy Reese
'Ll likely hold the honored seat of justice o' the peace
Till Gabr'el toots the final horn, or cruel death creates
A vacancy for which we'll have no ready candidates,
Somebody started up a yarn that Uncle Billy hed
A story chasin' him around that was almighty bad
But we unanimously tossed the rumor to the wall,
For if we had to hang the judge we'd have no law at all.

Dreadfully Nervous.

Gents:—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Carl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Was One of Them.

Here is a story told of Patrick O'Mars, a private in the Ninth regulars: Not long ago he went to the colonel, who was a severe disciplinarian, for a two weeks' leave of absence:

"Well" said the colonel, "what do you want a two weeks' furlough for?"

Patrick answered: "Me wife is very sick and the children are not well, and if ye don't mind she would like to have me home for a few weeks to give her a bit of assistance."

The colonel eyed him for a few minutes and said: "I might grant your request, but I got a letter from your wife this morning saying that she didn't want you home; that you were a nuisance and raised the devil whenever you were there. She hopes I won't let you have any more furloughs."

"That settles it. I suppose I can't get the furlough, then?" said Pat.

"No! I'm afraid not Patrick; it wouldn't be well for me to do so under the circumstances."

It was Patrick's turn to eye the colonel, as he started for the door. Stopping suddenly he said:

"Colonel, can I say something to you?"

"Certainly, Patrick, what is it?"

"You won't get mad, colonel, if I say it?"

"Certainly not, Patrick, what is it?"

"I want to say there are two splendid liars in this room, and I am one of them. I was never married in my life."

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back and weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the liver and kidneys, adds to blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents a bottle at Slocum Drug Co's, E. J Slocum, manager.

GRANT COUNTY NEWS.

From Grant County News.

John Day will have a Christmas tree this year for the little folks.

D. G. Overholt has built an addition on his new store to be used as a temporary residence.

All efforts to recover the body of Chas. Campbell, who was drowned a short time ago, have proven fruitless

Mr. Hightower, a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Short of this place, left on the stage Sunday for his home in Missouri.

The ice this season is the finest seen for many a year in Canyon City. It runs from 8 to 12 inches thick and is as clear as crystal.

J. F. Hester, of Malheur City, Malheur county, a young man who has been prospecting on upper Willow creek for the past two years, has suddenly disappeared, and no trace whatever of him can be found.

Blue Mountain Eagle.

Denver and Montana mining journals predict a mining boom in Eastern Oregon during 1899.

The Heppner Gazette has discontinued its semi-weekly publication and comes out with a large eight page weekly.

Fox has been made a money order office. This change will be quite a convenience to the people of that valley.

B. F. Miller, the proprietor of the Heppner-Canyon City stage line, is in the city looking after the interests of his line.

Emil Scharff, of Monument, received a kick on his leg from a newly shod horse last Friday, and narrowly escaped serious injury.

Quite a number of sheep are being driven from Crook county to Malheur county to be wintered, as hay is more plentiful and cheaper in Malheur county.

Rufus Kimberly, a former resident of this valley, came over from Canyon City last Sunday. He departed Monday morning for Heppner after freight for Canyon City merchants.

Dr. E N. Crockett made a professional trip to Susanville last Friday, being called to administer medical treatment to Jos. Frazier, who was shot by George Sandidge. He reports Mr. Frazier's wound not necessarily fatal, especially if he was where he could receive constant medical treatment.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten millions trial bottles of this great medicine and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on E J Slocum, druggist, and get a trial bottle free, regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Money-Saving Pointers.

Do you wish to buy a piano? If so, stop and consider. Do not be imposed on. Buy a good one from a salesman in whom you have confidence, and who has a reputation at stake. Josef Moeller ships in carloads, and therefore can sell cheaper than those who do business on a small scale. He can furnish you a piano at any price, and at terms to suit your convenience. For prices and information, inquire at his office at the Slocum Drug Co's. store, Heppner, Or.

An exchange says that, inasmuch as you would like that your paper to be a good local paper, just reflect a moment and see how much local news you have furnished for it. As you would like that your home paper would speak a good word about you, just reflect how many good words you have spoken of the paper.

Walking the Floor.

When a business man gets to the point where he cannot sleep at night, where he is so shattered of nerve that it is torture to even remain in his bed, and he has to get up and pace the floor—it is time for that man to bring himself up with a round turn. If he does not, it means nervous prostration and mental, if not physical, death.

For a man who gets into this condition there is a remedy that will brace him up, put him on his feet and make a man of him again. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It goes to the bottom of things. It searches out the first cause. When a man is in this condition you can put your finger on one of two spots and hit that first cause—the stomach or the liver or both. This great medicine acts directly on these spots. It promptly transforms a weak stomach into a healthy one. It facilitates the flow of digestive juices and makes digestion and assimilation perfect. It gives a man an appetite like a boy's. It invigorates the liver. It fills the blood with the life-giving elements of the food, and makes it pure, rich, red and plentiful. The blood is the life current, and when it is filled with the elements that build new and healthy tissues it does not take long to make a man well and strong. It builds firm, muscular flesh tissues and strong and steady nerve fibers. It puts new life, vigor and vitality into every atom and organ of the body. It cures nervous exhaustion and prostration. Nothing "just as good" can be found at medicine stores.

"I had suffered about eleven years with a pain in the back of my head and back," writes Mr. Robert Hubbard, of Varner, Lincoln Co., Ark. "I suffered for eleven years and spent a great deal of money for doctors and medicine, but did not get relief. Then I tried four bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and improved greatly. I sent for five more and now am glad to tell everyone that I am in good health."

Something for the New Year.

The world-renowed success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for near half a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets Hostetter's Almanac. This medical treatise is published by the Hostetter Company Pittsburgh, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing sixty hands in that department. The issue of the same for 1898 will be over eleven millions, printed in nine languages Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The Almanac for 1899 can be obtained, free of cost, from druggists and, general county dealers in all parts of the country.
