ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?
ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and inferred same treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain. Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 750 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.
Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.

CHANGE IN THE CABINET

Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith Resigns.

H. C. PAYNE SUCCEEDS HIM

There Will be No Reduction in the Tariff—Miss Stone Believed to be in Bulgaria—Stock Losses.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia, has tendered to the President his formal resignation as Postmaster General, to take effect early next month, and Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin, vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, has accepted the tender of the office to which he will be nominated after the holiday recess. Smith has agreed to remain until after January 15th, if necessary, but will return immediately thereafter to Philadelphia to resume the editorship of the Philadelphia Press.

All the members of the Cabinet expressed their profound regret, and the President paid a very impressive tribute to the services and personality of the retiring member of his official family.

Smith has been frequently reminded by his business associates of the duties devolving on him, and was anxious to return to them. He had several talks with President Roosevelt on the subject, and finally, on Saturday afternoon last formally tendered to the President his letter of resignation.

Tariff Will Stand.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Republicans in both senate and house recognize the necessity of reducing the revenue, but they do not intend to allow the reduction to extend to the customs duties. Every announcement thus far has been to the effect that any reduction of the revenues must be upon war taxes, and not on customs duties.

Republicans do not fear any rebuke from the people because they refuse to revise the tariff. They believe that the people will be satisfied as long as the good times continue, even if higher prices are paid for custom made articles and for that reason they will not attempt tariff reduction.

Emperor William has decorated Marquis Ito with the Order of the Red Eagle.

That Cough Hangs On
You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.
SCOTT'S EMULSION will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.

Miss Stone in Bulgaria.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, wiring from Sofia, says that George Washburn, president of Robert College, at Constantinople has ascertained that Miss Stone is not now in Bulgaria. Mr. Washburn also learns that the majority of the band holding Miss Stone captive are Bulgarians. It is rumored that Miss Stone is now in Servia.

Loss of Sheep Heavy.

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., Dec. 16.—Andrew Christenson, who runs 3500 sheep north of Green River, has reached here, and reports that all flocks in that section are lost, together with a number of herders. The storm, he says, was the worst he ever saw in this state. He believes the loss among sheep will be heavy.

Big Rabbit Drive.

PENDLETON, Or. Dec. 16.—At the mouth of Butter creek, December 29, will occur a rabbit drive. Many people will participate. It is expected that thousands of jack rabbits will be corraled and slaughtered. The plan is to make an excursion from several towns, and induce people who can overcome their humane scruples to go there on cheap fares and assist in the bloody work of killing all the rabbits that the hunters are able to drive into their enclosure. Fences half a mile long have been built leading out from the corral at right angles. People will be there from all parts of the country. Women are invited to participate. Lunch counters will be set up and hot meals served. Last year at Bialocks' Island, thousands of rabbits were slaughtered, and hundreds of people attended.

She Gaped too Wide.

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 16.—Mrs. Harry Hibbard yawned at a ball at Sons of Veterans Hall Saturday, and broke up the dance. Mrs Hibbard opened her mouth to the fullest extent, and when she undertook to close it the hinges stuck. The jaw absolutely refused to close, even when considerable pressure was brought to bear. When closed by main force, the jaw would immediately fly open as soon as released. The announcement created intense excitement and the dance broke up. A doctor was called and the unfortunate woman removed to her home. After a few hours' work the trouble was corrected.

Frozen to Death.

BAKER CITY, Or., Dec. 16.—Dan Burke a well-known laboring man of North Powder, was frozen to death Saturday night in the hills 18 miles west of Haines. Burke left Haines Saturday to do some work on a tunnel for Fisher Bros. The tunnel is to tap a lake for irrigation purposes on the north fork of Rock Creek. His body was found yesterday morning by some men who were going over the trail. Several packages and bundles were scattered along the trail. It was apparent that Burke had become exhausted and died from exposure. Coroner Snow decided that an inquest was not necessary. Burke was a member of the Woodmen of the World at North Powder.

The confession of the negro, Addison Kidd, at The Dalles, Saturday, of the crime of wrecking the O. R. & N. Company's passenger train that resulted in the death of Engineer Cavanaugh, on December 6th, is a clever piece of work on the part of Detective J. F. Reilly, who brought from the prisoner the facts in the case. The crime is a most cold blooded one, for it is merely an accident that a large number of the passengers did not meet the fate of the faithful engineer. Under the provisions of an act of the Legislature, passed in 1893, any person who shall place an obstruction on a railroad track by which a train is wrecked and the death of one or more passengers results, shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of murder in the first degree, and will undoubtedly be hanged for the act.

H. V. Hoghson has moved his bunch of sheep to the Pilot Rock pastures. He says that throughout the recent heavy rains they have held up well. Mr. Blackwell thinks that 25,000 head would not be an overestimate of the number of cattle that have been driven from Harney county this year. Something near one half of this stock was sold by the five large companies operating in the county and the balance represents the output of the smaller ranchers.—Burns News.

Surrender of Chenoweth.

"If you are the Sheriff I have a job for you," said a man as he walked into the Sheriff's office at the courthouse Monday afternoon, according to the Corvallis Times. Deputy Sheriff Henderson was on guard behind the counter during the absence of Sheriff Burnett, and he stepped forward to receive the tax money or vouchsafe the information that he supposed the visitor wanted.

"Well, I want to be locked up," continued the stranger. "I am the man who escaped from the Union County Sheriff by jumping from the train while enroute to the insane asylum. I am supposed to be crazy, and I have come in to give myself up. Take me to jail."

Deputy Henderson was a trifle disconcerted, but was ready to accommodate. After several minutes conversation he noticed a slightly strange glitter in the visitors eye and an occasional wandering of conversation that indicated mental unbalance. In due time, the strange visitor was taken to jail as requested, and the proper authorities were notified.

The man is Elwood Chenoweth. Ten days ago he escaped from the Sheriff of Union County, while the latter was en route with him to the insane asylum. He chose a favorable opportunity, and leaped from the train near Echo. The train was reported in the papers to be going 40 miles an hour, but Chenoweth says it was not going above 20.

The self made prisoner is a strange person. If he talked but little, he would scarcely be selected as crazy.

He claims to be a preacher. He says he was sent to the asylum because he was smarter than the preachers in his vicinity. He has discovered that, though there is a God, there is no devil or hell, and because he preaches this, they want to get rid of him.

The prisoner, if his accounts be true, has had several encounters with officers since his escape from the Union County Sheriff. At Umatilla a Constable took him into custody. "I simply talked nice and smooth to him for a little while and the officer turned me loose with an apology for taking me for an insane man," he said.

Though officers in all Eastern Oregon towns were looking for him, Chenoweth says he was in LaGrande, in The Dalles and various other places.

Sheep Notes.

J. S. Gale and Walter Farr will feed 6,000 sheep this season at several ranches in the vicinity of Eaton, Colorado. They have brought to that section 11,000 lambs, which they will feed with wheat and alfalfa, corn being to expensive.

J. Estrem, one of Nevada's most prominent sheep owners, has sold out and will retire from business. All of his sheep, some 100,000 head, which have bee feeding on Big Meadows for some time past, were sold to San Francisco wholesale butchers. The price Mr. Estrem realized for the sheep is said to nearly approach $4 per head. This is a top notch price for this year, although last year at this time sheep could have been sold for $5 per head.

The sheep men of Carbon and Sweetwater counties, Wyoming, are making arrangements for a gigantic consolidation of their interests in grazing lands and will try to secure possession and control of all the lands in the Red desert for the grazing of their sheep. They will lease this land from the Union Pacific, securing each alternate section, and thereby secure control of approximately 1,500,000 acres of the finest grazing lands to be had in the West. The object of the combine is to exclude sheep men from Utah from encroaching upon the rights of local sheep men by grazing their flocks in the Red desert country and also to put an end to difficulties between local sheep men and cattle men.

For a number of years sheep men have been in the habit of coming in from Utah and with their flocks eat off the range held in reserve by local flockmasters for winter feed and then, before the tax collector comes around, move back into Utah. Cattle men of southern Wyoming are charged with taking possession of the open range, and by drawing deadlines and making threats, force the sheep men out. By leasing this vast tract of land the sheep men will be masters of the situation and all trouble arising from a disposition of the range will come to an end. An effort was made a year ago by the sheep men to secure the big pasture, but they were unable to make satisfactory terms with the railroad company. A proposition has been telegraphed to the Union Pacific's general land office at Omaha and it is expected the deal will be closed in a few days.

Miss Marion Cunningham, the Popular Young Treasurer of the Young Woman's Club of Emporia, Kans., has This to Say of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your Vegetable Compound cured me of womb trouble from which I had been a great sufferer for nearly three years. During that time I was very irregular and would often have intense pain in the small of my back, and blinding headaches and severe cramps. For three months I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and aches and pains are as a past history, while health and happiness is my daily experience now. You certainly have one grateful friend in Emporia, and I have proved your Vegetable Compound to a large number of my friends. You have my permission to publish my testimonial in connection with my picture. Yours sincerely, MISS MARION CUNNINGHAM, Emporia, Kans."
