TOWN AND COUNTY.

Let it be Done.—We believe it is the duty of the City Council to pass an ordinance requiring all stove-pipes to be passed into a chimney, and not allow them to project through the roofs of buildings. There are a large number of stove-pipes in our town which do not project more than a foot or two above the roof, and they are liable to ignite the building at any time. We would also call the attention of our citizens to an ordinance requiring that all moss must be cleaned off the buildings. Too much care cannot be exercised in preventing fires. We had a narrow escape yesterday. Let it be a warning.

Fire.—The house formerly owned by John Lewis was discovered on fire yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The firemen were promptly on the spot, and the fire extinguished before it did any serious damage. The building was occupied by Mr. Grepe, whose loss will probably be about $100 damage by water. The same amount will probably pay the damage done to the building. The fire caught on the roof, from sparks from the stove-pipe. The fire made its way under the ceiling and roof, and would soon have had a good start.

The School.—The school at the Seminary commenced last Monday. There were in attendaece on the first day 163 scholars. Yesterday it had increased to 178, distributed as follows: Primary department, 44; Intermediate, 49; Academic, 46; Classical, 39. The school is now supplied with a corps of teachers unequalled in the State in any public institution, and we are confident that the patrons will be well satisfied. The children like their new teachers, and seem to be well pleased. We have every reason to believe that the present year will be one of profit to the scholars attending the Seminary.

A Lesson.—There is a certain lady friend of ours in this town who was so imprudent the other evening as to stand at our back and listen to what did not concern her, when she imagined that we had said something most terrible in relation to certain things. Now, dear creature, we would most mildly advise you never to get behind any person's back and listen to what is said. It is bad manners to do so, and if we don't know how to "behave ourself," we are satisfied you showed great indiscretion, in listening to what was not intended for you.

Bluff on Fire.—Some person set the grass on fire on the bluff between 3d and Fourth streets. The fire was checked from going back, but came down on the face of the bluff, and at one time threatened to be destructive. The hose company was out, but could do no service, as the fire was too high up the bluff. It was finally extinguished with buckets. We understand that it was set on fire by accident. Persons should be cautious how they throw fire about this dry weather.

Anniversary.—Rebecca Degree Lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., celebrated its third anniversary of the institution of the Lodge, last evening. Addresses were delivered by Mrs. Geo. Jerome, Mrs. E. Fellows and Chas. E. Warren, Esq., and others, which were all listened to attentively and very appropriate. We regret that our time will not admit of more extended notice.

Emigrants.—A number of German emigrants have been added to our population in the vicinity of Sandy. A colony, numbering several families arrived by the last steamer have bought railroad lands in that part of our county. They are industrious people, and we welcome them to our county. They are just the kind of people we need.

W., F. & Co.'s Agent.—Mr. S. D. Pope, long connected with the P. T. Co., has recently been appointed agent for Wells, Fargo & Co. at Oregon City.

The above is from the Oregonian of the 24th inst. It is a remarkable news item. Mr. Pope was appointed about three months ago and was never connected with the P. T. Co. in his life.

Ballou's Magazine for September.—The September number of Ballou's Magazine is one that should be read by all classes, for it is so good and interesting that when once taken up no one wishes to put it down until the last page is perused. It is full of stories, adventures, poetry, fun, engravings, and not a line in it but contains information. Address Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston.

Ice-Cream Festival.—The ladies of the M. E. Church gave a festival at the Court House last Tuesday evening. The attendance was very large and those in attendance enjoyed themselves very well. By some unavoidable accident the ice cream was a failure, which the ladies of course could not help, and no doubt regreted it as badly as those who were in attendance.

Personal.—We have had the pleasure of meeting the following gentlemen in our city within the past week: Senator Kelly, Capt. Stump, of the Dalles; Judge L. L. McArthur, of the Fifth Judicial District; J. D. Holman an old indispensible attache of the Herald office; and Judge Hamilton, of Portland.

Sad Accident.—We learn that a little boy, aged four years, son of Mr. McAllister, residing on Dr. Welch's farm, was so badly burned last Saturday that he died from the effects on the following day. It is a sad affliction to the parents of the little fellow, who have the sympathy of all.

Festival.—The ladies of the Episcopal Church gave a supper at the Court House last Friday evening, which was well attended, and the receipts highly gratifying. The supper was fully up to the high standard which has heretofore been established by these ladies. Everybody seemed to be well pleased.

Miserable.—We had occasion to cross the river last Saturday at this place in a buggy, and consequently what is termed as the Oregon City ferry boat was brought into use. We think that boat ought to be declared unsafe for either man or beast, and the sooner it is condemned the better.

Pictures.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. McGowan, photographic artist, in this issue. Mr. McGowan is prepared to take pictures at as low a price as can be had in the State, and of a superior quality. Give him a call.

Scribner's for September.—We have received Scribner's Magazine for September. As usual, it is full of interesting reading matter, embracing articles from the most eminent authors of this country. It is the best magazine in the United States. Address your order to Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, N. Y.

Thanks.—We are under obligation to Hon. Jas. H. Slater, for public documents.

Gone to San Francisco.—Mr. Eugene La Forest left on the steamer last week for San Francisco, where he goes in the hope of obtaining medical aid for his failing health. His many friends in this place sincerely hope that he may obtain relief.

Dance.—A very sociable dance was had in Myers' Hall last Tuesday evening. There were just enough present to make it pleasant. The music was good, and the dancers enjoyed themselves highly.

In Town.—Mr. J. R. Ralston, formerly a citizen of this place, but now of the business little village of Lebanon, Linn county, was in town last week and spent a few days with his many friends.

Complimentary.—We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Linn County Fair, which is to be held at Albany commencing September 24th, and continuing four days. The premium list is very liberal.

Sold.—Mr. J. R. Ralston last week sold to A. J Cason and John Myers, his stone store in this city for the sum of $6,000.

Sewing Society.—The Sewing Society of the Episcopal Church meets next Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. Caufield.

Returned.—Hon. D. P. Thompson arrived home last Tuesday, looking well and hearty.

County Court.—The September term of the County Court convenes next Monday.

In Session.—The boad of equalization has been in session during the past week.

Regular monthly meeting of the City Council next Monday evening.

For Sale.—We have a supply of deeds mortgages and other legal blanks on hand and for sale

Telegraphic News.

Utica, August 21.—At the reassembling of the New York Republican State Convention, Gen. John C. Robinson was nominated for Lieutenant Governor. Fred Douglas was nominated one of the Presidential electors for New York.

Maryville, Mo., August 21.—An atrocious series of murders were brought to light yesterday by the arrest of a man named Osborne, at Clarmont. It appears that Osborne, who was traveling with a covered wagon, stopped for some purpose, when some men were attracted to the wagon by a stench proceeding from it. Upon examination they found five bodies in it. Osborne confessed at the end of a rope, that the murders were committed by one Williams, near Halton Kansas. Osborne had been employed to put the bodies out of the way. He confessed having traveled on with the terrible load five days. From a memorandum found on one of the bodies, it is inferred they were a party of movers, consisting of Mr. Ohms, wife and two children and a young man named Dickson, supposed to be a brother of Mrs. Ohms. They traveled from Minnesota to Southern Kansas, and were probably on their way to Nebraska. The last memorandum by the young man was made near Halton. The coroner held an inquest yesterday, and the bodies were buried at Clarmont.

Dubuque, August 26.—The Scientific Congress adjourned, selecting San Francisco for its next meeting place. Professor Levaning of Cambrige, was elected President.

Boston, August 26—At Cavin, N. H. yesterday, the wife of Dr. Asa Wheat died from the effects of taking chloroform, administered by her husband, to extract teeth.

Indianapolis, August 26.—Venerable Bishop Upfold, Bishop of this diocese since 1849 died to-day.

Atchison, Kansas, August 26. — The Atchison and Nebraska Railroad was completed on Saturday to Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and to day trains commenced to run to Lincoln. It makes a direct short line from St. Louis to fort Kearney, on the U. P. R. R..

Hartford, August 23.—A terrible storm passed over Rockville, Ellington and Vernon yesterday, destroying most of the growing tobacco, and breaking glass in the mills at Rockville. The damage amounts to about $5,000. The car-house at Rockville and the engine-house at Vernon depot were blown down. Many trees were uprooted, and two French boys were killed by lightning.

New Haven, August 23.—A pleasure barge on the Connecticut rive rwas struck by lightning and two persons killed and forty wounded.

Charleston, August 23d.—The Republican State Convention yesterday nominated T. J. Moses for Governor. Judge Carr and others withdrew from the Convention.

The World says that the resolutions passed by the State Republican Convention yesterday, inviting co-operation of Democratic voters, and nomination of Gen. Dix as candidate for Governor, amounts to an appeal for Democratic assistance. It says there never was a worse beaten ticket than this one will be, headed by Dix on the pretence that he is a Democrat.

Little Rock, August 22.—The Republican State Convention to-day nominated E. A. Baxter for Governor, W. Smith for Lieutenant Governor, H. Page for Treasurer, Stephen Wheeler for Auditor, L. D. Yorkly for Attorney General, J. C. Corbin (colored) for Superintendent of Instruction, John M. B—— for Congress in the State at large.

Jefferson City, August 22.—The following ticket is nominated by the Democratic and Liberal Convention. Governor, Silas Woodson (Dem.), of Buchanan co.; Lieutenant Governor C. A. Frost (Lib.), of Phelps co.; Secretary of State, F. Wiegel (Lib.), of St. Louis; Register of Lands, Fred Solomon (Lib.), of St. Charles; Judges of Supreme Court, E. B. Ewing, H. M. Voorhees, F. A. Wood and Washington Adams (all Democrats).

Grand Rapids, August 22.—The Democratic and Liberal State Convention to-day nominated Austin Blair for Governor; J. C. Blanchard, Lieut. Governor; Geo. H. House, Secretary of State; J. A. Holten, Treasurer; Gen. Neil Ohearn, Auditor; M. A. Maynard, Attorney General; Willard Starls, Superintendent of Public Instruction. The resolutions endorse the Cincinnati platform and nominees.

New York, August 28. — A Niagra Falls dispatch to the Herald states that prominent Greeleyites and Democrats have congregated there to make up a slate for the Syracuse Convention. Augustus Schell is most prominently mentioned as a candidate for Governor, while Judge Church urges the nomination of Chas. O'Conor as the most probable man to defeat Dix. It is said that O'Conor will accept the nomination, if unanimous, and if the Democratic party will pledge itself to reform in New York city.

Greeley left here for New Haven last night.

The methodist book concern, having complained of the Greeley banner in front of their premises, Commissioner Von Nortwick ordered its removal, as no permit was asked for its erection. It is said that its removal will be resisted.

Columbia, August 27.—The State Democratic Convention adopted resolutions advising the Democrats to nominate no State ticket; demanding of the Republicans to fulfill their pledges for reform, and advising the formation of county organizations for loyal purposes.

Admirable Letter of Hon. J. H. Slater --His Patriotic Stand for Greeley.

LA GRANDE, OREGON,
August 16th, 1872.

M. M. POMEROY:

SIR,—My attention has just been called to the fact that in your paper of August 3rd my name is given among others as one to whom "communications" may be addressed in the interest of the proposed Louisville Convention. This, of course, implies that I am favorable to that movement and willing to work to make it a success, which I beg to inform you is altogether a mistake. The publication of my name in the connection referred to places me in a false position at home and abroad, to correct which is the object of this letter.

While a candidate from our own ranks would have been very much more acceptable to me than Mr. Greeley, I am not, however inclined to make or assist in making, factious opposition to the fairly expressed choice of the convention of our party at Baltimore, which expression undoubtedly reflects the will and wishes of vast majority of the Democracy of the Union. I shall support the ticket as presented at Baltimore and Cincinnati, not because it, or the platform, is all that I could wish, but for the reason that Greeley, the Republican, will, in my judgement, make a better President than Grant, the corruptionist, nepotist and gift-taker, and for the further reason that in the present condition of parties every road which leads from Greeley and Brown leads to Grant. Even silence at the polls on the part of Democrats will be direct aid to Grant, inasmuch as such withholding of the ballot by Democrats will, by every ballot so withheld, increase the chances of Grant's success. The proposed Louisville Convention, if it means anything, and is to have any influence whatever in the November election, means the election of Grant. It can have no other purpose, and unless it shall have influence to produce just that result, it must of necessity prove to be a most miserable failure. This movement may be glossed over as a patriotic effort to "re-organize the Democracy," but all the glossing that can be bestowed upon it will be insufficient to conceal the fact that it is, in spirit, purpose and intent a movement directly in the interest of Grant. It is urged that as between two Republicans Democrats can have no choice. This is an ingenious play upon words, but it is in no sense a frank or honest statement of the case. Mr. Greeley and Grant are both Republicans in name, but here the parallel entirely ceases. One, for more than three years of his administration as Chief Eecutive has, by all the vast powers of his exalted station, sought to make the military superior to the civil power of the Republic. He has asked for, and a servile and truckling Congress has granted him extraordinary powers, dangerous to the liberties of the people, and of doubtful constitutional propriety, all of which powers he has exercised for the purpose of personal and party aggrandisement. And not content with the limitations of the original act as to time he has sought by further legislation, to retain these extraordinary powers until after the November election for no other approved purpose than to possess the power to silence the voice of opposition in the prison cell, and re-elect himself to the Presidency by the power of the bayonet. Under his administration the right of local self-government has been denied, in many of the late insurrectionary States, and the voice of their people, through the ballot box, has been silenced, and their elections have been turned into a farce. Corruption in office has increased to an alarming extent. Nepotism has been practiced to the disgrace of the nation, and interference in the local concerns of the States has become chronic with the Administration at Washington. All these evils are antagonized by Mr. Greeley, and the issues presented are: The supremacy of the civil over the military power of the government; the right of local self-government by the people; free elections, without the interference of Federal authority or Federal dictation, or administrative manipulation; honest men in office, and an honest and faithful discharge of official duty.

Is it possible that Democrats have no choice in these issues? True they are tendered in the person of a Republican; but can Democrats refuse their support to Mr. Greeley and his side of these issues, and not fail to perform the duty which belongs to the honest citizen and voter? It appears to me that the practical lesson taught by experience is, that if we would engraft Democratic measures and the theories upon the administration of governmental affairs, we must at all times be ready and willing to do what may be done to that end, and not refuse to do what can be done because more cannot be accomplished. We can secure much in the election of Mr. Greeley, we ought not to refuse this because we cannot secure all that we might by the election of a Democrat. Acting upon this principle, I propose to leave nothing undone on my part to secure the electoral vote of Oregon for Greeley and Brown.

With great respect, Sir, I am
Your most obedient servant,
JAS. H. SLATER.

A Perilous Season.

Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effects. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is called general debility. It is a general disagreement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitter's is especially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone. If the stomach is torpid, it regenerates it. If the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them. If the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective, antibilious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and all climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs or barrels.

THOMAS CHARMAN

ESTABLISHED - - - - - - 1858!

DESIRES TO INFORM THE CITIZENS of Oregon City, and the Willamette Valley, that he is still on hand, and doing business on the old motto, that

"A Nimble Six-Pence is better than a Slow Shilling."

I have just returned from San Francisco, where I purchased one of the

LARGEST and BEST SELECTED

Stock of Goods

ever before offered in this city; and consists in part, as follows:

Boots & Shoes, Clothing, Dry Goods,
Hats & Caps, Hosiery of every Description, Hardware, Groceries, Paints & Oils, Sash & Doors, Queens-
ware, Crockery,
Glassware,
Chinaware, Stoneware, Platedware,
Jewelry
of various qualities & styles,
Clocks & Watches. Ladies & Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, Fancy Notions of every description, Patent Medicines, Rope, Farming Implements of all kinds, Carpets, Mattings,
Oil Cloth, Wall Paper, &c.

Of the above list, I can say my stock is the MOST COMPLETE ever offered in this market, and was slected with especial care for this market. All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Rates.

No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for I am DETERMINED TO SELL CHEAP and not allow myself to be

UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.

All I ask, is a fair chance and quick payments. Believing, as I do, that nineteen years' experience in Oregon City enables me to know the requrements of the trade.

Come one and all, and see for yourselves that the old stand of

cannot be beat in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is, come and see and examine for yourselves, for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or on such terms as agreed upon.

Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.
