WE WALK TO-NIGHT THE SAME OLD PATH.

BY MILBURN.

We walk to-night the same old path
We trod so long ago,
When you and I were young, dear wife,
Our hearts with love aglow,
And roses bloomed upon your cheeks,
Your blue eyes bright and clear,
Upon that calm, sweet summer night
We pledged our love so dear.

We never thought of sorrow then,
Nor dreamed of care and woe,
But thought on us the sun would still
His golden beams bestow.
Since then the cruel hand of Time
Has changed your hair to gray,
And dimmed the lustre of your eyes,
That once were bright as day.

And faded now the rosy bloom
I loved so well to see,
When first we trod the path, dear wife,
With hearts both light and free;
Despite the changes time has wrought,
We love each other still,
And joyously with hand in hand,
We're traveling down the hill.

And when we reach the foot, at last,
Together we will rest.
For soon our sun of life shall set
Forever in the west;
With peace and joy we calmly wait,
We know the end is nigh;
Together we shall walk again
With God above the sky.

Alexander T. Stewart.

A Saratoga correspondent of a New York city paper thus describes the appearance, etc., of the famous New York merchant, A. T. Stewart. The writer says: "He dresses in black. His clothes are well made and fit him perfectly. His only jewelry consists of a plain gold watch, worth about $500, which he seldom disturbs from its place in his vest pocket. He loathes all unnecessary personal adornments. Three small, plain linen-covered buttons appear on his shirt bosom. He wears a black beaver hat, which weighs a half-pound less than the heavy gray stovepipes which fashion ordains shall be worn this summer. His hair, of a reddish gray, is neatly dressed at all times. His beard, which is more tinted with gray than his hair, is short and trimmed regularly, so as to be kept the same length all the year round. Where a cumbersome mustache ought to be a hair is not permitted to attain more than a day's growth. He is of a slender, though compact physique. His complexion is ruddy, and bespeaks the best of health. He always looks as though he had just left the toilet table. This man is seventy-four years of age. In conversation, his keen blue eyes are never for an instant taken off yours. His face bears the expression of prudence, discretion, self-confidence, a calmness impossible to ruffle, and above all of honesty and truthfulness. He never speaks loud enough to be heard ten steps from where he stands. Eavesdroppers cannot catch even the sound of his voice. He shakes hands with you cordially, nay even warmly. He is courtesy and politeness itself. His conversation is always couched in the refined language of the educated gentleman. He uses no slang. He is witty and at times vivacious. He is no rectotlar; he drinks only at meal hours; his favorite wines are Johannisberg, from Prince Metternich's private vineyard, the like of which is not easily found in this country; he is fond of cherry and madeira; his wine-cellar contains probably the finest collection of wines in America. This man's wealth is estimated at one hundred million dollars, made by him since 1831, in New York city. He has no children; he has not a single known relative on the face of the earth. He is the last of his race."

HE LEAVES IT TO THE PEOPLE.—Grant wants to be re-elected, and whether by the Radical party or some new party makes but little difference to him, the New York Sun thinks. At Chanute, Kansas, the other dry, General T. K. Cone asked him bluntly: "Are you a candidate for the third term?" The President did not seem inclined to reply, when General Cone turned to those in attendance and said: "Boys, silence gives consent." The President then quickly remarked: "I'll leave this to the people." After this he is not likely to say at present that he will not be a candidate. He is not easily scared, and his faith in his own luck is one of his strongest moral qualities. Besides, it would be too late.

A MEETING IN THE WOODS.—It was on the edge of the woods. They had come thither from different points in pursuit of the sensitive partridge, but in the shrubbery one startled hunter discovered that the other had drawn a bead on him. "Don't shoot," said he, "I'm not a partridge." "I must shoot," was the response, "for I have sworn that if ever I saw a man homlier than I am I would kill him." The intended victim gazed curiously for a moment, and then said, placidly, "Fire away; if I am homlier than you are I even wish that I were dead." They adjourned to get a statement from a competent witness.

"Where was Bishop Latimer burned to death?" asked a teacher in a commanding voice. "Joshua knows," said a little girl at the bottom of the class. "Well," said the teacher, "if Joshua knows, he may tell." "In the fire," replied Joshua, looking very grave and wise.

A young lady without arms was married last week in New Jersey. But it was remarked by her friends at the wedding that if any persons thought she was not prepared for the emergencies of married life they just ought to see her kick the stuffing out of a bag of sand.

FRANK.—A tobacconist, with commendable frankness, advertises: "I shall continue to keep on hand imported cigars of my own manufacture."

The Los Angeles fruit dryer has turned out its first raisins, made from the Mission grape, and grocers there pronounce them equal to the best imported.

GENERALLY.—If a man wants to find out what's in him let him go to sea. The first rough weather will generally enable him to ascertain it.

THOMAS CHARMAN

ESTABLISHED : 1853.

DESIRES TO INFORM THE CITIZENS of Oregon City and of the Willamette Valley, that he is still on hand and doing business on the old motto, that

A Nimble Six Pence is Better than a Slow Shilling.

I have just returned from San Francisco, where I purchased one of the ever offered in this market, and was selected with especial care for the Oregon City trade. All of which I now offer for sale at the Lowest Market Rates.

MOST COMPLETE

No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for I am Determined to Sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be

UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.

All I ask is a fair chance and quick payments, believing as I do that

Twenty Years Experience in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and desirous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as may be agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.

Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumous Discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, cancers in the Womb, and all women's delicate and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of the serious forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becomes reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the Sarsparillian will and does secure. Not only does the Sarsparillian Resolvent excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white concretions adhesive, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the small of the back and along the loins. Price, $1 00.

WORMS.—The only known and sure Remedy for Worms—Pin, Tape, &c.

Tumors of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

BEVERLY, Mass., July 18, 1868.

DR. RADWAY:—I have had Ovarian tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the Doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried everything that was recommended but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it; but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for twelve years. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, and one box of Radway's Pills, and two bottles of your Ready Relief, and there is not a sign of tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel it is a wonder, and happier than I have for twelve years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish it if you choose. HANNAH P. KNAPP.
