THE West Shore for January comes to us full of interesting matter about our growing State. It contains several well executed cuts of Oregon scenery and public enterprises, while on the first page is a fine portrait of D. H. Lyon, Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department. It contains also a cut representing the gold medal awarded to the Albion Fruit Preserving Company of this city. In commenting on the Company the editor says: "In the fruit line they will be hard to beat," and we agree with him. The West Shore is published monthly by L. Samuel, at Portland, and is only $1 50 a year.

Driven to Death.

We are an over-worked people. The almighty dollar is pursued with a phrensy which admits of few pauses or breathing spells. How frequently one hears the phrase "driven to death," implying all that it does of physical exhaustion and mental excitement. Among artificial recuperants of exhausted energy, there is not one that so powerfully counteracts the effects of fatigue as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and next to that natural rest for which nothing can wholly compensate, it is the best and safest resources of those who are obliged, or think that they are, to under an excessive amount of labor. Against the hurtful effects of exposure upon the sensitive organs, the Bitters are likewise an efficient protective. A dose or two will often counteract effects which a severe wetting might otherwise produce, and the danger arising from unhealthy or fatiguing occupations is materially lessened by the daily use of this most reliable fortifying cordial, which possesses the additional recommendation of being an excellent antiseptic, or means of retarding bodily decay, a fact sufficiently proven by its recuperative effects in all diseases of a depleting and exhausted nature.

People who are obliged to take their meals in a hurry, or under circumstances which prevent that repose which the mind should enjoy during the process of deglutition, are notoriously the victims of dyspepsia. They may, however, avoid in a great measure the varied torments inflicted by that Proteus of maladies, by swallowing after each meal a wineglassful of the National Stomachic.

PIK's Toothache Drops cure in one minute

A large Volume would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY as a safe, efficient and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds and pulmonary disease. Many of the cures are truly wonderful.

HEADACHE. As a remedy for headache Pond's Extract is used with much benefit, by bathing the forehead with it and taking ten or fifteen drops internally. It is most useful in headaches of a congestive character, attended with a fulness, heaviness and tension in the head, and especially where headaches are attended with or are liable to result in nose bleed, the forehead may be bathed or a cloth, wet in the Extract, and taken inwardly, dose as above, repeated in an hour, if necessary.
