Mob Takes Recaptured Escape From Glasgow Jail and Hangs Him-One Man Has Not Yet Been Caught.

BUTTE, Mont., June 18.-A Miner spe-BUTTE, Mont., June 12.—A Miner spe-chal from Glasgow says William Mardee, who was sentenced to be hanged here June 26 for the murder of Charles Snearly, near Culherson, in September, 1984, and who excaped from the Glasgow jail 4he 6th inst., was killed by the posse that has been on his trail the past ten days, about 75 miles southeast of Glasgow. Charles R. Hill, one of the posse, was killed by Hardee.

They had trailed Hardee and McKinney, another prisoner who escaped with him, about 60 miles up the Missouri River. When they found they had crossed th river the posse crossed the river and struck their trail again and followed it for 12 or 15 miles, and about sundown Monday evening they thought they were in the brushes and were endeavoring to locate them when a shot rang out from the brush and Hill fell dead. The ball struck in his right side and he died

Hardee and McKinney were in the brush Hardee and McKinney were in the brush and it was with difficulty and after several shots had been fired that they were discovered. After several shots had been fired by each of the men in the posse one of the criminals was seen moving partly concealed in the brush, and the posse opened fire again, but nothing could be seen of them and it was about could be seen of them and it was about dark, so nothing further was done that night. During the fusilade it appears Hardee was hit.

Frank Loornison, one of the posse, who had been to camp for lunch, heard the shooting and was hurrying back to the posse when McKinney from behind a hill fired at him, the bullet barely missing his head. Loomison got under cover as quickly as possible, and prepared to make an attack, but nothing more could be seen of McKinney. The location was favorable for the criminals, and they had the advantage of brush and rocks behind which they could hide, and it was almost impossible for them to be

The posse then camped for the night and was not aware that Hardee had been shot through the lungs and must have died in a very short time after being shot. There were several bulletholes in his hat and clothing, but only one took

Tonight about 10:30 a mob went quietly the jall, overpowered the two guards and took Jack Brown, who escaped from jail with Hardee, McKinney and Pierce, the 6th inst., and hanged him from a window in the Courthouse.

SEATTLE LIVING IS HIGH, Pacific States Linesmen There Must

Be Paid More, Says Sabin. SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—The ulti-matum of the ilnemen of the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company was de-livered to the company this afternoon and met with the reply that there would not be a single change in the schedule of wages pald to the employes.

The Western Conference of the Inter-national Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has been in secret session here for three days and the affairs of the line-men were left in the hands of four dele-gates, who visited President Sabin today. The demand of the delegates was that the Seattle rate should be made to apply to the linemen of the entire Coast. At Seattle the men are paid $3.50 per day and else-

Mr. Sabin stated that the schedule was based upon the rate of living, the company declaring that it cost a workman more to live in Seattle than in Los An-geles or San Francisco. He made the announcement that the demands of the men could not be granted. Whether or not a strike of the linemen will now be ordered has not yet been determined.

HORSEBUYER UNDER ARREST. F. M. Coe Will Be Sent to Michigan on Forgery Charge.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 18.—(Special.)— Governor McBride today honored a requi-sition from the Governor of Michigan for the extradition of Frank M. Coe, charged with attering two forged promissory notes in Gogebec County, Michigan. This is a case the Pinkerton men have been working on since last Pall. Coe, it is alleged, represented the firm of L. W. Gildberg & Co., horse dealers, and during the year 1902 made large sales of horses, collecting eash and appropriating it for his own use, while he issued promissory notes with the forged signatures of the buyers and turned them in to the firm.

Coe escaped just three hours before a warrant was issued for him, and was on recently located in Skagtt County, through his wife joining him. He had bought him a home, and was in business there, being highly respected. There are said to be several indictments outstanding against him for the said. ing against him for the same crime.

MINERS WARN SHEEPMEN. Grazing of Flocks in Wyoming

Mountains May Spill Blood. BATTLE, Wyo., June 18 .- As the resu of the recent announcement on the part of the miners in Southern Carbon County that all sheepmen must keep their flocks out of the mountains bitter feeling exists between the two factions, which may result in a sanguinary struggle,

The sheepmen intend to ignore the warning given by the miners and say they will bring their sheep into the mountains to graze during the Summer as they have in the past. Last year one man was killed and three wounded as the re-suit of a conflict between the sheepmen and miners near this city, and the feeling is even stronger now than it has been in the past.

Plant Has Never Been Assessed Before-Colbath Says $125 Now Due Must Be Paid or He Will Sell the Property.

SALEM. Or., June 18.—(Special.)—The State Printing Office was closed at 1 o'clock today by Sheriff B. B. Colbath, who levied upon the office property for $125 due as taxes. The men employed in the office were dismissed for the remainder of the day and the Sheriff appointed Foreman J. E. Godfrey as his deputy to take personal charge of the property. properly.

The office was locked up, but later in the afternoon the grinding of a cylinder press could be heard, indicating that the Sheriff had permitted the pressman to complete a job then on the press. Other work was resumed also, but Mr. Godfrey retained complete possession of the office and property as Deputy Sheriff. Sheriff Colbath would not consent to take con-structive possession, but insisted that the property must be in charge of some one regularly sworn in as a deputy.

"I am going to collect the taxes on this printing outfit and all the rest of the assessed personal property in the county, or know the reason why," said Mr. Colbath, as he tried the office doors to see that they were locked and glanced at the notice he had posted on the main en-

"This property is owned by Frank Baker, of Portland. I have notified him several times that the taxes are due, but he has not paid. It the faxes are not paid in ten days I will sell the printing plant at auction in ten days as required by law. Taxes have never been paid on this property because it has never been assessed before. The stoves and material at the state stove foundry were assessed to their owners, the Loewenberg-Going Company, and the company paid the taxes as soon as I sent them a notice. This property should pay also. It is not owned by the state but by a private individual who rents it."

Sheriff Colbath has started a much-needed reform in the collection of taxes. It has been the practice to let a considerable amount of personal property escape taxation unless it is owned by some cape taxation unless it is owned by some one who has real property. Mr. Colbath says that if possible every dollar assessed against personal property shall be col-lected the year. A number of years ago the smount of personal property upon which the taxes were not collected was large. The law required that the Sheriff try to raise delinquent taxes from per-sonalty before leving upon real property, but the law was disregarded and several but the law was disregarded and several years' tax sales were rendered invalid as
