Death of C. O. Rinearson and D. S. Moore.

We clip the following report of the Coroner's inquest on the bodies of the victims of the explosion at Owyhee rapids recently from the Dalles Tribune:

We the undersigned Coroner's Jury, at Owyhee Rapids, in Wasco County, Oregon, on December 19th, 1876, called to hold an inquest on the body of a man found near Owyhee Rapids, find as follows: That his name was C. O. Rinearson, a native of Oregon, and about 25 years of age; and, from the testimony taken before us, that the cause of his death was the explosion of giant powder, on the morning of December 15th, 1876, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, A. M. Said powder was in a house constructed for the sole purpose of making cartridges, and was located on the bank of the Columbia River at said place; and that he was employed near said place, excavating earth on the day the explosion occurred; and from the testimony taken before us, the deceased had left his work, and was in the cartridge house at the time the explosion occurred.

We find that the contractors had taken every precaution to prevent accidents and said contractors are blameless as to cause of said C. O. Rinearson's death; but that deceased was killed by an explosion, the cause of said explosion to us unknown—an accident of a nature to which said work is liable.

We, the undersigned Coroner's Jury, at Owyhee Rapids, in Wasco County, Oregon, on December 19th, 1876 called to hold an inquest on the body of a man found near Owyhee Rapids, find as follows: That his name is D. S. Moore, of the State of Massachusetts; age about 45 years, and from the testimony taken before us, the cause of his death was an explosion of Giant Powder on Dec. the 15th, 1875 between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning. Said powder was in a house erected for the sole purpose of making cartridges and was on the bank of the Columbia River at Owyhee Rapids; and that said D. S Moore was hired as an expert for his knowledge of giant powder, in preparing catridges to be used in blasting rock from the channel of the Columbia River at said place and that he was engaged in his work at the time of his death. Further from the testimony before us we find that the contractors, Grant & Stone, had taken every precaution to prevent accident, and that said contractors are blameless as to cause of said D. S. Moore's death; but that deceased was killed by an explosion, the cause of said explosion to us unknown, an accident of the nature to which said blasting is liable to occur under the most careful management.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—On the 20th ult., Jesse Bradley was hunting on Eagle creek burn, in this county, in company with Lafayette Ellsworth and Matthew Patterson. The other two men were separated from him about twenty yards when they heard his gun go off, and soon after smelling burning clothing, went to him and found that he had shot himself, the ball going through the left arm and neck, passing out at the back of the neck at the base of the brain. He lived about two hours after being found. The ball cut one of the arteries in the neck. He did not speak after the fatal shot. He was about 28 years old, and leaves a wife and four small children. He was an industrious farmer, well known in the county. It is supposed that he was standing with his left arm on the gun when it was discharged.

MORE ANON.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—Arrangements have been made by the pastors of the Congregational, Baptist and Methodist churches of this city for the observance of the week of prayer—Jan. 7-14, 1877. The programme of subjects, as published by the "Evangelical Alliance," has been adopted. The meeting will be held at the M. E. church on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings, at the Congregational church on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and at the Baptist church on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. All are invited. The singers are especially requested to be in attendance early.

A LIGHT-FINGERED GENT.—A notorious vagrant, called Thomas Henry, was arrested last Monday for stealing, and he was sent up for five days. He slipped behind the bar at Haas' saloon and pocketed a quantity of whisky and rum, and was prepared to celebrate the New Year in grand style; but alas, the vigilant police man knabbed him, and he now slumbers serenely in the county jail. Thomas will do well to leave for parts unknown when he is restored to liberty, as our town can get along without his presence.

THIEVES.—Mr. John Confer, living near Oswego, was robbed of $3,000 last Tuesday. He had recently disposed of some property in Oswego and East Portland, and had placed the money in a carpet-bag, which he hid in what he considered a safe place; but while the family were absent, some person or persons found the money and made away with it. Mr. Confer is an industrious and respected citizen, and the money was about all the means he had, and it is a heavy loss.

PROPERTY SOLD.—Clackamas county was the purchaser of the Huelat property, on Main street last Tuesday, paying therefor $1,080. This is a splendid piece of property, centrally located, and sold at a very low figure. We understand that $3,000 was offered for this place a short time since. Now let us have a court house and we will be satisfied.

At a meeting of Warner Grange No. 117, held Dec. 30, 1876, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Arthur Warner, Master; Samuel Waldron, Overseer; N. W. Randall, Lecturer; Jos. Casto, Chaplain; G. W. Waldron, Steward; L. D. C. Latourette, Treasurer; Henry Fancher, Secretary; C. W. Wagner, Gate-Keeper; Mrs. Elizabeth Warner, Ceres; Mrs. Sarah J. Fancher, Flora; Mrs. Martha Howell, Pomona; Miss Jennie Vinson, Lady Assistant Steward.

INSTALLATION.—The following officers of Fal's Encampment No. 4, I. O. O. F., were installed by D. G. C. P., A. Noltner, last Tuesday evening: M. C. Athey, C. P.; J. W. Meldrum, H. P.; T. O. Walden, Scribe; John Welch, S. W.; J. W. Caldwell, J. W.; J. M. Bacon, Treasurer.

Happy Influence of a Great Specific.

For the preservation or recovery of health and strength, the diet should be wholesome and nutritious. When it happens that the alimentary processes are disturbed by improper or half masticated food, the best remedy for evel results of abusing the digestive organs is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a most agreeable, prompt and gentle remedy for dyspepsia, and for the bilious and evacuative irregularities which result from it. The liver and bowls, in common with the stomach, experience its beneficent influences. The refuse of the system is carried off through its natural outlet, a healthy flow and secretion of the bile is promoted, and a powerful impetus is given to assimilation in consequence of its use. It healthfully stimulates the bladder and kidneys when they are inactive, and by its tonic and regulating action fortifies the system against malaria.

A Remarkable Cure.

WEST TOWNSEND, VT., May 12, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & SONS:—Several years since I took a severe cold, which settled on my lungs, when it remained without relaxation. I was in Massachusetts, and growing worse and becoming unable to attend to my business I returned home and commenced searching in earnest for some medicine which would restore my lost health. I consulted physicians, I tried many remedies, but obtained no help, but daily grew worse. I had a terrible cough, and raised a good deal of blood. I had profuse night sweats, and severe pain in my side. I continued in this state for months, and became so weak that it was with great difficulty I could walk, when I was advised to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and to my great joy I soon found that this remedy has arrested the disease. I continued to use the BALSAM to the extent of five bottles, and have since experienced no difficulty of the lungs. I believe the BALSAM saved my life, and I shall ever hold it in estimation.

Yours truly, LEWIS PHELPS.

We Can't Talk.

Without showing the condition of our teeth. Every laugh exposes them. In order not to be ashamed of them let us use that standard dentifrice, SOZODONT, which is sure to keep them white and spotless. No tartar can encrust them, no canker effect the enamel, no species of decay infest the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous, as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.

Housewives, Attention.

For 75 cents I will send you a receipt for making a superior article of honey, at a cost of 8 cents per pound, unexcelled for table use. Either the soap or honey can be made within fifteen minutes by a child. The saving made by a household in one year's time is incalculable. Both receipts for $1 and a three cent postage stamp. Address, J. R. Robinson, 767, Market st., San Francisco, Cal.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—He only is wise who seeks safety in precaution. Life is uncertain; thousands in the vigor of health to-day will never see to-morrow. The varying atmosphere, the raw, piercing winds warn us of winter's approach with its icy blasts and ruthless scourges: Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Consumption, Rheumatism, Chilblains, Frost Bites, &c. The wise and cautious will immediately have recourse of those powerful invigorators, Holloway's Pills, which enable the lungs to resist deleterious effects of the weather, and fortify the constitution to withstand the vigors and inclemencies of winter. The Ointment is an infallible remedy for inflamation of the throat and all disorders of the chest produced by violent colds; it also gives speedy relief to the organs of respiration. 195

Lowest Market Rates.

No use for the ladies, or any one else, to think of going to Portland to buy goods for I am Determined to Sell Cheap and not to allow myself to be

UNDERSOLD IN THE STATE OF OREGON.

All I ask is a fair chance and quick payments, believing as I do that

Twenty Years' Experience

in Oregon City enables me to know the requirements of the trade. Come one and all and see for yourselves that the old stand of cannot be beaten in quality or price. It would be useless for me to tell you all the advantages I can offer you in the sale of goods, as every store that advertises does that, and probably you have been disappointed. All I wish to say is for I do not wish to make any mistakes. My object is to tell all my old friends now that I am still alive, and destrous to sell goods cheap, for cash, or upon such terms as agreed upon. Thanking all for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed.

Come, and See, and Examine for Yourselves,
