

A BOLD JAILBREAK

Using Warden's Wife as a Shield, Almost Get Away.

BY FAINTING, SHE SAVES DAY

Hospital Attendants and Two Other Officials Are First Made Captives by Sight of a Bottle Containing Nitroglycerin.

CANTON CITY, Colo., June 22.—Kirsch Kuykendall, a convict at the state penitentiary, was shot and killed early today, while attempting to escape with five other desperate prisoners. As Dr. T. D. Palmer and the hospital steward were making the morning rounds, Kuykendall complained of being ill, and the doctor prepared to make an examination. The prisoner drew a bottle, supposed to contain nitro glycerine, and commanded the two men to throw up their hands. They did, and five other convicts then overpowered Cell Housekeeper Clarence Cleghorn and Steward John E. Keene. The four men thus made captives were stripped of their clothing, which the convicts donned.

Taking the doctor and the steward with them, they proceeded toward the gates. On the way the mutineers captured Warden John C. Cleghorn's wife and forced her to go along, using her as a shield to prevent the guards from firing at them. The inner and outer gate were blown off their hinges with dynamite, which the convicts had secured, and an attempt to force the army was foiled. Meantime Warden Cleghorn had arrived from town, and, collecting guards, ordered them to shoot the fugitives whenever an opportunity presented itself to do so without injuring Mrs. Cleghorn. Holding knives over the woman, the mutineers shouted that they would kill her if the guards fired. Mrs. Cleghorn fainted, and the convicts then took to their heels, pursued by the guards.

Kuykendall was killed by Yardmaster John Clark, after shouting: "I'll never be taken alive. I'll not go back to that hole." James Armstrong was overtaken by Wm. Cleghorn, son of the warden, and was severely beaten over the head with a revolver, but was not wounded. The other fugitives who were taken alive, were: Thomas Fisher, Thomas Fallon, Cause Cordova and Robert Kane.

Kuykendall was a member of a gang of Cripple Creek ore thieves and was serving a 14 years' term for shooting an officer in the Stratton Independence mine. Armstrong is serving a ten years' term for burglary, and is wanted in Utah on a charge of murder.

DEWEYS CAN'T HAVE LIBERTY.
Supreme Court Will Allow No Bail Until Its Commissioner Reports.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 22.—The habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Chauncey Dewey, the cattleman, and his employees, charged with the murder of the Berry family, will be heard by the Supreme Court on Monday. Judge & Captain Chauncey Dewey has been appointed a commissioner to go to the Dewey ranch and take testimony from witnesses for the defense. The matter will thus be rapidly disposed of when the Supreme Court gets started on it.

To secure the right to be admitted to bail is the object of the Deweys. If successful they will return to the ranch; otherwise they will remain in the Topeka jail until December, the time of their trial in Cheyenne County.

The militia which left St. Francis with the prisoners Saturday morning arrived in Goodland Sunday evening. When the Topeka officers arrived in Goodland the prisoners were turned over to them. The soldiers accompanied the officers to Clyde, where they took another train for Osborne, their home, having been on duty for two weeks. They arrived here this morning, and were called before the Supreme Court.

John E. Hessest, attorney for the prisoners, asked that the hearing upon the application for bail be held not later than Wednesday or Thursday. Assistant Attorney-General Close said he had received a message from Attorney-General Coleman, asking that the hearing be postponed ten days or two weeks. Mr. Hessest said he would object to the postponement unless the prisoners could be admitted to bail pending the hearing. The hearing is to determine the matter of bail. Justice Johnson suggested that remark was regarded as an indication that bail will not be allowed until after the hearing.

The justices, after a brief consultation, announced that a commissioner would be named to go to the Northwest and take the testimony necessary for the hearing.

FEUDISTS CAUSE HIM TO FLEE.
Principal Witness in Murder Case Leaves for Paris Unknown.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 22.—Captain E. J. Ewen, the witness in the trial of Jeff and White for the murder of J. B. Marcum at Jackson, left here this afternoon for a secret destination. This action was taken on the advice of friends, after Captain Ewen had been informed by a man who came from Jackson today of the existence of a plot to assassinate him.

All sorts of rumors are in circulation concerning efforts to interfere with the course of justice in the Marcum case. Captain Ewen not only felt that he was in danger constantly, but that his presence here might endanger his friends.

Bank Wrecker Forfeits His Bond.

TRENTON, N. J., June 22.—In the United States District Court Albert C. Twining, cashier of the wrecked First National Bank of Asbury Park, was called upon to plead to an indictment of misappropriating funds of the bank. Twining was not in court and Judge Kirkpatrick ordered forfeited bail in the sum of $500, which Twining gave Saturday for his appearance today.

Bank Embezzler Goes to Prison.

DENVER, June 22.—Edwin Howell, ex-prisoner of the Third National Bank of Cripple Creek, was today sentenced by Judge Piner, in the United States District Court, to serve five years in Fort Leavenworth prison. Howell had pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzlement of $100 from the bank.

Special Term to Take Up Feud Cases.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 22.—Judge Redwine has agreed with Governor Beckham that a special term of that court be held to investigate the charges of arson and bribery made by Captain Ewen and others.

Prominent Wisconsin Educator.

PEWAWUCKE, Wis., June 22.—Professor A. P. North, one of the best-known educators and writers in the state, died today, aged 81 years.

- A CALICO SALE OPENS TODAY, 7c values for 4 1/2c
- A MILLINERY SALE OPENS TODAY, values to $5.00 for 39c
- AN UNDERWEAR AND HOSIERY SALE OPENS TODAY, 25c values at half price 12 1/2c

READ THE HOWS AND WHYS:

7c Dress Calico, Per Yard 4 1/2c

No, there's no mistake in the price. We have been selling the same calico over our counters, and giving the best value in town, too, at 7c a yard up to yesterday. Nearly a thousand pieces of this good dress calico, bo't months ago for Spring selling, became lost on the road, en transit, wandered away and ended up its little spree at Portland, Me. The cases were billed to "OLDS, WORTMAN & KING, PORTLAND, OR."—so it's the shipper's or the express company's loss. After tedious delays the goods were traced, set right and arrived here Saturday. Our instructions are from the mills: "Deduct a third and sell." We've done even better, and, starting this, Tuesday morning, shall sell these new, pretty and worthy calicos, in light, medium and dark shades, including the pretty grays and reds so popular now for the house dresses, handsome dress patterns, the best 7c calicos ever sold over any counter in Portland, at, per yard 4 1/2c

Will you be among the lucky ones? See window display.

$5.00 Millinery Values for 39c

Here's the best millinery news ever given out by any house in Portland. It's getting to be such a habit of ours—this real, genuine bargain-making—that it requires a lot of strenuous exertion to out-do ourselves, but this time we think we've done it and leave it to you.

TODAY—TUESDAY—AT 8 A. M., we shall place on sale in our Second Floor MILLINERY SALON, a large lot of this season's newest and latest shapes of untrimmed Milans, Cuban Braids, Woodstraws and Combination Straws, the values of which range from $1.00 up to those that have sold for $5.00 up to today. The choosing is fine and you may select TODAY ONLY from the entire lot for 39c

NEW HOSIERY FOR HALF

Each new day brings out the wonderful resources of this department for securing the best values that come into the market. The following lots offer economies that we do not think can be duplicated anywhere else. On sale this morning:

- Ladies' fancy cotton hose, handsome patterns, splendid 25c values, blue with black dots, red with black dots, dainty stripes and pretty figures, black with lace stripes 12 1/2c
- Ladies' white or ecru, sleeveless or short-sleeve vests, 30c and 25c values, each 12 1/2c
- Lace trimmed white cotton knee pants, 25c values, each 17c
- Ladies' pink and blue, silk finished, mercerized, shaped waist, 50c lisle vests, sleeveless, each 27c
- 50c values, each 59c

UNDERWEAR AT UNDERPRICES

Ladies' white or ecru, sleeveless or short-sleeve vests, 30c and 25c values, each 12 1/2c

RED HAT FOR SEVEN

Pope Holds Consistory and Creates Cardinals.

CEREMONIES ARE OBSERVED

Prelates Pay Great Homage to His Holiness—Aged Pontiff's Hands Tremble Perceptibly, but Voice Is Plainly Heard.

ROME, June 22.—The pope today held a consistory and created seven cardinals, as follows: Monsignore Fischer, archbishop of Cologne; Monsignore Tallani, papal nuncio at Vienna; Monsignore Cavochioni, secretary of the congregation of the council; Monsignore Ajaki, papal nuncio at Lisbon; Monsignore Nocella, secretary of the consistorial congregation; Monsignore Katschthaler, of Salzburg, Austria; Most Rev. Hierro Espinosa, archbishop of Valencia.

The pope transferred Cardinal Serafino Vannutelli from the bishopric of Frascati to that of Porto Santa Rufina, which is of higher rank.

Cardinal Stollis was transferred from the titular bishopric of Santa Maria in Aracoella, to the diocese of Frascati, near Rome, the summer residence of the Roman aristocracy.

Afterwards the pope announced the nominations of several archbishops who had been appointed by brief.

The pontiff appointed Cardinal Agliardi, who has been replaced as Prefect of Economy of the Propaganda, to be vice-chancellor of the Chiesadella Volturno.

Pope's Voice Plainly Heard. The consistory was specially important owing to the persistent rumors regarding the pope's ill health and the previous postponements. Naturally a ceremony in which the pope, half hidden in vestments, is borne on a chair and is continually assisted, is not the best opportunity to judge of his appearance or the state of his health, but a man capable of undergoing the strain of such a function has plenty of vitality. The pontiff's features seemed slightly more clear-cut and his hands trembled perceptibly, but his voice was plainly heard, though it had lost something of its power.

The ceremony was shortened as much as possible and lasted only 35 minutes. All the cardinals of the Curia were invited to the Vatican half an hour before the pope's appearance. They assembled in the consistory hall in order of precedence, forming a striking picture. The entrance of the pope, clad in white vestments and surrounded by his trusted companions in their red robes, gave a finishing touch to the scene.

After receiving the homage of those present, the pontiff recited a prayer and then proceeded to the nomination of the new cardinals.

The traditional secrecy was maintained, though now it is largely a matter of form. The pope proposed each new cardinal, the members of the sacred college signifying their assent by raising their caps.

Prelates Kiss the Pope's Feet.

At the conclusion of the consistory the pope went to the throne room, where, surrounded by the cardinals and the papal court, he received the homage of the new archbishops and bishops. The ancient ceremonies were observed, each of the prelates kissing the pope's foot and receiving the apostolic benediction.

In the meanwhile the masters of ceremonies, accompanied by church dignitaries, proceeded to the residence of Monsignore Fischer, Cavochioni and Nocella, announced their appointments and informed them that the pope would bestow the red hats on them at a public consistory to be held Thursday. Specially selected members of the noble guard will be sent to officially convey the news to appointees who are abroad.

The pope, at the consistory, delivered a short allocution, which he intended to be kept private, though containing nothing of great importance.

It is reported that on his return to his apartments after the consistory the pope said, smiling at his attendants: "There is no doubt I feel better after these ceremonies."

SUPREME JUDGE REMOVED
Roosevelt Finds New Mexico Official Guilty of Immorality.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—President Roosevelt, after a conference with Attorney-General Knox, signed an order removing Judge Daniel H. McMillan, of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, on charges of general immorality. Judge McMillan originally was appointed by President Cleveland, N. Y. Judge Clement C. Smith, of Hastings, Mich., has been appointed to succeed him.

Charges against Judge McMillan have been pressed vigorously for many months. Last Fall Attorney-General Knox, after a thorough investigation of them, recommended that he be removed. At the instance of influential friends of Judge McMillan, the recommendation of the Attorney-General was held up, pending a re-hearing of the case. At the second hearing, John C. Milburn, of Buffalo, a long-time personal friend of Judge McMillan, made a strong plea for his retention, but it was of no avail.

Judge Smith, who is to succeed Judge McMillan, is one of the best-known lawyers of Michigan, and is held in high regard by officials of the Department of Justice.

Malta Goes Back to Early Day Rule.
LONDON, June 22.—According to a dispatch from Valletta, Malta, a minor coup d'etat has been effected there by the abrogation of the constitution of 1887, and the re-establishment of the constitution of 1849. By this step the Legislative Council hereafter will be composed of eight elected members and nine government members. Instead of 14 and 6 respectively, as heretofore. Some such action had been expected in consequence of the trouble about

Clear Assassination Story a Canard.
ST. PETERSBURG, June 22.—Officials of both the Court and the Ministry of the Interior say the reports that an attempt was recently made on the life of the Czar are untrue. A story was circulated a month ago that the Czar had been fired upon while driving in the park of the Tsarskoe-Selo, but it was explained that it originated in the accidental discharge of a revolver, which was carelessly dropped by a detective as the Czar's carriage passed.

Tillman Wants Change of Venue.
COLUMBIA, S. C., June 22.—Application for a change of venue for J. H. Tillman, ex-Lieutenant Governor of this state, charged with the murder of N. C. Conales, editor of the State, was begun here today. The defendant, who appeared in court, showed no ill effects of his confinement, which has lasted since last January. Senator Tillman was also in court. The defense produced about 300 affidavits to show that a fair trial could not be had in this county, because of prejudice against the defendant. The reading of these affidavits was not concluded when court adjourned until tomorrow morning.
