—Oleomargarine is manufactured in Portland. And bull butter is being exposed.

—Leg of mutton sleeves are coming into vogue. It don't matter wether they are wool or not.

—Work upon the railroad to Oregon from Granger, east of Ogden, has been commenced in dead earnest.

—The Independence Riverside has discovered a great literary sensation viz., that George Eliot was a woman.

—The Bostonian excursionists have reached San Francisco, and are branching out. Some will come to Oregon.

—Cooks mess-house scow was again placed at the station at Sand island on Monday, right side up and tight.

—Messrs. Fairfowl & Trenchard have taken Mr. John F. Nowlen's ranch, across Youngs bay, for dairying purposes.

—Master Alfred Nelson, brother of H. E. Nelson of this city, was drowned in Grays bay on the 3d. His age was nine years.

—Just received at Carl Adlers, a full assortment of Sewing Machine Needles of all makes and sizes; to be sold at reduced rates.

—The mail boat has commenced her annual fishing along the canneries, and the daily hour of arrival at Astoria is therefore uncertain.

—Accounts from the various logging camps in the vicinity of Astoria agree in the statement that times were never before so brisk as now.

—Pendleton expects to become a railroad center, as a north and south narrow gauge feeder promises to intersect the through line there, from Portland to Granger.

—Carl Adler will sell his entire stock of wall-pockets, brackets and picture frames at a great sacrifice as he has determined to make room for his new stock of baby carriages, etc.

—Mr. Morgan has a dispatch every morning from Oakland, and the intelligence has been gratifying for four days past, noting continued improvement in the condition of Mr. Geo. W. Hume.

—The ship Merom, from New York; the British bark Marion King, from Rio; the British bark Clan Grant, from Liverpool; the barkentine Webfoot from San Francisco; and one other vessel were reported outside yesterday.

—The weather yesterday was quite enough to discourage the average fishman—though they do say that foolish fish will sometimes get entangled in the meshes of a net in a murky day, when they cannot be enticed by other means.

—Mrs. Scarboro, of Cathlamet, arrived night before last in a small boat with her little son, aged 6 years, who met with a serious accident by a wagon upsetting, which broke his leg. Dr. Baker was called and is treating the case at St. Marys hospital.

—One cent's worth of sulphuric acid is sufficient for the manufacture of four gallons of vinegar, and when disguised by other ingredients its presence cannot be detected by taste alone. Much of this wretched stuff, it is believed, has been sold in the Boston market as pure apple vinegar. Fifteen hundred barrels of it in a single cargo were seized by the officers last month.

—One of the most complete surprises was tendered to Miss Esther Holden, by a large number of her young friends, at the residence of her parents last evening. It was in every way a very enjoyable affair, and with unnumbered wishes for the future happiness of the fair recipient, one by one, and by couples, the joyous throng departed, to meet again this evening for the purpose of extending the happy congratulations which are due to one so universally esteemed by all, as is Miss Holden esteemed by every acquaintance in Astoria.

Will They Do So?

Bancroft & Co., of San Francisco, are about to publish a large volume on the commerce and industries of the Pacific coast, and have entrusted the preparation of the volume to a well known author, who is one of the best statistical and descriptive writers in California. The author, who is desirous of including a mention of all the notable pleasure resorts of the coast, requests us to furnish him with a list of those of this region, together with the houses open to the public, the names of the proprietors, the number of guests they can accommodate, the number entertained last year, the charge per week, the distance from the steamship station, the date when the house was opened to the public, and such other information as would be of general interest. Will the proprietors of the several public resorts of this region please furnish us with the required data, that we may embody the same in a general article for the information and benefit of the public? We'll bet the cigars they will not do it.

—"Big Four" minstrels are all the rage in Portland now.

—Five deserters from the Selkirkshire are under arrest in Portland.

—The North Bend arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday from Knappton.

—The ship Red Cross from this port, arrived at Havre, France, on Tuesday.

—Visitors to Hwaco the coming season can find good livery accommodations for beach driving.

—The Columbia county prisoners are giving the jailers a troublesome lot of fun to prevent escapes.

—The fifth vessel outside, with a pilot on board, is the Mary Blundell, a British bark from Iquique.

—Mr. Gardner has located his confectionery establishment in the Gem building, next door to the place of Mr. Alex. Campbell.

—A musical concert was given at Carl Adlers yesterday forenoon. The occasion was the testing of a new and elegant piano he has for sale.

—The City of Delhi and the bark Belona arrived at Liverpool on the 29th. The Irvine arrived at Queenstown on the 2d, all from this port.

—A man could write his name on the sidewalks yesterday, if he could find a dry spot; from the dripping water as it run off his closed umbrella.

—The steamship Columbia, on her present voyage, has beaten the best time of the State of California, the Oregonian says, one and a quarter hours.

—J. L. Stout is selling lots at North Pacific beach for $25 with the privilege of the pick this year. A plat of the place has been made, and a copy will be filed in Astoria before many days.

—The Sea View house will be opened for guests July 4th. Mine host Stout has moved over a mile nearer to Hwaco, and will have a house 48x26, two and a half stories. See advertisement.

—Referring to the death of Mrs. Wheeler, in Alameda, the Encinal says: "Mrs. Wheeler died as she lived, an earnest, faithful christian woman; a loving wife a devoted mother, a friend of the sorrowing and afflicted, she has gone to meet her reward. With all who knew her best her memory will live while life shall last.

—We are in favor of crowding as much enjoyment as possible into one evening, but to insure publication tomorrow, for instance, the articles to be printed must reach the editor before the mail steamer from Portland reaches Astoria. This should be the case particularly when the articles are like summer milk, and will not keep over a day unused, without souring upon our hands.

—The schooner Kate L. Herron became a total wreck while passing out from Tillamook bay for this city, with a general cargo of wool, etc., on the 27th. The Standard says that when passing over the spit the wind suddenly left her. The captain cast anchor, but the current was so strong the chain of the anchor parted, and the schooner drifted over the bar in a heavy breaker and dropped suddenly on the spit with a force that split her in two. One man had a leg broken, but fortunately no lives were lost.

—Who furnished this lie to the San Francisco Call of April 29th? "The British ship Thurland Castle, from Shanghai, is reported ashore at the mouth of the Columbia river, and should bad weather set in the prospects are that she will be a total loss. The Thurland Castle is an iron ship of 1,300 tons register, built at Belfast in 1876, and is owned by the Lancaster shipping company of Lancaster." And this one! in its dispatches same day: "PORTLAND, April 28.—The steamer Oregon was reported off the Columbia bar this afternoon, but had not crossed in late this afternoon. The steamer State of California will not cross the bar, bound out, until morning." The Castle has been in no kind of danger, and the Oregon was not within one hundred and fifty miles of the bar then. So there!

Punched in the Snoot.

Standard.

While the Tacoma Ledger is pointing out the money spent on river improvements in Oregon why does it not offset it by stating the gross amount wasted forever by ineffectual efforts to find a railroad pass through the Cascade mountains between Puget-sound and eastern Washington?

A Card.

EDITOR ASTORIAN:

Please allow me space in THE ASTORIAN to say to my many friends that words are inadequate to express the gratitude I feel to them for the unmeasured kindness, sympathy and attention shown me in my deep sorrow.

JOSIE M. ROBE.

ASTORIA, Oregon, May 4, 1881.

Auction Sale.

Attention is directed to Holden's special auction ad. in another column. Mr. Keclar has made arrangements with Mr. Holden to use his store to auction off a large stock of goods received by the steamer Tuesday. All the store room is required to display Mr. Keclar's stock, therefore the goods advertised by Mr. Holden must be sold without reserve.

—It must be recollected that the steamer State of California never yet carried Astoria freight to Portland to save time.

—The Boston excursionists came from Chicago in the new Pullman palace sleeping cars built for the Oregon Railway and Navigation company.

—Northern Pacific Railroad surveyors are in the field surveying for the link of road to be built between Kalama and Portland the coming summer.

—Chief Barry was greatly exercised yesterday when a common drunk escaped from the city hall wood pile. The fellow was himself exercised a bit, no doubt; but as he did n't carry off any wood, no reward was offered.

—The second of three coaling vessels ordered for the Oregon Railway and Navigation company was launched at Chester, Pennsylvania, on Saturday. She is to be called the Umatilla. There is still another on the stocks at the same yard now being pushed to completion.

—The most suggestive indication of prosperous times is gratuitously visible at Dr. Max Wagner's popular bowling alley, for 'tis very evident from the numbers engaged in this popular pastime that Dr. Max has struck the key note to success in thus catering to the public favor. His Bock Beer is universally pronounced to be superior to all.

—Prices for cannery and fishermen's supplies have been slaughtered at M. C. Crosby's.

—Fire-brick and fire-clay in lots to suit at M. C. Crosby's.

—Go to M. C. Crosby's and get your lunch buckets, water kegs, bailers, buoys and boat stoves.

—For the Genuine J. H. Cutter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

—The best stoves made by M. C. Crosby, with fire-brick bottoms, are superior to all others in this market.

—For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

—All bitters are whiskey in a disguised form. It is far better and more honorable for a man to "brace up" to a bar and call for whiskey than to sneak in the back door of his house with a bottle of bitters under his coat. It's whiskey in a bottle "all the same." No whiskey in Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier.

—P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

—See Max Wagners advertisement of Bock beer, just received by steamer Columbia.

—Ice cream at Roscoes oyster and refreshment saloon on Main street.

—Use Nicholas' Balm of Gilead oil, for sore or chapped hands.

—The Bock beer made by the Columbia brewery in Astoria is the best in the market. It was thoroughly tried and proved such last year.

—The rooms which we have to let in THE ASTORIAN building are the finest in the city for office purposes, and the rate is very reasonable.

—A fine lot of French candies just received at Adler's.

—P. Wilhelm, Boss saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.

—Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

—Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.

—Max. Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

☞All citizens of Oregon who desire to inform their friends in the states of the condition and progress of this state, can have no more complete and comprehensive volume of facts to send them than by subscribing for this journal, and having us mail it weekly to their friends. We mail it as directed. For $5 00 in advance, we mail three copies of THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN one year.

GENERAL EASTERN NEWS.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH.

Oleo not Dead.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Prof. Chandler, in obedience to a resolution by the aldermen, reported to the board of health the result of his inquiries into the subject of oleomargarine. He says that it is superior in all respects to the poorer grades of dairy butter sold here; that there is nothing objectionable in the material or its manufacture, and as there is nothing unwholesome in olemargarine, he sees no need of legislation to protect public health.

The Flood at St Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 3.—Although the overflow continues, the river rising seven inches during the night, there is no change in the situation, all barriers holding firm. Business is much hampered on the levee and some establishments have been obliged to close, but nothing has been swept away and no lives have been lost. East Carondalet is entirely submerged. The railroad track in east St. Louis is still above water.

Not in Distress.

CHICAGO, May 3.—A number of leading citizens of Fargo, Dakota, have united in a dispatch to the Western associated press, which states that they wish to contradict the impression which has been spread abroad that their section of country as well as southern Dakota has been visited by the flood, or that they are in need of assistance.

From Yankton.

YANKTON, May 1.—The telegraph lines are still down. Floods are subsiding rapidly and the people are preparing to return to their farms, although they are destitute and their farms devastated.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

BY MAIL AND TELEGRAPH.

War Sloop Blown up.

LONDON, May 3.—The admiralty has a telegraph from Montevideo stating that the British war sloop Dotoret was blown up on the 29th of April at Sandy point, in the straits of Magellan. The cause of the catastrophe is not known. Lieut. Stokes remains at the scene of the disaster to ascertain the cause of the explosion with the assistance of divers. The commander, paymaster and engineer, caulker, carpenter and seven seamen were saved. It is thought probable that great loss of life has attended the disaster. The Dotoret registered 937 tons, and had 900 horse power engines.

Persecution of the Jews.

BERLIN, May 2.—Fresh excesses have been committed against the Jews at Argenau, West Prussia, but the gendarmes have restored order there, and are now preserving it. A number of Jewish families have fled.

Russian Riots.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.—Two hundred persons were injured in the riots against the Jews at Elizabethgrad. Detachments of cavalry and infantry now patrol the streets. The approaching fair at that place is indefinitely postponed at the request of the town council.

Peruvian Bitters.

Cinchona Rubra

The Count Cinchon was the Spanish Viceroy in Peru in 1630. The Countess, his wife, was prostrated by an intermittent fever, from which she was freed by the use of the native remedy, the Peruvian bark, or, as it was called in the language of the country, "Quinquina." Grateful for her recovery, on her return to Europe in 1632, she introduced the remedy in Spain, where it was known under various names, until Linnæus called it Cinchona, in honor of the lady who had brought them that which was more precious than the gold of the Incas. To this day, after a lapse of two hundred and fifty years, science has given us nothing to take its place. It effectually cures a morbid appetite for stimulants, by restoring the natural tone of the stomach. It attacks excessive love of liquor as it does a fever, and destroys both alike. The powerful tonic virtue of the Cinchona is preserved in the Peruvian Bitters, which are as effective against malarial fever to-day as they were in the days of the old Spanish Viceroys. We guarantee the ingredients of these bitters to be absolutely pure, and of the best known quality. A trial will satisfy you that this is the best bitter in the world. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and we willingly abide this test. For sale by all druggists, grocers and liquor dealers. Order it.
