—The Agnes Oswald was taken to sea yesterday.

—First class rooms for offices in THE ASTORIAN building.

—Sugars advanced three-fourths of a cent all round in San Francisco on Saturday.

—Max Wagner yesterday took in store many a schooner load of National brewery beer.

—A long line of fishing boats were towed into port yesterday forenoon by the Rip Van Winkle.

—The Rip Van Winkle towed the Lincoln into port Monday night, disabled from having got a fishermans net in her wheel.

—One of the Astoria Fishery boats got into the breakers yesterday morning early, and the men had to let the net go, but saved themselves.

—Astoria Engine company No. 1 elected eight new members at their meeting last Monday evening, almost filling the company up to its full limit.

—A few days since J. G. Megler & Co. had forty fish in the lot of one day, that would average forty pounds each, and they were all caught by one seine in one tide.

—Hoodlum Harry and his partner, arrested for robbery from the person, of a watch and some coin, will have their trial to-day at two P. M., before Justice Fox, in the Police-court room.

—A fleet of Oregon grain vessels arrived home on the 4th and 5th, in cluding the Rothsea Bay, at Falmouth; Star of the North at Liverpool; Aberlemno at Queenstown; and the Edwin Reed at Havre.

—The new addition to the Occident marks another era in the success of Astorias magnificent hotel. All rooms in the addition were used for the first time Monday night. They are all large, airy and handsomely furnished.

—Lieut. Price is mapping the surveys of the Columbia river bar as the work progresses. There are several important changes since the last survey was made. His chart will contain more than any previous chart, showing the shore lines and ranges.

—Mr. A. Van Dusen has been granted his exempt certificate by the board of delegates of the Astoria Fire department. Mr. Van Dusen was also elected an honorary member of Astoria Engine company No. 1, at their meeting last Monday evening.

—The Supreme-court of New York has granted the order to change the name of the corporation of Scribner & Co. to The Century company, to take effect on the 21st of June. The July issue of Scribners Monthly and St. Nicholas will have the new corporate imprint.

—Herbert N. Northrup, eldest son of Mr. E. J. Northrup of Portland, died at San Francisco just before 12 o'clock last Sunday night. The immediate cause of his death was typhoid fever, which attacked him ten days ago, while enroute home from southern California, where he spent the winter.

—One of the packages on the Rosetta yesterday was one supposed to be "biled shirts" from a logging camp on the other side. A note addressed to the carrier directed him to take the pakages to a good laundry "and have them done up stiff." Wonder if there's to be a wedding or a birthday celebration over that way soon?"

—The latest thing on ice. Misses Hannah and Maggie McCormick have started the only ten cent ice cream saloon in the Pacific Northwest, at the corner of Olney and Squemoqhe streets, Humes block, Astoria. Although it may be called "a little one for a bit," it is furnished in first class style, and they give the usual twenty-five cent "lay out" for ten cents. They yesterday paid THE ASTORIAN a visit, and brought their ice cream and cake along. The treat was duly and truly appreciated.

Common Council Proceedings.

In attendance—R. H. Cardwell, auditor and clerk, and W. J. Barry, chief of police.

Ayes: Baker, Wright. Nays: Hahn, Spexarth, Taylor.

Councilman Hahn moved that the committee on streets and public ways confer with the owners of property on Squemoqha and Water streets in regard to the improvements desired. After that is ascertained that the city attorney draft the necessary ordinances providing for such improvement. Motion carried; Messrs. Baker and Wright voting negatively.

On motion of Councilman Baker the matter of amending the ordinance in relation to flues and chimneys was referred to committee on fire and water.

On motion of Councilman Baker the council adjourned.

In Memoriam

Resolutions passed by Temple lodge No. 7 A. F. and A. M., at a stated communication held in Masonic hall Astoria, on June 4, A. L., 5,881.

Whereas, By the providence of God our worthy and lamented brother John Badollet, has been called from his earthly labours "to that bourne from whence no traveler returns;" Therefore, Be it resolved:

First, That in the death of Brother John Badollet, Temple lodge, No. 7, A. F. and A. M., has sustained the loss of one of the most efficient and most respected of its oldest members.

Second, That we extend to the bereaved widow and orphan children of our deceased brother, our most heartfelt sympathies in this the hour of their sore affliction and trial; and, while we commend them to the divine aid of Him who has promised to be "a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless," we also pledge ourselves to extend to them such practical aid as they may need and which we are taught and enjoined to administer to the distressed and afflicted by the pure benevolent principles and teachings of Freemasonery.

Third, That Temple lodge-room be draped in mourning, and its members wear the usual badge for thirty days, in respect to the memory of the deceased.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge, and a copy also furnished to the widow of our lamented brother, and to THE ASTORIAN for publication.

E. C. HOLDEN,
I. W. CASE,
A. W. FERGUSON,
Committee.

—No, ones flag pole was successfully reared aloft yesterday, and now proudly holds the unfurled banner as it floats in the breezy air.

—The weather in this vicinity is getting more civilized. Now we frequently have rain storms at night, and clear beautiful days following. Vide yesterday; "so cometh the rain."

—Having been called to an account by a blunded cotemporary, for speaking well of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, the Standard replies: "It is a good rule in life to treat people as we find them. A man generous with his money, may be so for bad purposes; but until we are satisfied of that, and actually discover his sinister design, it is poor policy to check his liberality."

—Mr. D. E. Pease, of Skipanon, has a cow of common stock which yields daily forty-four pounds of milk. About two quarts are consumed daily in the family culinary, and the balance converted into butter. During May Mrs. Pease made forty-three pounds of butter from the milk of that one cow. Good care and plenty of feed last winter is the reason of this extraordinary yield, and every owner of a cow should make a note of it.

—An interesting event in the history of the Presbyterian church of Oregon is about to occur on Clatsop plains. The first Presbyterian church organized in Oregon is that on Clatsop, which was organized in 1846 or '47, at the house of W. H. Gray. Next Sunday, it is proposed to hold communion services of that church at the house of Alva Condit. There will be present, it is expected, all of the original persons who organized the church in 1846-7, except two—Mrs. Powers, deceased, and the Rev. L. Thompson, who was the first minister, now living in Santa Clara, California. These pioneers are Mr. and Mrs. Alva Condit, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gray, Mr. T. P. Powers, and Mrs. R. W. Morrison. The present minister, Mr. Milligan, will officiate.

—Prof. A. L. Francis, the experienced and popular piano tuner, arrived last evening. He will remain in the city one week. He is prepared to furnish the best pianos and organs now made in the east. All orders left at the Occident hotel will be promptly filled.

Peruvian Bitters.

Cinchona Rubra.

The Count Cinchon was the Spanish Viceroy in Peru in 1630. The Countess, his wife, was prostrated by an intermittent fever, from which she was freed by the use of the native remedy, the Peruvian bark, or, as it was called in the language of the country, "Quinquina." Grateful for her recovery, on her return to Europe in 1652, she introduced the remedy in Spain, where it was known under various names, until Linnæus called it Cinchona, in honor of the lady who had brought them that which was more precious than the gold of the Incas. To this day, after a lapse of two hundred and fifty years, science has given us nothing to take its place. It effectually cures a morbid appetite for stimulants, by restoring the natural tone of the stomach. It attacks excessive love of liquor as it does a fever, and destroys both alike. The powerful tonic virtue of the Cinchona is preserved in the Peruvian Bitters, which are as effective against malarial fever to-day as they were in the days of the old Spanish Viceroys. We guarantee the ingredients of these bitters to be absolutely pure, and of the best known quality. A trial will satisfy you that this is the best bitter in the world. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and we willingly abide this test. For sale by all druggists, grocers and liquor dealers. Order it.

Letter From Mr. Davidson.

Astoria, May 28, 1881.

EDITOR ASTORIAN:

It is with pleasure that I call the attention of your readers to the fact that I have established a branch photograph gallery in Astoria, opposite the Courthouse. I earnestly invite every citizen of your town and vicinity to visit it and examine the display of pictures, firmly believing that the verdict of each one will be that my work is not only of the best but that the prices are reasonable. All the finishing will be done at my home gallery in Portland and mailed direct to the customer. The operator in charge is an accomplished artist and has an abundance of patience with children and nervous people. I am prepared to do all kinds of viewing, coloring, copying, and enlarging to any size. In all departments, I will see that my customers go away satisfied, and respectfully solicit their patronage. Very truly, J. G. DAVIDSON, Photographer.

A cough, cold or sore throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable lung disease or consumption. Brown's Bronchial troches do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in asthma, bronchitis, coughs, catarrh, and the throat troubles which singers and public speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere.
