MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

"What God Hath Joined Together Let No Man Put Asunder."

A SERMON BY REV. G. C. HALL.

Last evening a good audience, assembled in the Congregational church were exceedingly interested in listening to an able sermon on the above topic by Rev. G. C. Hall.

The historical development of marriage and the laws of marriage and divorce were clearly shown, and interesting instances quoted which stand prominently forth on the pages of ancient history, especially illustrative of life under the Mosaic dispensation and amid the brilliancy of Rome in its days of profligate splendor.

The law of divorce as given by Moses and mentioned by Christ in the gospel of St. Mark, and in the same chapter the new commandment or direction which Jesus gave, was read, and particular stress laid upon the words in the eighth and ninth verses: "And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

The marriage laws of any people, touching life in its most vital point as they do, may always be taken as the best index of their moral development. In the time of Moses fathers could and did sell their daughters, and if a man married and his wife displeased him he could "write her a bill of divorcement and send her out of his house."

Abraham, Jacob and other patriarchs had numerous wives, thus practicing polygamy, which was considered all right in those days, but now we regard it as a crime. The story of Hagar the Egyptian wife of Abraham, was given, and N. P. Wills' beautiful account of her being sent away, was quoted.

Make woman a slave, steal from her rosy cheek by needless jealousies; let the last star leave her a watcher by your couch of pain; wrong her by petulance, suspicion, all that makes her cup a bitterness, yet give one evidence of love, and earth has not an emblem of devotedness like hers. O, woman, loving woman, freighted in the race of life by the heavy burden of maternity, how cruelly thou hast been wronged in all ages and in all nations.

In beautiful and thrilling language the story of Livid, the wife of Tiberius Nero was told, and how she was forcibly divorced from him by the decree of Cæsar Augustus that she might become the wife of the haughty emperor. He also divorced his own wife Scriboma, and married Livia, but forced Tiberius to give away the bride and to preside at the grand banquet following the wedding, which was given in all the pomp and splendor characteristic of the emperor's court, and followed by bacchanalian orgies.

The incident was related which recently transpired here in court, where a man obtained a divorce from his wife on the ground of desertion, yet he had come out here and made a home, and his wife declined to leave friends and relatives and come here to reside.

In the year 1889 the divorces in the United States reached the enormous and appalling figure of 35,000. The true cause of divorce is not stated, for generally it is caused by incompatibility and uncongeniality of disposition, and a very low moral estimate of the sacredness of the marriage bond.

The family is the unit of society. Upon the integrity of the marriage bond depends the life and existence of the family. Upon the family relation depends the purity of society. Without the family the existence of the state is an impossibility. When the family relation becomes defunct then our civilization will die. Christianity, society, national existence, and civilization itself is dependent upon the integrity of the marriage bond for perpetuity.

With what painstaking care and conscientiousness then ought the young to be trained for parental duties, the highest and most vital function of our race. How ought the sacred duty of true and honorable marriage to be inculcated into the minds of the young, at home, in the school and by the press and pulpit. Once wedded, wedded for life, should be impressed upon the young.

The principles upon which marriage is based, the duty to enter wedlock, the importance of marriage, the laws governing it, the grounds of divorce, the nature of wedlock, preparation for it and how to live worthily and happily in it, will, then, be the subject of discourse next Sunday evening, for the subject is too broad and farreaching to be fully given in a single sermon.

JUVENILE SWINDLERS.

Messenger Boys Arrested for Delivering Faked Dispatches.

THEIR MODE OF PROCEDURE.

Special By The United Press.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Arthur Marshall, Isaac Annexler and George Heitler, three Western Union telegraph boys, were arrested to-day, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. For some time past they have been delivering faked messages, which they would deliver to business men and the leading hotels, and on which they would collect sums ranging from 25 cents to $25. They would collect the money before they would give up the message. Their best business was done on a Chinese merchant, from whom they obtained $25 on a faked cablegram. The Chinese paid the money, and were driven almost crazy when they secured the services of an interpreter and found that the cablegram was as follows: "The Chinese must go. Rats!"

Temporary Removal.

A correspondent says that the price of a good-looking female slave in the United States of Colombia is $100. These women, it is stated, are usually excellent cooks, and many of them are experts in diving to the bottom of the streams in the gold districts and bringing up a gourd full of gold-bearing sand.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!
A SET OF THE
WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,
In Twelve Large Volumes,
Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Our Great Offer to Subscribers to the "Weekly Astorian."

We will send the ENTIRE SET OF DICKENS' WORKS, in TWELVE VOLUMES, as above described, all postage prepaid by ourselves, also THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN, for ONE YEAR, upon receipt of $2.75, which is only 75 Cents more than the regular subscription price of this paper. Our readers, therefore, practically get a set of Dickens' works in twelve volumes for only 75 Cents. This is the grandest premium ever offered. Up to this time a set of Dickens' works has usually been $10.00 or more. Tell all your friends that they can get a set of Dickens' works, in twelve volumes, with a year's subscription to THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN, for only $2.75. Subscribe now and get this great premium. If your subscription has not yet expired, it will make no difference, for it will be extended one year from the date of expiration. We will also give a set of Dickens, as above, free and post-paid, to any one sending us a club of three yearly subscribers. Address:
