Mrs. Otto Winter Entertains—

Honoring Mrs. Paul Winter, the recent bride of her son, Mrs. Otto Winter entertained at a charmingly attractive function, from two until five, Friday, May the seventh.

Originally planned as a garden party, the spacious grounds being especially adapted for an outdoor entertainment, because of the weather, the affair became an in-door garden" party, with a bit of the out-doors shown in the masses of fir tips in reception hall concealing the stairs, and which formed an admirable background for the brilliant flowers which were used effectively there.

In the different rooms, masses of lovely blossoms greeted the eye. Foxgloves, snap dragons, columbines, azalias all added their delicate beauty with the air perfumed by the lovely roses with which bowls were filled.

Mrs. Otto Winter, Mrs. Paul Winter, Mrs. H. H. Gillette and Mrs. K. P. Nims were in the receiving line.

Those who assisted in the dining room, and who poured were: Mrs. John Enders, Mrs. Neil Shinn, Mrs. E. O. Dews, Mrs. Jean Hastings, and Miss Neva Gearhart, of Napa, California, who is the guest of relatives in the city.

At a table beautiful in its appointments, with a birthday cake at either end, each carrying the quota of tiny candles commemorating the birthdays of both Mrs. Otto Winter and Mrs. Paul Winter, there was an artistic grouping in white in the center, the work of Mrs. Ann H. Russell, the eighty-eight year old mother of the hostess.

The out of town guests present were: Mrs. Gertrude Barclay, Los Angeles, who is the house guest of Mrs. C. H. Pierce, and the Mesdames Barry, Johnson and Jacques of Medford.

The guest list included one hundred and fifty friends who called during the reception hours to meet the honor guest and share the delightful hospitality of the hostess.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Camp Fire Girls Have Swimming Party—

The Camp Fire Girls of both Junior High and Hawthorne Groups met this morning (Saturday), swimming party, which all enjoyed immensely.

Including the guardians who were present, there were thirty-five in the merry party.

The morning was spent at the Natatorium.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Typing Squad Entertained—

Wednesday evening, Miss Juanita Tarr was hostess at a theatre party which included a number of the typing squad; some of the group not being able to attend.

After the play at the theatre, the merry party went to the Plaza where all enjoyed refreshments.

Those present were the Misses Mary Galey, Velma Clapp, Mazie Davies, Janie Walker, and Katherine Phipps, with their teacher, Miss Juanita Tarr.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Hospital Day Wednesday—

A reception will be held at the Community hospital from 1:30 to 4:30 Wednesday afternoon. This is in observance of National Hospital Day.

Hostesses will receive and committees will be present to show guests through the hospital.

The public is cordially invited to visit the hospital during the hours named and be shown over the institution.

Mrs. Clapp Entertains—

Miss Velma Clapp celebrated her seventeenth birthday Thursday, May sixth, in a very delightful evening, at which a number of friends were present to offer congratulations and good wishes and to enjoy the pleasant hours together.

A two course luncheon was served later in the evening; strawberry shortcake, punch, and Spanish chocolate cake and sherbet. The table was tastefully arranged, with a centerpiece of pink peonies with pink rosebuds which is the class flower.

Those present were the Misses Mildred Crain, Ethel Templin, Nolthemier, Beryl Jarmon, Juanita Tarr, Calmenson, Messrs. Hughes and Albert Marske, Mrs. Marske, Miss Carol Van Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bryant, the hostess and Miss Velma Clapp, the one whose natal day was the occasion of the happy affair.

Floral Exhibit a Success—

"The "Floral Exhibit," given at the Lithia Springs Hotel last Thursday by the Ashland Floral Society and the Civic Club scored a success and has proved a revelation as to the floral possibilities of Ashland.

"Fifty or more kinds of flowers were exhibited. Mrs. Frank Jordan of Granite Street exhibited some thirty of her fifty-seven varieties of Iris. Mrs. L. E. Williams of Medford exhibited forty-four varieties of the same flower. A number of others brought different varieties until the number of varieties of Iris exhibited totalled fifty.

"Roses were shown in profusion, no less than twenty kinds were exhibited. Other flowers too, beautiful in their perfection and variety helped to make this a most successful affair.

"Special mention is to be made of the table of flowers exhibited by the Medford ladies. Their cooperation is very much appreciated by the committee.

"The committee wishes to express its gratitude to all who in any way contributed to the success of the exhibit, especially to the hotel management for its hearty cooperation.

"We feel that the floral activity of Ashland is in its infancy; that its interest will grow so that in the near future we may avail ourselves of, and fill to its full capacity the larger space that the Lithia Springs hotel management has so kindly offered.

"Those who are interested in floriculture would do beneficial and in turn encourage the work, by joining their interest with those that are already members of the Ashland Floral Society which meets the first Monday of each month at the Library."

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Annual Meeting—

The annual meeting of the County Health Association will be held Thursday, May 13, at the Methodist Episcopal church in Medford, convening at 2:30 p. m.

Every one is invited to attend. No doubt a number will be present from Ashland.

Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, for the past few years president of the State Federation Women's Clubs, will be the principal speaker.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Monthly Business Meeting—

The following business report given by the League" news correspondent, Lawrence Powell, will be of interest.

"At the monthly business meeting, last Tuesday, the nominating committee made its report of officers for the year beginning June 1st.

"These were elected, per report, making the officers for the year: President, George Mason; Vice-President, Madeline Stevens; Second Vice-President, Catherine Parsons; Third Vice-President, Clara Anderson; Fourth Vice-President, Hazel Bruner; Fifth Vice-President; Madge Moreau and Lawrence Powell; Secretary, Helen High; Treasurer, John Rigg; Organist, Charles Mitchell; Chorister, Isabella Wattenbarger; Junior League Superintendents, Mae Van Hardenburg and Nadine Swenning.

"Several plans were discussed at length, by which the league membership might be increased. There is now 57 members."

Lawrence Powell,
League News Correspondent.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Slumber Party—

One of the delightful parties given recently was the slumber party at which Miss Janie Walker was hostess at her home on Liberty street.

The first event in the series of happy happenings was the theatre party, with all of the guests attending an interesting show in Medford.

The slumber party proper began upon their return. No doubt all slept soundly, as is the habit at slumber parties, until the call came for the appetizing breakfast of which the especially interesting feature were delicious waffles. To these, it goes without saying, all did full justice.

Those enjoying Miss Walker's delightful hospitality were: the Misses Annie Wells, Jannette Wilson, Mae King and Charlotte Switzer.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Piano Recital Decided Success—

A capacity house of friends and relatives greeted the pupils of Miss Lolita Pierson, who appared in recital Friday evening at the Civic Club house.

The program was divided into three parts; the first numbers by those pupils who have just begun their musical studies but who showed remarkable self possession in their initial appearance and acquitted themselves to their own and to their teacher's credit.

The second group were those pupils who had attained a certain degree of proficiency and the third, the more advanced pupils who rendered really difficult compositions with an ease, expression and technique that must have been a satisfaction to teacher and friends. The second group of performers presented their offerings with the same degree of excellence and ease that the older pupils did except that the selections were not so difficult, nor the pupils so advanced in their studies.

Without announcement the recital opened, and moved rapidly from number to number until the close, when Miss Pierson voiced her appreciation of the attention and the large attendance.

Every young performer received flowers galore, from the tiny French nosegay to great masses of roses. No one was forgotten.

Those appearing in the well selected program, with the compositions played were: "In Dreamland," by McDowell, Jean Billings; "Romance Sans Parlhe Fairy Queen," Ned Young; "The First Waltz," Ellen Wiley; "Narcissus," Lois Wiley; "Playing Train," Ardes Jenkins; "Little Indian Chief," Maxine Jenkins; "A Slumber Song," [illegible] "White Cavalry," [illegible] In the second group: "[illegible] and Hungarian Dance," [illegible] bry; "The Soldiers' Song," [illegible] Wiley; "Pleasant Thoughts," Alice Anderson; "A Melody and Rose Petals Romance," Frank Billings; "Romance Sans Paroles," Marjory Mills; two [illegible] sketches, "Barcarolle on Green Lake" and "Midst the Pines," La Verne Ramsey; duet, "Las Estrellas," Marjory Mills and La Verne Ramsey, Part III, "Gypsy Dance," Eugenia Young; "Petite Serenade" and "Gavotte," Lorraine Sparr; "A Pirate Ship and a Pirate Crew," Howard Wiley; "Cicilian Saltarello," Ruth Billings; "Yucca," from Prairie Sketches, Frances Hardy; "The Pixies" and "Dance Hongroise," Ines Parks; and the closing number, a duet, "Parade of the Amazons," played by Frances Hardy and Ruth Billings.

An especially pleasing feature of the recital were the number of pupils who played without music.

Altogether, it was an evening of real enjoyment. Parents and friends will await the next recital with considerable interest.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Surprise For Mrs. Crowson—

Mrs. Goodman was hostess Friday at a surprise party planned honoring Mrs. Clarence Crowson, whose birthday was the occasion of the pleasant affair.

The afternoon was spent most happily by the group of friends present and a feature of the delightful luncheon which was served later in the afternoon was the lovely birthday cake, which bore the appropriate number of dainty candles.

The guest list included Mrs. Mark True, Mrs. Jesse Neil, Mrs. Carl Goetche, Mrs. Chalmers Strange, Mrs. Lloyd Culver, Mrs. Goodman, the hostess and Mrs. Clarence Crowson, the guest of honor.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Mrs. Gertrude Fraley Entertains—

A May Party was the happy guise assumed by the attractive affair given last Saturday evening by Mrs. Gertrude Fraley in entertaining a number of her friends.

Bridge and mah jongg occupied the attention of the guests until a late hour when refreshments were served in beautifully decorated May baskets, one for each guest, with the same dainty pastel shades used for each table.

The unique idea made such a pretty closing for a delightful evening.

Prizes were given both in mah jong and bridge; the fortunate ones in bridge being Mrs. Elwood Hedberg for first prize and Mrs. Gerald Wetzner returning the consolation. In mah jongg, Miss Agnes Hedberg won first place and Mrs. Clyde Young was content with the consolation prize.

The guests present were the Mesdames Elwood Hedberg, Gerald Wetzner, Lynn Stark, Jean Hastings, O. E. Lee, H. G. Moore, Clyde Young, Sean Scott, Mel McNair, and the Misses Agnes Hedberg and Marguerite Hammond.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Wednesday Club Meets—

On Wednesday of this week the regular meeting of the Wednesday Club occurs. Mrs. C. V. Howell and Mrs. Grace E. Andrews are hostesses.

After the business meeting, in charge of the president, Mrs. W. M. Foley, the social and program hour follow.

During this time an unusually interesting program will be given, a number taking part. Ladies may bring their fancy work.

Refreshments will be served in closing.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Bridge Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair were host and hostess at a delightful bridge dinner given Wednesday evening at six-thirty with covers laid for eight at the prettily appointed table.

Those who enjoyed this pleasant hospitality and the evening of bridge which followed were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Mrs. Gertrude Fraley and Glenn Simpson.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Banquet Honoring Mothers—

A banquet, given by the "Loyal Daughters,' 's Sunday School class of the Methodist church, with Miss Hazel Bruner, teacher, occurred yesterday evening at the church with a number of the mothers present with the class to enjoy it and the social evening which followed.

No effort or pains had been spared to make this a successful affair and both class members and their mothers and friends felt well repaid in the good fellowship and happy evening of songs and games not to mention the feast of good things to which all did ample justice.

The honored guests were the Mesdames Bruner, Marian, Myers, Brower, Selby, Trask, Eubanks, Crews, and Coombs.

The class includes, Erminia Selby, Dolly Trask, Grace Coombs, Gretchen Myers, Norma Brower, Dorothy Crews, Marian Lusk, Lucille Carson, Madge Marian, with the teacher, Miss Hazel Bruner.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

D. A. R. Meeting—

Mount Ashland Chapter, Daughters of the Amreican Revolution will hold the last meeting of the current year, except the annual picnic in June at the home of Mrs. Reed on Church street, May 21, 1 926.

The social chairman is Mrs. Gardner, with Mrs. Fielding and the Regent, Miss Hicks, as assisting hostesses.

Election of officers for the coming year will claim the attention of the Chapter at this meeting.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Group Meetings—

Group meetings of the Delphian Chapter will be held Tuesday afternoon; Mrs. H. C. Galey's group, meeting at the home of Mrs. J. H. McGee; Mrs. A. H. Pracht's, with Mrs. J. M. Wagner, and Mrs. Finneran's group at the home of Mrs. A. C. Malone.

The regular Chapter meeting is in two weeks at the Civic Club house.

WHAT 1800 FAMILIES KNOW ABOUT ELECTRIC COOKING

THEY will tell you it is a new kind of luxury—one that doesn't cost more to enjoy.

Of course you have always appreciated the advantages of cooking by electricity. You know that it means no more fuel to carry; no more ashes to lug. You know that electricity is the ideal cooking heat; economical because it is turned on when you need it—not before; turned off when you're through—not later.

But perhaps you would like to know exactly what it costs—in dollars and cents. The 1800 satisfied families who now use electric ranges served with electricity by this company would gladly show you their bills, if they could.

We have made an average of these bills, so that we may give you the facts. The average cost of electric lights alone in all homes served by this company in Oregon is $2.20 a month. The average cost of their electric lights and electric cooking together is $5.62 a month.

For the difference, could you buy ordinary fuel for cooking? And if you could, would you want to? Whenever you decide to investigate this question of electric cooking closely, your nearest dealer will tell you many interesting things. And he is prepared to install your new electric range at once, on convenient terms.
