Sans Everything Dessert.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 19.—"Oregon War Cake," or Miss Tingle's "Sans Everything Dessert," is the latest thing at patriotic dinner tables. It is the true successor of Mr. Hoover's war bread, which all bakers are hereafter to manufacture. Wheat, meat, sugar and fats are the four things the government wants the people to conserve. Miss Lillian Tingle, head of the department of household arts at the University of Oregon, has succeeded in making a cake that contains none of these except a single cup of white flour. As the cake has been declared delicious wherever it has been tasted, no one suspects that it does not contain plenty of sugar, butter and flour. Here is the recipe for the butterless, sugarless, eggless, milkless, but delicious compound: ¼ cup Crisco, or other shortening; ½ cup honey, or other thick acid syrup; 1 cup apple syrup, or other thin acid syrup; 1 cup raisins, or other dried fruits, or a mixture of fruit and nuts; ½ cup of rolled oats; ½ cup cut rolled oats, or coarse meal; 1 cup corn meal, barley meal, or fine oatmeal; 1½ cups of flour (according to the kind of flour used); 1½ level teaspoonfuls soda; 1 teaspoonful cinnamon; 1½ teaspoonfuls salt; 1 teaspoonful tumeric; 2 cups whey.

Put the shortening, syrup, raisins and whey into a sauce pan, and raise to boiling point. Beat in the oatmeal and cornmeal and cook one minute, or until it thickens slightly. Remove and cool, then beat in the flour, sifted with other dry ingredients, to make a drop batter. Bake at once in hot greased muffin pans, or in a square baking tin lined with greased paper.

The tumeric may be omitted, but it gives a good color and a slight pleasing flavor with honey and cinnamon. Homemade candied orange rind may be used in place of the dried fruits. The whey is used after cottage cheese has been made from buttermilk or sour milk. The apple syrup may be made from cider or by boiling apple peelings in water enough to cover. Concentrate a little of the juice thus obtained and mix with thick glucose, or sugar, or any thin syrup, to the consistency of thin maple syrup. A few cranberries may be used in place of the raisins.

HERE'S PROOF

A COTTAGE GROVE CITIZEN TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCE.

You have a right to doubt statements of people living far away but can you doubt Cottage Grove endorsement?

Read it:

F. C. Ralston, retired farmer, 447 S. Third St., says: "Whenever I have an opportunity to speak a good word for Doan's Kidney Pills I do not hesitate to do so. Doan's have regulated my kidneys and have overcome pains due to disordered kidneys. I have had to use them on several occasions for kidney complaint and in every instance they have never failed to give me great satisfaction."
