WANTED.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and Liver Troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual costiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. G. G. GREEN, Woodbury, N. J. Garman & Hemenway Co.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office,
Roseburg, Ore., Apr. 25, 1903.

Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provision of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892,

FLORENCE E. HILLS, of Jasper, Co of Lane, State of Ore., has this day filed in this office her sworn statement No. 5018 for the purchase of the SW ¼ of SW ¼ of Sec No. 14 Tp 20 S R 1 W, and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultura purposes, and to establish her claim to said land before J J Walton, U S Commissioner at Eugene, Ore., on Saturday, the 11th, day of July, 1903.

She names as witnesses:

Henry Tilton, John A Hills, Dave Mathews, of June, Lane Co., Ore., W R Parker, of Zion, Lane Co., Ore.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 11th day of July, 1903.

J. T. BRIDGES, Register.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectoration and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. Garman & Hemenway Co.

HOW DIAMONDS ARE SMUGGLED.

(New York World.)

That more smuggling is going on at present through the New York custom house, especially in precious stones, than ever before is the opinion of William H. Theobold, former special agent of the treasury department. To a World reporter he made this statement positively, and added that to his personal knowledge four pearl necklaces, none worth less than $30,000, have been brought into this country within the last few months without payment of duty. Mr. Theobold declares that these necklaces are now being worn by prominent women.

He made other serious accusations against what, he declared, were prominent jewelry firms in this city, and said that had he not been hampered by lack of funds while connected with the treasury department he might have made important arrests.

Mr. Theobold resigned from the custom house service December 1. While in the employ of the government he was identified with the diamond and pearl seizures from John W. Gates, Constant LeJeune, M. J. Lasar, Adolph Leinkam au Rockberger, Mrs. Dulles, Mrs. Phyllis Wedge and others.

The government has recently decided to work in conjunction with the Diamond Cutters' and Importers' Protective Association of this city to prevent smuggling of jewels, and the association has appointed a committee headed by Ludwig Nissen to co-operate in the work.

Mr. Nissen is to go to Europe soon to obtain information of prospective smuggling. Commenting on this arrangement Mr. Theobold said:

"It is utterly impossible for the treasury department, the Diamond Cutters' and Importers' Protective Association or any other large body to get any information from the diamond polishers of Antwerp or Amsterdam, or from the dealers in Paris and London. Those who smuggle diamonds make it a rule to give strict orders that the sellers say nothing to their competitors or any purchases they have made.

"I know what is considered to be a thoroughly reputable house in this city which has been smuggling diamonds for twenty years. This concern has one of its representatives living in Amsterdam. He is a very large purchaser of uncut diamonds. When he buys a lot of diamonds he informs the dealer from whom he buys that if the latter ever gives information to any of his competitors as to the character of the goods he purchases or the prices he has paid for them he will never again buy from him. That is a standing rule.

"This concern is in league with the porter and chief steward of a certain well known ocean liner. I know both of the ship officers well. I have tried for five years to catch the chief member of this firm, but the great handicap to his capture lies in the lack of money. If I had plenty of money I know I could land him. While I was in the government employ I always worked single-handed and was hampered by lack of funds. For these reasons it was utterly impossible to do successful work.

"I know the members of another concern who have relatives traveling back and forth on the Antwerp steamers, employed as stewards, who successfully bring over packages of unset diamonds for the firm on almost every trip. I am acquainted with still another firm that buys from smugglers all the diamonds that these men bring in. The firm is a most reputable one, so far as Bradstreet's and public opinion go.

"I know of four necklaces that have been landed in this country within the last few months without the payment of duty. The cheapest one of these is worth $30,000, and one which was purchased of Eucharau in Paris cost 250,000 francs, or about $50,000. Everyone of the women at present wearing these ill-gotten jewels is in society. Two of them are the wives of bankers and the fourth is the wife of a famous lawyer.

"I am not in a position as a private citizen to go and take these jewels and I shall never become an informer. Although I am out of the business for all time, I am still in close touch with people who are only too glad to give me information such as I always have received.

On one of his visits to New York and if I remember rightly, shortly after the seizure of the Dulles necklace Secretary Shaw told me I had his sympathy and backing in my work. I know that Collector Stranahan determined to suppress smuggling, particularly of diamonds. I do not think he will be able to do it, though. I know he is heart and soul in league with Mr. Hamilton, head of the law division, to break up the trade, and I am more than glad to think that the Importers' Association has taken the initiative in this matter through such an able representative as Mr. Nissen. I predict, however, that they will all fail unless they spend their money freely.

The real smugglers of diamonds make it a business to cross the ocean eight or ten times a year. These men have the diamonds in their own possession while crossing, and I believe there is not a man alive other than myself that knows who the confederates of the real smugglers are. I always stood ready to apprehend these people while I was in the harness as a government officer, and I did manage to make many of them unhappy.

VERY REMARKABLE CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it," Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at New Era Drug Store.

LINCOLN'S STRONGEST ATTRIBUTE

The strongest attribute of Lincoln was his power of self control. Sentiment might sway him, but a mob never moved him. When jealousies in the army bred a popular clamor against General Grant, while the latter was winning famous victories in the southwest, Lincoln listened to no word of scandal and by his silence rebuked the defamers of the general who afterward became the admiration of the world. When in the fevered tumult of passion an angry north seemed to voice a general demand for the infliction of the death penalty upon Jefferson Davis, Lincoln listened in silence and waited for reason to resume its sway. He was always looking over the heads of the crowd. He was always listening to the still small voice that echoed in the distance, far away from the roar of vehement denunciation. The majesty of the law constantly appealed to his fine judicial sense.—Leslie's Weekly.

No man or woman in the state will hesitate to speak well of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets after once trying them. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels, improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. For sale by Benson Drug Co.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, administrator of the estate of John S. Mansfield, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Lane County, State of Oregon his final account as such administrator of said estate and that Saturday the 1st day of August, 1903, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day has been fixed by said Court as the time for hearing of objections to said report and the settlement thereof.

RUDOLPH M. CLINE,
Administrator of the estate of John S. Mansfield, deceased.

SILK CREEK ITEMS.

June 23.

School closed last Friday with some very nice exercises. The teacher, Mr. Doll, has gone to Clatskanie, Ore., where he expects to stay a few weeks, and then he will return to his home in Michigan for a while.

Only a few persons were present at prayer meeting last Sunday. Many do not know what interesting and profitable sessions they miss or the attendance would be larger.

Willard Knight, of Canby, Ore., is spending a short time with his aunt, Mrs. Burcham.

Dave Estes' uncle is visiting here this week.

Elder Babcock, who has been quite ill, is much improved in health.

While returning from town yesterday evening, C. W. Caldwell, found a bundle of dry goods which may be had by the owner calling for it at his residence.

Mr. Joe Willett and family and Mrs. Maggie Miller ate strawberries with Mrs. E. Tompkins of Glenwood Heights last Sunday.

Geo. Thompson is quite busily engaged in making hay at present.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive, features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at New Era Drug Store.
