Memorial Day Exercises.

Headquarters Appotomax Post, No. 34, G. A. R.
General Order No. 1.

Appotomax Post, No. 34, G. A. R. comrades will meet at the hall at 9 o'clock a. m. May 30th (Memorial Day). At 10 o'clock they will fall in and proceed to the cemetery where the prescribed order of exercises will be held following which the graves of the departed comrades will be decorated with flowers.

At the proper time the column will reform and return to the hall and be dismissed for dinner.

AFTERNOON EXERCISES.

At one o'clock they will assemble and at 1:30 march to the church or hall where the afternoon exercises will be held.

Rev. J. L. Stratford of Creswell, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon gathering.

All fraternal societies, the school children and old soldiers of any wars are cordially invited to join in the march and be present at the exercises of the day.

By order of GEO. W. MC. REYNOLDS. H. C. DUTTON, adjutant.

New M. E. Minister.

The Rev. Grant Stewart occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church on Sunday for the first time, as he only arrived on Friday from a pastorate in Chicago, having exchanged conferences and pulpits with Rev. Moore who closed his work here the first of the month.

The Epworth League being in session, many visitors, especially from Eugene, were present.

Rev. Stewart proached the baccalaureate sermon for the graduates of the High School, taking as his text Mathew, 10: 21. Rev. Stewart is just in the prime of life, of good presence and a speaker of more than ordinary ability and will, very likely, meet the expectations of his people and attract those outside of the church to attend and listen to his sermons.

Basket Social

There will be a basket social at the Latham school house on the evening of May 13th. The proceeds to be applied to painting the school house.

A good program will be rendered. Girls are requested to bring baskets. All are invited.

Notice.

Bohemia Camp No. 260 W. O. W. has changed its time of meeting from Saturday to Friday nights. Neighbors please take notice and come to Woodmen hall Friday night.

Among the artists with Mr. Arnold are: The Petasawan Troupe of Japanese, the Flying Victorellas; De Elmer, on the single trapese; The Kabers; Little Irene; Prof. Horne's dog and monkey circus; Sam Kitchi, hand balancer; The Dare Family; The Traviolas, with the hoops; De Onzo, the barrel man; and The Hoffmans, in their sensational act, the bicycle whirl.

On Wednesday afternoon a baby show will be given, suitable prizes will be rewarded. Wednesday night, if possible, a public wedding will be held. Any couple desiring to get married should confer with Manager Woods of the band. A bedroom suite will be given the fortunate couple.

The clowns this season are funnier than ever. The Tetsuwari troupe of Japanese actors and acrobats have been brought to America especially by Mr. Arnold for this tour. Every gesture, intonation trick or movement is practiced in private until absolutely perfect, before it is presented to the public. The company was engaged with the Mikado's concert, and eclipses all Jap troupes that have heretofore appeared in this country.

Remember Cottage Grove, three days, commencing Monday, May 15th and two performances daily at 2 and 8 p. m. Free acts on the grounds at 1:30 and 7:30 p. m daily.

If you need an awning, let the Wynne Hardware Company order t for you. They know what you want.
