July.

When the scarlet cardinal tells
Her dream to the dragon-fly,
And the lazy breeze makes a nest in the —trees,
And murmurs a lullaby.
It is July.

When the tangled cobweb pulls
The corn-flower's cup awry,
And the lilies tall lean over the wall
To bow to the butterfly,
It is July.

When the heat like a mist veil floats,
And poppies flame in the rye,
And the silver note in the streamlet's
—throat
Has softened almost to a sigh.
It is July.

When the hours are so still that time
Forgets them, and lets them lie
'Neath petals pink till the night stars
—wink
At the sunset in the sky,
It is July.

There will now be something doing in the hay fields.

A fellow was fined $50 at North Bend last week for shooting wild pigeons out of season.

Sunday is the favorite day for people to get drowned or smashed up in an automobile wreck.

The Sentinel wants one of the Leader's last week jokelets analized, defined or explained. Draw your own conclusions, Bro. Cates. We know you know, alright!

It is believed here the heavy fines imposed by Judge Coke on violators of the local option law in Roseburg are really responsible for much of the activity in circulating recall petitions.

The 21-year-old son of the editor of the Jacksonville, Oregon, newspaper, suicided by shooting himself with a revolver last week in the home of his parents after a drunken debauch.

September 1, is the date set for opening the new railroad from Portland to Tillamook and people in that corner of the state will have a big celebration when the first train reaches Tillamook Bay from Portland.

In Milwaukee the new administration has stopped the issuing of bonds for the payment of current expenses in all departments. A very little looking around raised nearly $80,000 a year more from a few tax dodgers.

A new industry has been started near Gresham where a Japanese woman has a thriving colony of silk worms that she raised from imported cocoons this spring. The worms are now spinning their silk and will soon develop the butterfly stage.

Mining men will meet at Grants Pass on July 18. The recent finds of rich gold ore in Southern Oregon will probably make the coming convention a very interesting one. Invitations to attend this gathering have been sent to commercial bodies and mining organizations of the whole coast.

It was indeed, a glorous Fourth. Perfect weather, a large jovial and peaceable crowd, creditable parade, an entertaining program and an eloquent and logical oration. It was one of the best celebrations ever held in Cottage Grove and withal, a strictly sane Fourth. It was generally observed that Cottage Grove has advanced from a country village to a real, live city.

The voting dry of a number of counties and 87 towns in Utah last week, has caused a weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth on the part of the booze subsidized press of Salt Lake, which among other things put up the same old absurd claim that more or as much liquor will be sold now as heretofore in Utah and proclaim that "prohibition don't prohibit." If prohibition don't prohibit, nor diminish the sale of booze, what are the brewers, wholesalers, retailers and Col. Goodwin kicking about? Prohibition has transformed a good many Oregon hell-holes into clean, law-abiding, well regulated and beautiful home towns, wherein the old rookeries and dives have been replaced with modern bricks, streets paved and progress in evidence on every hand. Cottage Grove is an example.

Experience Is The Best Teacher

And it is through experience that we have learned the merits of the Celebrated Mallory Hat. The numerous customers who asked for a Mallory Hat at our store in the past and who would accept no other caused us to "sit up and take notice." We profited by this experience and have secured the agency for this famous hat for Cottage Grove.

Balloon Will Uplift Stage And Literature

LEADING lights of the literary and theatrical world have decided on a new method, and a balloon is to be the instrument and Pittsfield, Mass., the scene of the uplift. Of course there are other professions and kinds of business represented in the membership of the Fliers' Club of America, but the authors and actors so far have been forced to the front.

Though born in jest on the veranda of the Larchmont Yacht club, the new aviation organization intends being serious, if it can be with a membership embracing such apostles of solemnity as Frank Daniels, Willie Collier, George Ade, Booth Tarkington and David Warfield.

Despite the fact that every member considers himself a heavier than air being, the first aerial possessions of the club will be a balloon, to be guided by Leo Stevens, a veteran handler of silken air bags. So far only the club emblem, two white wings on a blue field, has been selected, but the balloon is to come next, possibly after Leroy N. Taylor of New York and Stevens start their projected flight from Waco, Tex., to Manhattan Island.

As but two of the half hundred members of the Fliers' club have ever been up in the air in an aviatory way, they have decided to begin on the balloon and progress to the aeroplane stage.

Ballooning seems so much safer, and Aeronaut Stevens has assured them that from his personal experience there is no sport that is safer.

FRANK DANIELS, DAVID WARFIELD AND GEORGE ADE ON INITIAL ASCENT OF FLIERS' CLUB.

It may be that before aeroplanes are taken up the club hangers will contain more than one balloon and the favorite German pastime of an aerial hare and hounds chase can be pursued. In this sport one of the best balloons, managed by a pilot of skill, is selected as the hare. It is the "hare's" idea to so play with winds and ballast as to elude his pursuers and drop to earth unobserved. The hound balloon which makes the nearest landing to the hare is adjudged victor.

While the Fliers' club charter members do not expect to rival the Aviation Club of America in any way, they do feel that they may do the cause some good while learning it themselves.

Frank Smith Gets 30 Days and $250

Frank Smith, of Marcola, who was convicted of selling booze at Marcola last week was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $250, or in lieu thereof to serve one day for each $2 of the fine, which will give him 155 days in jail if he does not pay up his fine. He was in jail once before for the same offense.
