Plus X Desires as Many Humble Members of the Faith Present as Possible—Cardinal Gibbons Given an Audience.

ROME, Aug. 7.—St. Peter's is closed

while the preparations for the coronation next Sunday are proceeding. Pope Plus X has expressed a desire to have as many of the humble members of the faith as possible admitted, and 50,000 tickets will be distributed by the parish priests, Catholic clubs and associations, seminaries, ecclesiastical colleges, monasteries and convents. The remainder of the seats will be reserved for distinguished guests.

Only two galleries have been erected, one for the diplomatic body and one for the Roman aristocracy. The body of the church will be divided into compartments with separate entrances. Thousands are already leaving the Venetian provinces to attend the coronation of "their pope."

The papal master of ceremonies has issued the invitations to the archbishops and bishops who will participate in the procession from the Vatican into St. Peter's. They are requested to be at the Vatican at 7 o'clock Sunday morning.

The government to avert untoward incidents, has ordered the piazza and the neighborhood of St. Peter's and the Basilica to be occupied by the military, and has forbidden an anti-clerical manifestation proposed by the Socialists and Republicans for that day.

The pope's first allocution, to be delivered at the next secret consistory, is looked forward to with great interest.

Don Carlos, the Spanish pretender, who is a personal friend of Plus X, has said to his followers that he would not now have the papacy against him, as he did under the pontificate of Leo, who was godfather of King Alfonso, and has even gone so far as to say that he hoped the accession of the Pope would help him to the throne.

Dr. Lagomani stated today that Cardinal Herrero y Espinosa was out of danger.

OFFICIAL ADDRESS TO CATHOLICS.

Delegate Falconio Informs Them of Election of Pope Plus.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Monsignor Falconio, the apostolic delegate to this country, today received the following cablegram from Rome: "The election of Cardinal Sarto as Supreme Pontiff (Plus X), according to a telegram sent before."

"MERRY DEL VAL." (Signed) This is the first official notice that Monsignor Falconio has received of the election of Cardinal Sarto as Pope. The first cablegram mentioned by Monsignor Merry del Val has not been received at the delegation here. Immediately on receipt of the above cablegram, Monsignor Falconio issued the following address to the bishops within his jurisdiction:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 7, 1903.—Your Lordship—After the painful announcement of the death of Leo XIII. I am happy to bring you tidings today of great joy. The Most Eminent Cardinal Joseph Sarto, Patriarch of Venice, has been elected Pope, and has assumed the name of Plus X. Such is the consoling information I have just received from Monsignor Merry del Val through a cablegram.

"With the election of the new Pope, a new link has been added to the golden chain of the succession of the Roman Pontiffs, which stretches unbroken across the broad and historic field from St. Peter in the first century to the newly elected pastor on the 20th.

every other nation in their attachment to the new Pontiff.

"May God grant him a long and prosperous reign for the welfare of the church and the honor of the apostolic see.

"In making this announcement to you I have the honor to remain, most faithfully, yours in Christ,

"D. FALCONIO, Archbishop of Larrissa, Apostolic Delegate."

POPE RECEIVES GIBBONS.

American Cardinal is Given a Private Audience by New Pontiff

ROME, Aug. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons was received by the Pope today in private audience. In a long conference Plus X renewed his expressions of interest in America, already made manifest by his reception Wednesday to the pilgrims from the United States. The Pope said he should like to have the Cardinal remain in Rome for some time in order that he might become thoroughly acquainted with all questions connected with the United States, but His Holiness did not insist, being aware, he said, of the Cardinal's delicate state of health and his suffering from hot weather. In closing the audience the Pontiff charged Cardinal Gibbons to give the apostolic benediction to all the faithful in America.

After his private audience Cardinal Gibbons presented to the Pope the Rev. Dennis R. O'Connell, rector, and Father Charles P. Grannan, professor of theology at the Catholic University at Washington, and Father P. Gavan, the Cardinal's secretary. The Pope spoke most affably to each and said to Rector O'Connell that he knew the importance of the Catholic University at Washington and would do all possible to further its interest and prestige.

HARD NUT FOR POPE TO CRACK.

Selection of Secretary is Daily Becoming More Complicated.

ROME, Aug. 7.—The selection of a new papal secretary of state is daily becoming more complicated, as there is a division in the Sacred College such as existed before the election of Plus X. There is a strong sentiment in favor of the reappointment of Cardinal Rampolla, because he is conversant with all papal affairs, and Cardinal Ferrarini, who belongs to the "Bambolina party," is also suggested. The latter's opponents intimate that as he was nuncio at Paris, he might not be agreeable to some of the powers, and besides it is pointed out that he voted against the pope in the conclave, except on the last ballot. Plus offered the position twice to Cardinal Agliardi, who declined to give up the vice-chancellorship of the church. Cardinal Sattoli also declined on the ground that he was not sufficiently acquainted with the French language, and he knew too little of foreign questions generally, except those relating to America. He suggested Cardinal Vicenzi Vannutelli.

Negotiations are proceeding to have Cardinal Agliardi, while retaining the vice-chancellorship, assume the secretaryship of state temporarily.

NO POLITICS IN THE CONCLAVE.

All Tales of Intrigue Declared to Be Without Foundation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—The Rome correspondent of the Times, cabling by way of London, discounts the "old misconceptions," fostered chiefly by the Continental press, concerning the conduct of the Sacred College before and during the deliberations in the conclave. He recalls the strange tales of intrigues, counter intrigues, private maneuvers and petty feuds which were told at the time of the conclave which elected Leo XIII and which were afterward disproved when the true history of the conclave was written, and he says the same process is being repeated in the conclave of Plus X.

As it is useless to protest, the correspondent says in conclusion, one must be content to state the firm conviction, based on the closest and most careful observation of the recent proceedings, that the conduct of the members of the Sacred College before and after the conclave was absolutely in accordance with their high official duty, and in view of the importance of the religious conscience.

Nature of Gibbons' Illness.

ROME, Aug. 7.—Cardinal Gibbons, who has been the central figure in the suffering from intestinal trouble, due to excessive heat and fatigue. His illness is not regarded as serious.

Bulgaria Will Be Neutral in Macedonian Trouble.

MASSACRE AGAINST TURKEY

Any Massacre of Peaceful People in District of Revolution is Likely to Be Avenged—Rebels Driven to Uprising.

SEEK REVENGE ON BULGARIANS.

Macedonians Stirring Up Turkey to Have Enemies Massacred.

VIENNA, Aug. 7.—The Foreign Office is not inclined to believe that the situation in Macedonia is so serious. It is believed that the latest provocations by the Turkish troops drove the insurgents to despair. The Bulgarian government is resolved to maintain friendly relations with the Porte and to prevent bands from crossing the frontier, but a popular movement is feared in the event of a massacre of peaceful Macedonians by the Turkish soldiery.

As far as officials representing Balkan states here are aware, the Macedonian committee does not possess sufficient funds to inaugurate a successful revolution, but it hopes, by continuing the existing unrest, to ultimately bring about the interference of the powers which signed the Berlin treaty. Joseph Angeloff, the first diplomatic agent of Bulgaria in London, today said:

"But for the far-seeing policy of Prince Ferdinand and the iron hand he has on the Bulgarian Ministry, there would certainly have been a general uprising on behalf of Macedonia today. The heart of every Bulgarian is to go to Macedonia, but this cannot be. We shall continue to make representations to the Porte for reforms and better government in Macedonia, and in the meantime to the quick over Macedonia, but there will be no disturbance of the present peace."

PLANS OF REBELS MISCARRY.

Bulgarians Uprising Begun Two Weeks Ahead of Time.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 6.—(Delayed in transmission)—News received here as to the extent of the Bulgarian revolutionary movement in the vilayet of Monastir is conflicting. In considerable districts Monastir, which were received this morning, the opinion is expressed that the insurrection broke out a fortnight before its chief intended, and before the bands were in readiness, presumably because the leaders were disconcerted by the active preventive measures adopted by the authorities.

The Bulgarian inhabitants of a number of villages have fled to the mountains for refuge. The railways have asked that the troops guarding the lines be quadrupled, but this would entail the employment of 20,000 soldiers, and in view of the impoverished treasury the government will find it difficult to comply with the request.

In spite of reports to the contrary, it is confidently believed in well-informed quarters that the Porte, in conformity with its formal declarations, will employ only regular troops to suppress the insurrection, as it is well aware it is important for Turkey to avoid excesses, such as certainly would be the outcome of the employment of the undisciplined Albanians or other irregular soldiers. The diplomats here entertain no doubt that the Porte will continue its present policy of fighting the bands with regulars.

Of the eight battalions of infantry dispatched to Monastir, four will remain at Monastir, three will occupy the heights of Perister, to the westward of Monastir, and one will go to Florin, a town of 1100 inhabitants, 17 miles southwest of Monastir. The Porte has sent categorical instructions to the valls of the Armenian provinces of Asia Minor, holding them personally responsible for any Kurdish excesses and ordering vigorous measures to be taken to prevent fighting. The British Vice-Consul at Bitlis has been ordered to proceed to Much, 90 miles south of Erzerum, where the Armenian massacres by the Kurds and the Turks occurred in 1894. The British Consul at Erzerum has been ordered to proceed to Much, 90 miles south of Erzerum, where the Armenian massacres by the Kurds and the Turks occurred in 1894. The British Vice-Consul at Bitlis has been ordered to proceed to Much, 90 miles south of Erzerum, where the Armenian massacres by the Kurds and the Turks occurred in 1894.

BRITAIN MINIMIZES TROUBLE.

Still It is Serious Enough to Warrant Taking of Precautions.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—Confidential reports received at the Foreign Office regarding Macedonia, have caused the British government to adopt the view that the situation is not very serious for the moment, although sufficiently so to warrant the taking of precautions. British officials do not believe that Turkey contemplates an attack on Bulgaria in view of the known attitude of the powers, especially Russia and Austria.

Insurgents Near Salonica.

SALONICA, Aug. 7.—A band of 500 insurgents has appeared near the railway bridge over the River Vardar, two hours' distant from Salonica. The Greek stores at Samati, Atirid and Harmanel have been burned.

Turks Hoot Bulgarians.

SALONICA, Aug. 7.—Four battalions of Turkish troops, supported by artillery, yesterday met and routed a body of 1700 Bulgarians, near Sorovitch.

HARD BLOW TO CHAMBERLAIN.

Board of Trade and the Treasury Declares Against Protection.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The Daily Mail this morning says that it understands that the permanent officials of the Board of Trade and of the Treasury have unanimously advised against the opinion of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's proposals for giving the British colonies preferences, based on the taxation of food and other goods.

NO PORTLAND GIFTS IN SALE.

Rev. R. W. Farquhar Forced to Pay English Taxes.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The police have seized several pieces of silverware belonging to the Rev. R. W. Farquhar, of Portland, Or., and E. P. Gaston, who at one time lived in Chicago, two American taxpayers living in Wimbledon, who were the first to join the passive resistance movement against the education act. The silver was sold at auction to satisfy the rates, amounting to a few shillings, which they refused to pay. The pieces include wedding gifts and church presents made to them in the United States.

(Rev. R. W. Farquhar was pastor of the Hassall-Street Congregational Church, several years ago. So far as known, he was not presented with any silver plate while in Portland.)

CHINA CAN'T GET REFORMERS.

Consuls Will Save a Number of Men From Being Executed.

PEKIN, Aug. 7.—It is understood here that the editors and staff of the Chinese reform newspaper, Supao, published at Shanghai, against whom warrants of arrest have been issued on the charge of publishing seditious matter, can be surrendered only by the unanimous consent of the foreign Consuls at that port. This cannot be obtained, as the representative of Great Britain has been instructed not to grant his consent. It has been reported here that the foreigners in Shanghai were organizing to prevent the surrender of the accused men by force in case such action had been attempted.

Five reformers were arrested in Pekin with an excellent handle for their whip by the military rigors shows in the suppression of the right of free speech. The correspondent computes that during July in various parts of Russia, 200 strikers were killed outright and fully 2000 seriously wounded, and says it is agreed on all hands that M. von Plehwe has a labor question which will tax all his strength. A considerable portion of industrial Russia is already in a condition bordering upon wholesale anarchy.

The Morning Leader's Odessa correspondent asserts that M. von Plehwe, Russian Minister of the Interior, has availed himself of the labor troubles to institute a system of the secret police in all Russian industrial centers, and that 600 were arrested at Odessa alone.

MORE RUSSIAN STRIKERS KILLED.

Governor is Even Wounded, but Will Not Call Out Troops.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—The Standard prints a dispatch from Kieff, Russia, dated last Wednesday, which says the day before the factory hands at Nikolaief struck and, that serious disturbances ensued. Twenty were killed and 60 wounded, a police officer mortally. The Governor sustained a scalp injury brought up the previous evening, and it is believed the outbreak was preconcerted. The tram cars were stopped and overturned and a desperate attack was made on the government buildings, the mob literally hurling itself upon the bayonets of the military guard. It was here that the most fatalities occurred.

Half a battalion of Cossacks summoned from Odessa helped to suppress the tumult. Although roughly handled and wounded, the Governor, with praise-worthy restraint, declined to permit the troops to fire. The Franco-Belgian works are closed, throwing 5000 men out of work. The port is now under effective control by the local authorities.

The disturbances were renewed today by the rioters parading the town, breaking windows, invading workshops, and compelling workmen to join them. The Cossacks fired upon a crowd on the bank of the Dnieper after they had been assailed with showers of stones. Several were wounded. The tramways have suspended and the bakeries are closed. The price of bread is rising.

Odessa Situation is Alarming.

VIENNA, Aug. 7.—An Odessa dispatch to the Trieste Il Piccolo describes the situation as alarming. It says the dockers were attacking ships and throwing their contents into the sea. The rioters put the Chief of Police to flight, tore down anti-strike proclamations and threatened to set the city on fire. At the first shot by the troops the Jewish population became panic-stricken and fled, afoot, as the railroads were stopped.

Fighting in Morocco.

MADRID, Aug. 7.—According to a dispatch from Melilla, Morocco, a fight has taken place between French and Moorish troops near the village of Beni-Fatt. The Moors, who were pursuing a body of Kabyle insurgents, entered French territory in spite of the protests of the French frontier posts. Three French and two Moorish soldiers were killed, and a number were wounded.

New Governor for Australia.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The King has approved the appointment of Lord Northcote, now Governor of Bombay, as Governor-General of Australia, in succession to Lord Tennyson, who has resigned that post. The appointment will take effect 8 December.

FINLANDERS MAY BE EXPELLED.

Russia Considers Case of Several Prominent Men.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 7.—Orders were issued yesterday for the expulsion from Finland of Baron von Trail, Michael Finde, chairman of the City Council of Ekaterinburg, Count Gustav Kristi and his family of seven, and some other prominent Finlanders. The Vice Provincial Secretary of Vasa Province has been dismissed because he opposed the military usage.

The Finnish cadet school has been abolished because the graduates refused to enter the Russian military service, only 19 of 34 officers of the former Finnish battalions having accepted service with Russia.

British Auto Bill by Committee.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The House of Commons, after a discussion extending from noon yesterday until 2:30 this morning, passed through the committee the government's new bill for the regulation of automobiles. It fixes the maximum speed of motor cars in the open road at 20 miles an hour and in towns at 10 miles. Punishment by fine and imprisonment are provided for violation of the law. Automobileists strongly oppose the speed limit and threaten to fight the bill to the last.
