Rev. Champ Richardson, Babtist, is expected to preach in this city at the M. E. church in the near future.

The editor of the ECHO-LEADER will be one of twenty-five persons who will present the firemen $2 each, for uniforms.

The house at Salem has passed bills appropriating $5000 each for normal schools at Ashland and Drain and also for a graded school at Lakeview.

The beautiful weather last Sunday brought out about everybody to the railroad depot, to see the persons interested in the eloping business.

Presiding elder T. L. Jones, will hold his second quarterly meeting at the M. E. church in this city, Saturday night and Sunday, 11 a. m. Rev. E. Gittins expects to continue the meeting.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured J. G. Gorrell of the worst case of eczema ever known in the state of Indiana. It cures scalds, burns, indolent sores and never fails to cure piles. For sale by J. P. Currin.

Some real bargains are offered by J. O. Watts, the jeweler of Eugene. See his announcement in the ECHO-LEADER. Mr. Watts is in for business.

It is not a miracle. It won't cure everything, but it will cure piles. That's what De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will do, because it has done it in hundreds of cases. For sale by J. P. Currin.

One of the best features of Moorhead's sleeping car bill is the "kibosh" it puts on that tyrannical king of the road, the sleeping car porter. Its enactment will in a short time wipe out the practice of "tipping" which is now so necessary for the travelers comfort and decent treatment.

C. H. Moye, representing Wiley B. Allen Co., of Portland, was among us last week, and succeeded in selling M. C. Bond and Mrs. M. A. Mount a piano, each of the celebrated Hardman make. He also sold to the family of Mr. Pearson a very fine Estey organ. We are pleased to annouce that Mr. Moye brought in the best and most elegant grade of musical instruments ever brought to this city.

The way he sat down in his chair and the manner he allowed the waiter to serve him showed plainly that he had been at hotels before. "waiter," he said, "bring me some stale bread, and take these biscuits away." He kept on eating and reading the morning paper. In about five minutes he beckoned the head waiter. "John," he remarked, "you have splended service here." "Yes, sir, I am glad you like it." "Yes, you carry out orders very litterly. I ordered stale bread and the waiter is waiting for it to get stale."

We hear that the S. P. Railroad Co., intend enlarging their plant at Latham, and will employ over one hundred hands. The opportunity for securing railroad ties, tiling and bridge timber are so great here, it is said the company will make the tie preserving plant permanent at Latham and also add the Burnetizing process for preserving tiles and bridge timber. This will be a good thing for timber owners in this section, and cause the distribution of a large amount of cash. Though the plant will not be run all the time it is supposed that the establishment of the plant will be permanent.

Eugene Guard: Representative Moorhead sends word to the Guard to deny that he was present at the Belshazzar's feast in Portland, notwithstanding the report of the Oregonian to the contrary. He was at home in Junction city with his family.

FLOWER BEDS.—Anyone wanting flower beds made can have the flowers free of cost by employing me to make the beds and set out the flowers. Orders left at my home six miles south of Cottage Grove or sent by mail will have prompt attention.
PAUL SNYDER.

IT IS LEMATI.

News of the passage of the bill before the legislature to establish the name of Lemati for the part of Cottage Grove east of the river, Wednesday was received the same afternoon. The friends of the measure here were very enthusiastic in their expressions of joy and about six p. m. they commenced shooting fire crackers firing the anvil and burning bonfires on the vacant lots opposite the Sherwood house. The boys enjoyed the fun very much and finishing up about 9 o'clock, gathered at the Sherwood House where they enjoyed excellent music, dancing and card playing being the finishing touch of all who felt so inclined Just before the Roseburg local of 3:30 p. m., Thursday arrived, the firing of anvils again commenced and a large crowd of people assembled at the depot who as the train came in, cheered with a rousing welcome Mr. O. F. Knox on his return home from Salem. They all seemed glad to see Mr. Knox and show him their gratitude and admiration for his instrumentality in securing the passage of the bill. On Main street, a line was stretched from the brick building of Lewis & Burkholder, across the street to the hardware store of Knox & White, on which was hanging in large letters the word "Lemati."

Sunday morning judge Smith of Portland, and Chief of Police Dalley of Salem, arrived here on the south bound overland train in pursuit of Dr. J. V. Gaff of Albina. They secured the services of constable Wallace of this city, and followed the wily Dr. to S. G. Lockwoods, on Siuslaw, 12 miles west of this place. They found him enjoying the warmth of Mr. Lockwood's parlor stove, at 6.30 a. m. The officers immediately proceeded to decorate the doctor with jewelry not altogether to his liking; but such is life in the far west. He was brought to this city, placed in the city tank for safe keeping until the north bound freight arrived, when he was placed aboard in charge of chief Dalley, and started on his way for Portland, where he will be given an examination on the charge of abduction.

Grandma will be missed from church and Sunday-school, where she was a regular attendant.

Passenger rates from Chicago to Portland are to be raised March 1st to $61.50, for first class.

If you know or hear anything funny tell the ECHO-LEADER so it can let other people enjoy it.

We have ordered this week, two copies of the New York Musical Echo, for ladies who are taking lessons on the piano in this city. It is the best musical publication issued, and worth ten times its cost in the valuable music and musical information which it imparts. See advertisement of the Musical Echo in ECHO-LEADER.

We are publishing the Cottage Grove ECHO LEADER, but by an act of the legislature we all suddenly turn up in Lemati. Guess newspapers and editors are creatures of circumstances—sometimes they are—and again they aren't in it at all. Guess we'll not become so excited as to be in doubt whether really we are we, or the other fellow!

In response to a number of requests from citizens in town Prof. A. Todd has promised to deliver a lecture next Friday evening on his favorith topic, Astronomy. The lecture will be illustrated with about fifty Stereopticon Charts, ten feet in diameter; and will treat in a comprehensive and popular way the principal interesting and beautiful points in astronomy. The subject being a large one will in embracing so much ground be much of a synopsis of a series of subsequent lectures, in which he will dwell more fully on the Sun, Moon and the Planets and their relation to us, their origin condition, constitution and their destiny At the close of the lecture he will give a few interesting local views which he has taken in this locality The entertainment promises to be both interesting and instrtctive to both old and young, and should be attended by all. An interesting feature of the evening will be a view of the inside of the great LickObservtory taken by himself, with a review of his visit and what he saw while there. Next Friday evening at Davis hall. A question box will be provided and all questions relating to Astronomy he will attempt to answer.

POLISH UP THE TOWN.

It Doesen't Cost Much to Keep It Spick, Span and Shining.

No one thing will give a visitor or a prospective investor such a favorable impression of a a town or city as the virtue next to godliness—cleanliness Merchants have long since learned that it is the clean store that is most inviting to the purchaser, and we all appreciate a clean home. The same principle applies in regard to public buildings, sidewalks, lawns, streets and alleys. Our schools, of course, should be kept clean, and are as an example to the young, and to prevent the lodgement and propagation of disease of any kind the streets and alleys ought to receive more careful attention. Too often the latter especially are made the receptacle of all kinds of filth that in warm weather especially offends the nostrils and spreads infection broadcast. In such weather as we are having now the nuisance is not so apparent, but is equally dangerous. Let our streets and alleys be kept clean and free from rubbish of any kind.

This winter there must of necessity be a deal of mud and slush on all our sidewalks, but the exceedingly unpleasant effects of it may be to a very large extent overcome if each householder will exercise a little care in keeping the walk in front of his house properly cleaned up, and instead of a nessary walk about town being a cause of regret it will be a pleasure to get about. Thereby sociability will be promoted, and those who come among us will have cause to be charmed with our progressive ideas.

As was said, there is nothing that gives more agreeable first impressions of a city or town than the cleanliness of its streets, stores and public places. It may draw to us many inhabitants and large investments.

Jack Dempsy, the once famous pugilist, is now an inmate of a private insane asylum in New York. Drink and defeat has wrecked him physically and mentally.

Mosby Creek Items.

Items are scarce.

The roads between here and Cottage Grove are not very pleasant traveling.

O. O. Rowland of Portland, was on the Creek last week.

W. H. Hoyt, of Lorane, was in our midst first of the week.

A J. Brumbaugh, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is some better.

W. Matlock, of Linn county, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Allen, are on the sick list.

There has been quite a fine foot bridge placed across Mosby creek east of the Blue Mountain schoolhouse.

Messrs. Spong and Hopkings have finished their logging contract.

HUMBUG.

W. W. Masterson, of Cottage Grove, has sued the S. P. R. R. in the sum of $5,000 damages. The complaint alleges that for 70 cents the company agreed to carry the plaintiff to Henderson station from Cottage Grove, as a passenger; that the cars slowed up at the station but did not stop, and in getting off of the train he was thrown with great force to the ground thereby greatly injuring him, cutting his face severely, and his right wrist was sprained and fractured and permanently injured.

He retains W. H. Cooper as his attorney.—Eugene Guard.

ON THE ROADS.—Shelbrede's house bill to provide for the working of state convicts upon the public roads, provides that the superintendent of the Oregon penitentiary shall, under such regulations and conditions as shall be approved by the governor, upon application made therefor by the county court of any county or state, let to such number of convicts from among those whose terms are nearest expired, who have been convicted of the crime of murder in the first or second degree, arson or rape, to be used by such county court for the working or improving of the public roads of such county making such application.

IT IS NOW LEMATI.—The bill before the legislature to establish the name of Lemati for the part of Cottage Grove lying east of the river passed the senate yesterday. It passed the house several days ago, and will now become a law as soon as it receives the signature of the governor. O. F. Knox, of Lemati, has been instrumental in securing the passage of the bill, and has been at Salem during a good part of the session. There was great rejoicing among the people of Lemati last evening, and the passage of the bill was duly celebrated by them.—Eugene Register.

Ashland Tidings: Talk about extravagance in state expenditures in Oregon! Previous to the recent general election in California the governor ordered published in 66 papers over the state several proposed constitutional amendments to be voted upon, as provided by law. The papers have now on file with the state officials their bills for the advertising which aggregate more than $100,000, different papers charging all the way from $125 to $7000 or $8000 each for the work.
