VICTIM OF ILL HEALTH

MRS. WALTER SELLERS COMMITS SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.

Tragedy Occurs at Home of Her Brothers Near Burns, Harney County.

Mrs. Walter Sellers, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. V. B. Embree, of this city, committed suicide by shooting herself through the heart at the home of her brothers, Van and Clyde Embree, in Harney county, Sunday night.

News of her death reached Dallas yesterday noon in a long-distance telephone message from Burns, directed to Doctor Embree. The message was from Van Embree, but gave no particulars of the sad affair, merely stating that Mrs. Sellers had killed herself and asking for instructions concerning the shipment of the body to Dallas.

Further news came today in the Oregonian in a dispatch from Burns, which says that Mrs. Sellers shot herself through the heart after retiring Sunday night. The dispatch says she succeeded in securing a revolver while the other members of the family were at supper, and upon retiring for the night she placed the muzzle to her breast and pulled the trigger.

The body will be shipped to Dallas for burial and will probably arrive here Thursday evening or Friday morning.

Mind Weakened by Ill Health.

Mrs. Sellers had been in frail health for several years, and for the last few months had been a victim of melancholia. Her depression of spirits increased noticeably after a severe attack of pneumonia two months ago, and the family, hoping that a change of climate and surroundings might prove beneficial, sent her to the home of her brothers in Sunset Valley, twenty miles south of Burns, in Harney County. Accompanied by her mother, she made the long trip in apparently the best of spirits. Arriving at her destination, she spent much of her time in visiting the friends of her girlhood days and seemed to derive great benefit from outdoor exercise. So noticeable was the improvement in her condition that for a time she seemed on the road to complete recovery, and the family became greatly encouraged. As the novelty of the change of surroundings began to wear off, however, her depression of mind began to return and the end came Sunday night when she took her own life.

Mrs. Sellers was the eldest daughter of Doctor and Mrs. Embree. She was born in Dallas in February, 1879, and was married to Walter Sellers, seven years ago. The husband and a little son, five years of age, survive her.

Ordinances Postponed.

The ordinances providing for extensive street and sewer improvements were laid on the table by the City Council last night, it being the desire of the officials to make certain changes in the measures before placing them on their final passage. Bids for street improvement were also laid on the table. Councilman Hall and Stafrin were appointed as a committee to go to Corvallis and investigate the manner of flushing sewers employed by that city. Mayor Eakin, Councilman Ayres and Auditor Gregory were appointed to adopt a system of bookkeeping for the city. Several new sidewalks were ordered.
