At the Tabernacle on the corner of Jefferson and Clay streets, next Sunday, the public will be given an opportunity to listen to Rev. Charles A. Phipps, field worker for the Oregon Sunday School association, whose extended service has helped to a large extent to make the Sunday school work in Oregon prosper. He will deliver an address at 11 a. m. and again at 7:30 p. m. He is said to be a great worker as well as a master of public oratory, and he is entertaining as well as instructive. His work is undenominational and is carried on without reference to any particular creed or church.

His subjects have been announced as follows:

11 a. m.—"Address in Honor of the Graduating Class in Teacher Training."

A special musical program will be rendered, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

MONMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL OPENS FOR YEAR'S WORK

Largest Enrollment in History of Institution and Many More to Be Added.

MONMOUTH, Oct. 2.—The high school began Monday with an enrollment of 45. This number will be increased to at least 55 by the beginning next week. The school is conducted by Miss McNeil, the principal, and Miss Jackson, her assistant.

This is the largest enrollment in the history of the school, and the prospects for the work of the year are most flattering. The new building for the public and high schools is fast nearing completion, and it is expected to move in with all classes within a week. At the present time the school is being conducted in a building in town arranged and prepared by the board for that purpose.

SALEM PLANS TAFT RECEPTION

Will Be Given Breakfast of Oregon Delicacies.

SALEM Sept. 29.—With a morning meal of Oregon oysters, crabs and trout, as well as some of Oregon's finest fruits, President Taft, on October 12, will taste the first part of his welcome to the city of Salem. After breakfast the party, including members of the Salem reception committees, will take an automobile drive about the streets of the city, the drive being along State street, Court street and Commercial street.

The exercises of the morning will be held at the east door of the court house and the president will be greeted by a chorus of 3000 school children singing "America." It is probable that Mayor Lachmund will extend the address of welcome and that the president will then deliver a speech which will close in time for everyone to be given an opportunity to take part in the reception. The president will arrive at 3:30 o'clock in the morning and leave shortly after 10 o'clock the same morning.

Mrs. Horatio Morrison was elected to the position of second vice-president, and Miss Blanche Day was chosen fourth vice-president.

No Effect Here.

The walk-out of several thousand striking shopmen employed on the Harriman system of railroads which has lately engaged the attention of the public in Portland and other places, is unknown in Dallas save through the columns of the press, as the men employed here by the Southern Pacific are so far not affected by the order.

DEATH OF ADMIRAL SCHLEY

Second Cousin of H. P. Shriver of Dallas.

The Oregonian this morning announced the death of Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, the noted naval hero, which occurred in New York Monday, while he was walking along the street.

Local interest is added to the important event by the fact that H. P. Shriver, a well-known resident of this city, is a second cousin of the dead celebrity, and bears a striking resemblance to him. Admiral Schley's mother was a Shriver and sister of the grandfather of the Dallas resident of that name.
