They Will Move.

H. L. Hall and family are to leave Buena Vista. A 30 acre tract of land one mile west of Corvallis, with good improvements, is the prospective home. The removal will occur in October.

Mr. Hall purchased the property a short time ago, and intends to engage in dairying, hog raising and gardening giving special attention to the cultivation of small fruits and strawberries.

The idea of diversified farming is steadily gaining in popularity, and we prophesy that the day is not far distant when the beautiful Willamette valley will be in very truth the "garden spot" of the United States, and that farms devoted to wheat growing will be decidedly out of date.

Special.

We do not mean by this assertion that we are guilty of the accusations made by the Buena Vista correspondent in last week's ENTERPRISE, far from it Neither do we know of any other one of the ENTERPRISE correspondents upon whom we would lay the blame. We are a united bond of co-workers laboring for the same cause, viz: for the promotion of our county's interest, for the advancement and prosperity of our county paper and for the elevation and enlightenment of our respective homes. Let us then consider ourselves as colleagues rather than rivals or competitors in the prosecution of our fraternal undertakings.

Our individual success, as well as the success of our paper, depends upon our united efforts Then let us look for the beautiful traits of character existing in our allies, rather than imagine their deficiencies and hold them up for public criticism.

We do not claim to have secured our points by our own unaided efforts; far from it; for we owe all of the subscriptions and nearly all of the items we have secured to the kindness of our friends and we are glad to accord to them the honor that is their due. Neither did it ever occur to us that we might be censured for participating in a mutual cause.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Heppner.

Heppner—desolate, ghastly, grim
Silence about and death within;
Storm and flood their work have wrought;
Helpless ones in the torrents fought;
Souls to the other side went o'er
Unprepared, to the other shore.
Mothers and fathers, children, all
Answered the Storm King's awful call.

Heppner—today thy name is known
O'er all the world as a silent tone
And the heart of the nation beats for thee
In loving pity and sympathy.
And the peoples' purse is open and free
To aid thee in thy misery.
Heppner—be brave, for thee today
The people work and give and pray.
