Lockbo Hissins In.—After spending a short visit with his family at the beach. W. T. Burney returned home a day or two ago to attend to some pressing business. He went out to his home at Fulton Park to spend the night, and on going up stairs to go to bed he locked the door behind him, as a precaution ngainst burgists or other unwelcome visitors. Unfortunately in selecting a key he got hold of a wrong one, with which, however, by the use of a little energy, he managed to turn the bolt in the lock. Shertly after retiring the telephone down stairs began to ring, and after listening to it for a while he decided to go down and see what was wanted. This proved to be a rather difficult task, as he found it impossible to unlock the door with the key he had left in it. He struggled with the lock for some time and as the bell kept ringing he rushed up stairs, and rummaging in the drawers of a zewing machine found a small screw driver. With this he returned the drawers of a rewing machine tound a small screw driver. With this he returned to attack the lock, and, after working energetically for some time, spurred on by the telephone which continued to ring at intervals he succeeded in overmastering th intractable lock and getting the door one. By this time the person designs of th intractable lock and getting the door open. By this time the person desirous of commhutenting with him had become wea-ried and had hung up his phone and could not be found; had probably gone to bed and locked himself in. Mr. Burnsy re-turned to his bed. But he didn't lock

Sign Successfully Hung.-The huge sign for the successors of H. C. Breed-en-Messrs. Tull & Gibbs-which fell and was broken to pieces a short time ago was yesterday replaced by another on a similar scale, which was put in place without accident, and so securely fatiened without accident, and so securely fastened that a hurricane cannot move it, the unfortunate "writer" and "hanger" of it says. At the time the first sign fell, it was mentioned that there had been no rope slings attaching the sign to the four tackles by which it had been hoisted up, and the reply was that owing to the manner in which the sign was to be fastened to the building, such rope slings could not be used. They were used yesterday, and the sign, which is 35 feet long and 3 feet wide hung in them till it was attached to the building by plies of copper wire, run through eyelets in the wall and on the top of the sign, every four feet, which will probably keep it in place as long as through the sign, every four feet, which will probably keep it in place as long as desired, aided by several iron supports under the sign. The first sign was so hadly broken up that no part of it, with possibly the exception of a few of the gift letters could be used in making the

A. &. C. R. R. SMARIDE SERVICE to be continued until September 14, to meet femands of the public.—To meet the demands of the public the A. & C. R. TALENTED YOUNG VIOLINIST GOES ABROAD

F. G. EICHENLAUB.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 25 .- (Special.) -- F. G. Eichenlaub, the popular young violinist of this city, leaves today for New York City, and will sail for Germany on September 2, to complete his studies. Mr. Etchenlaub has studied violin with Mr. R. L. Hidden for the past five years, and, although he is only 17 years old, he handles the instrument with great skill, having received many flaftering testimonials from leading professors on this instrument. Mr. Eichenlaub will remain abroad about four years. He is the son of Mr. Frank Eichenlaub, a leading business man of this city. He has shown that he possesses remarkable aptitude, having an excellent technique and splendid tone. His former instructors are sure of his success.

GERMAN BAND MAKEZ MONEY SLOWLY.—
The life jed by the two men and two boys who form "dot leetic Cherman band," which has of late been dispensing melody in South Portland, is of a kind that does not appear attractive to Americans generally. They take in a section of the cityblock by block, getting out early and playing their most melodious notes till late.
They vary their reperiotre, occasionally, and when it is concluded all start out and and when it is concluded, all start out and call at every house in the block. At some places they are met at the door and a nickel or a dime handed out cheerfully, while at other places neither the doorhell nor sharp rapping with the knuckles attracts any attention. The members of the band have probably been some time in the husiness, which is a common one in their native land and doubtless consider it an honorable one, and the colus they bring them to this country, so that when they receive here a nickel or a dime, they probably imagine that they are on the high road to making a fortune. Before long they will doubtless find some other and more profitable employment."

EXEMPT FROM CIVIL SERVICE EXAM-INATIONS.—William Braden, who was at one time superintendent of streets for Portland, and who has been in the employ of Ashland, is in the city on a brief visit for and is being shown alout by his friend of the city in connection with the street S. COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Kendall Sale Today. This morning at 10 o'clock the advance sale of seats will open for Ezra Kendall, one of America's foremost comedians, who comes to the Marquam Grand Theater next Priday and Saturday nights. August 28 and 29, with a special matince Saturday at 2:15 o'clock, presenting his latest success, "The Vinegar Buyer," Crowds Greet Pollards.

The Pollard Liliputian Opera Company again played to a crowded house last evening at the Marquam Grand Theater, where these clever tops are playing the famous musical comedy success. 'The Belle of New York.' The engagement closes with tomorrow (Thursday) night's performance. A popular ladies' and children's matines will be given tomorrow at 2:15 o'clock.

Matinee Today at the Empire A woman who can talk to a crowd and make them laugh, and then sing songs of her own composition in a way that is even better, is something new in Portland. Louis Dacre, the woman monologist at the Empire Theater this week, has talent to give the star monologists of the country the dust. She can make anybody laugh and she is being kept busy this week. There are seven others on the bill that would be the top-liners in many vaudeville shows. Matinecs this after-

Shields' Bill Next Week,

Following the success of the bill at the park this week, Manager Edward Shields is preparing another strong bill for his thousands of patrons for the ensuing week. The bill will contain some of the most novel and amusing acts seen in Portland in a twelve-month. There will be new material in plenty and no end of fun. Some unique moving pictures are also promised to close the show.

STEADY STREAM OF VETS.

Encampant Delegates Are Welcomed to Portland.

The stream of returning delegates to the National encampment of the Grand Army grew stronger yesterday, and the old men with the buttons of the order in the lapels of their coats and wearing the badges of their states became more no-ticeable about the hotels and streets. So far 13 members of the order have regis-tered at headquarters in the Board of Trade rooms, and the committee in charge there busies itself in bringing them into nication with old friends here and showing them the sights of the city. The committee yesterday perfected arrange-ments to meet the members on the arrival of all trains and steamers, and when there are enough here to justify it will hold a reception and public entertainment of the two orders arriving in the city to visit them at their new hall in the City Hall, second floor, to which they have just moved since Grand Army Hall has been cut up into lodging rooms. Hereaf-ter George Wright Woman's Relief Corps will meet on Friday afternoon and George Wright Post on Friday evening instead of both meeting in the evening, as here-

It is always hot, always ready, clean and bright. No matter where you want to use it, whether in kitchen, sewing room or laundry, it is but a small matter to connect it to the electric light circuit. It is quickly heated and remains heated as long as the current is on. Especially in the sewing room, where a hot iron is often needed, will this be appreclated from the fact that it requires no fire and no running to and from the kitchen.
