NEW YORK LIFE IS FOR BRYAN.

While Judge and Puck are for the candidate with the sack and the offices, that high-class American Journal of satire, New York Illustrated Weekly Life, the ablest and cleanest humorist paper in the world, declares for the candidate of the new democracy. It says:

"The election of Mr Bryan would not mean free silver. Congress is for gold and will so remain. McKinley's re-election would promise a prolonged and bloody orgie of imperialism—that is of conquest, debt and dishonor. As to the two candidates personally, we prefer Mr Bryan. He has convictions—such as they are—and he carries a spine."

There is no higher class publication than New York Life, more able or more independent.

THE WORST CRIMINAL.

The man who sets fire to his own property, to recover a paltry insurance, after nightfall, or the man who fires his neighbor's property out of revenge is the worst criminal known to a state. And he is the hardest convicted, as he only touches off the match when he is covered by darkness. A man who will attempt such a crime should be punished to the full measure of the law. Eugene last night had such a fire. Every good citizen should use his best endeavor to detect the guilty person.

A Myrtle Creek correspondent of the Roseburg Review says a good deal in a small space as follows: It is gratifying to read of those Boer victories in South Africa. One cannot help but admire the brave, sturdy men, who have so successfully hurled off the minions of tyrannical England. The sun of liberty has burst though darker clouds than those which hover over the Boer republics. Yorktown came after Valley Forge. It has cost England $300,000,000 and 30,000 soldiers to take those gold mines, and they haven't a very safe title yet. Verily, modern civilization is freakish when a power like England will allow 60,000,000 of its subjects in India to starve, suffer, and die for want of bread, while it strives desperately to take under its protecting wing 300,000 dutchmen, who have bread and muscle to spare and a fighting capacity unsurpassed in any age or clime.

The GUARD at all times has used its best endeavors to upbuild Eugene and Lane county. We are of the opinion that the city will make a great mistake if she does not at once see that the county road to the Blue River mines is placed in first-class condition without delay. We ought to have secured the Bohemia mines trade, and could, if we had gone down into our pockets at the proper time and built a road in to them. Are we going to sit idle and let a portion of the trade to the Blue River mines diverted to a village with but a fraction of the wealth of Eugene. Gentlemen act in this matter intelligently and quickly. Eugene is in a position to become the metropolis of Central Oregon.

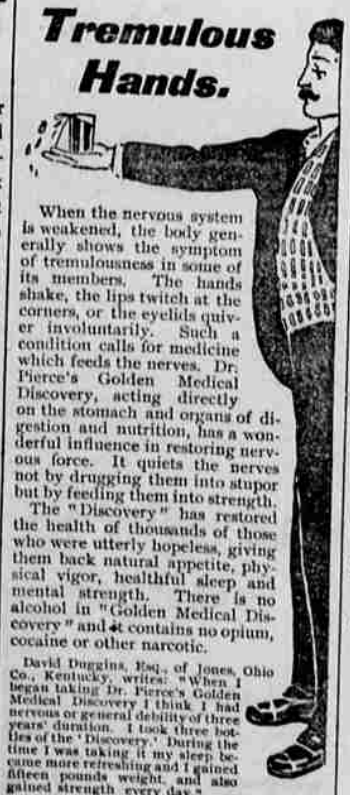
N Y World editorial: Mr Bryan gave out yesterday a very sensible and therefore truly American interview on the situation in China. Mr Bryan maintains that "a firm adherence to the American policy of justice and fair dealing will not only set an example to other nations, but will give to our citizens residing in China the best promise of security." And he declares: "It will be better for our merchants to have it known that they seek trade only when trade is mutually advantageous. It will be better for our missionaries to have it known that they are preaching the gospel of love and are not the forerunners of fleets and armies." There can be no doubt of the soundness of both these propositions.

N Y World: If Mr McKinley would withdraw from the Philippines, send his army instantly to rescue the foreigners and then bring all our own people home, to war in the Orient no more, is there a single American citizen who in the bottom of his heart would not approve and rejoice?

Subscribe liberally to the Blue River road fund if you want Eugene to make a city.

A good road to Blue River mines means great things for Eugene.

Tremulous Hands.



When the nervous system is weakened, the body generally shows the symptom of tremulousness in some of its members. The hands shake, the lips twitch at the corners, or the eyelids quiver involuntarily. Such a condition calls for medicine which feeds the nerves. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acting directly on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, has a wonderful influence in restoring nervous force. It quiets the nerves not by drugging them into stupor but by feeding them into strength.

The "Discovery" has restored the health of thousands of those who were utterly hopeless, giving them back natural appetite, physical vigor, healthful sleep and mental strength. There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

David Duggins, Esq., of Jones, Ohio Co., Kentucky, writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I had nervous or general debility of three years' duration. I took three bottles of the 'Discovery.' During the time I was taking it my sleep became more refreshing and I gained fifteen pounds weight, and also gained strength every day."

Free, on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only, Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, 1008 pages. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps in cloth binding to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

I consider it not only a pelasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in reccomending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W Va. This remedy is sold by W L DeLano.

Last fall I sprained my left hip while handling some heavy boxes. The doctor I called on said at first it was a slight strain and would soon be well, but it grew worse and the doctor said I had rheumatism. It continued to grow worse and I could hardly get around to work. I went to a drug store and the druggist recommended me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm I tried it and one-half of a 50-cent bottle cured me entirely. I now recommend it to all my friends. F. A. Babcock, Erie, Pa. It is for sale by W. L. DeLano.
