THURSDAY - - MAY 8

A "CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY."

Portland Journal.

Why not call Mr Furnish a "Captain of industry?" Has he not shown his ability to Morganize every office he ever held? Did he not, by his "business methods," make $25,000 per annum as a Democratic Sheriff of Umatilla County? How did he "farm" the office of Deputy United States Marshal under Cleveland, in his "whisky to Indians" campaign?

The Republican party got sadly buncoed with Mr Furnish. The convention would not repeat the mistake if it had the opportunity to again sit in judgment on this "business method" prodigy. They know some things now that they did not know when the nomination was made.

The big meat trust, consisting of the Armour, Cudahy, Morris, Swift and Nelson packing firms, fix the price they pay for livestock, also the prices to consumers. The insignificant thief finds the penitentiary door swinging lightly on its hinges. The meat trust thieves add other millions to their possessions by wholesale robbery and unwhipped of justice. And the moral responsibility does not with the unjust control of the market. The already hard thousands of poor toilers are far harder by the few who extorted from each one. The aristocracy expiated the crime against the public and escape This the industrial armies country will see scathless for the society.

Tong's

They stopped the other day. girl at Ne bad over the Mr Tong ht hundred dol- affair as na not long since, lars for ut three thousand besides our daddies in fix- of the dog, rat and pig and ing ple supplies of that la y that is strong enough gate off its hinges, not of bird's nests, dried and other Chinese delicacies for the celebration of the nuptials. No doubt Tong thinks it all wrong.

That road machine that threw the mud in a ridge to the center line of Willamette street yesterday is a great invention. Two men and four horses do more work with it throwing up roads in a day than the same number could do in two weeks by the old scraper method. And when finished the road is smooth and even instead of rough and in potholes as by the scraper method.

"The Republican party will put the trusts out of business," says an exchange just before election. That is a joke. The trusts have all been built up through the Republican party. Republican laws have made the trusts. The managers are seeing that something has to be done to prevent a landslide against them in the coming congressional elections, hence they affect to threaten their friends.

History repeats itself. The "back-salary" grab of the United States congress that sent so many members permanently home, has a counterpart in the German Reichstag. The Berlin measure authorizes the payment of twenty-four hundred marks (nearly $600) to each member of the tariff committee. The opposition dubbed it the "pocket money bill."

Salem Journal: It will break in on the ignorance of the Republican managers of Lane county after awhile that Sam Friendly is a far more competent man to send to the senate than such travesties as Dr Kuykendall and dear old Dr Driver. After awhile—after Sam is dead.

A Roseburg paper refers to another editor as "a rum-besotted hireling, dissipated, blackguard editor of a blackmail sheet," etc. This is what is sometimes called "mud-slinging," and hurts the slinger more than the slingee.—Albany Democrat.
