BASEBALL TOMORROW.

Game Between Albany and Hampton Bros.

The game of baseball at Bangs' Park tomorrow afternoon between Hampton Bros' team and the Albany team promises to be an interesting one.

The Albany team is composed of players picked up through the surrounding country and, while they have not had much practice together, will put up a good game as all are first-class players.

Hampton Bros' team will be greatly strengthened by the addition of McFarland as catcher and Henry, pitcher, who will alternate with Gaby and Hayes respectively.

Following is the way the Hampton team will line up: Gaby and McFarland, catchers; Hayes and Henry, pitchers; Whiteaker, shortstop; Knox, first base; Starr, second base; Bransteter, third base; Griffin, left field; Taylor, center field; Henderson, right field.

Carryalls will be run to and from the park starting from the Hoffman House.

The admission to the game will be: Gentlemen, 25 cents, ladies 10 cents.

The Fourth Regiment band will play at the game.

SOCIALISTS, CHEER UP!

The Ranks Increased By Two Last Night.

We have our friend, the enemy, on the run! We didn't quite beat them at the polls this month, but I'd like to see them beat my record last night. My wife increased the number of Socialists by two!

In twenty-one years from now let them look out! One will be a voter and the other will make her husband be a Socialist voter. Mrs Cole is doing well, and your candidate for county clerk feels twice as well as if he had been elected.

SCHOOL ELECTION VOTERS.

Any Resident Woman Over 21 With Assessed Property in District Can Vote.

Many women who would like to vote at the school election Monday are in doubt as to what the requisite qualifications are. To be a legal voter a woman, or a man either, must (1) be over 21 years of age; (2) must have resided in the school district for 30 days immediately preceding the election; (3) must have property in the district, as shown by the last county assessment, on which she is liable or subject to pay tax.

In short a woman can vote married or unmarried, if she is a citizen and a taxpayer. No particular sum of tax is required, nor is it necessary that the tax shall be on real estate.

"He is a wise man who retains his wife's affections,
"YE BUSY MEN."

Do not forget that anniversary present. The affection of your wife are at stake. You might as well forget your marriage as to forget this remembrance. Get her a pretty piece of silver, nothing would be more suitable, you'll be happy if you do. Give us an idea and we will do the rest. "Anniversary gifts are the investment of your life."
