MONDAY, JULY 10.

The Portland Journal says:

Now our esteemed contemporaries, the Roseburg Plaindealer, Eugene Register, et al, can turn their batteries on the jurors in the Mitchell case, as well as on Hitchcock and Heney.

Why did the Journal omit to mention the president, judge, witnesses and the press in the list of those bombarded?

The discoverer of dunnite, an explosive that will kink the side of the most powerful battleship though exploding 20 feet away from the object of attack, may take rank with the world's greatest philanthropists. Make warfare terribly destructive of life and men will refuse to offer themselves in sacrifice.

William Sness, of Portland, suing his wife for divorce, thinks himself a badly used man. A goodly portion of the forty dollars a month or thereabouts allowed her for spending money went to buy champagne, which she shared with a favorite male companion, Max Bailey by name. Of course it didn't stop with the champagne.

A Chicago judge has passed the eleven hundred mark in divorces he has granted. If marriages are made in heaven, imagine the sentence that will fall to his lot in the day of final reckoning. Having of course heard so many details of marital woe, more or less unfit for publication, probably he has no worriment for his part in having severed the last tie that bound incompatible lives.

The antipathy between owners of sheep and those of cattle using public range was taken cognizance of by the defense in the case of Congressman Williamson, now on trial at Portland on the charge of subornation of perjury in inducing men to swear falsely in taking homesteads that they were for their own use and benefit, when in fact they were under agreement to pass the title when secured to the Eastern Oregon congressman and his partner, Van Gesner. The second venireman examined, though a stranger to all the parties and from another section of Eastern Oregon, was peremptorily challenged by the defense, the only apparent reason being that he was engaged in the business of raising cattle and horses. Sheep run cattle and horses off the range, or rather the big stock cannot be made stay on the public pasture ranged over by sheep. The latter crop the grass closer than cattle or horses, besides leaving an objectionable woolly odor. The defendants are sheep men.

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family."

SKIN DISEASES SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

Skin Diseases speak for the blood and tell of its impurities. They are the outward evidence of a vicious condition of that vital fluid, and of its efforts to free the system of the poisons and waste matters that have accumulated. Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Boils and Pimples are all caused by a weakened and polluted blood circulating in the veins. They may have lain dormant in the system during the cold weather of Spring and Summer, when the blood is reacting and making extra efforts to expel all morbid and poisonous matter, they make their appearance. External remedies cannot cure; they soothe and give temporary relief, but often clog the pores and glands, and the poison causing the trouble is thus shut up in the system to break out afresh later on. S. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cures these diseases by going down into the circulation, driving out the poisonous matters, strengthening the blood, making it soft and smooth, and building up the system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. is a specific for Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Boils, Tetter, Acne and all skin diseases which have their origin in the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice without charge.

In 1896 I experienced a dry, scaly eruption on the side of my hands that gave me much discomfort. I was soon afterwards attacked with a type of Eczema. I consulted several physicians, and used several so-called remedies, receiving but slight temporary relief. I finally decided to try S. S. S., and soon I found myself cured.
