Thirifty Politics

New York Journal

"Is it wholly impossible for the insurance companies to keep out of politics?

"Colossal contributions to the Republican national campaign fund, liberal contributions to "Boss" Platt for his machinations in the state, occasional contributions to the Democratic congressional committee have all been confessed—and all were illegal.

"One company paid a political agent, which means lobbyist, more than $100,000 a year for his services. How much more "Handy Andy" Hamilton got from other companies is yet to be discovered.

"This is merely a partial list of politicians of national repute already entangled in the insurance web:

"Grover Cleveland,
"Paul Morton,
"David B. Hill,
"Thomas F. Ryan,
"B. B. Odell, Jr.,
"Chauncey M. Depew,
"Thomas C. Platt,
"Cornelius N. Bliss.

"When the acquisitive Ryan wanted to remodel the Equitable to suit his own ends he secured an ex-president and an ex-secretary of the navy to do his bidding.

"Now comes the 'reorganization' of the Mutual. President McCurdy retires. His place is filled temporarily, but rumor has it that James H. Eckels, of Chicago, Cleveland's last comptroller of the currency, is to be offered it.

"Mr. Eckels was part and parcel of the last Cleveland administration, the most un-American, the most un-Democratic administration Washington has known. Like most of his associates, he went in poor, even obscure, and came out rich and the friend and intimate of all the frenzied financiers, and is today the chief representative of "the system" in Chicago. And he was in politics all the time.

"With Paul Morton and Ryan running the Equitable, and Eckels at the head of the Mutual, we would better call Murphy back from Mount Clemens for the New York Life, and make the combination of insurance and politics symmetrical complete and disgusting."

Walterville Items

Walterville, Dec. 7.—Mr. Devor made a business trip to Eugene Monday.

Miss Stella Gray, of Thurston, is visiting Miss Laura Potter this week.

Mr Wilkins, of Leaburg, has built a residence on the Post place and expects to move his sawmill in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Potter are spending the week in Cottage Grove.

V. L. Dunton, who has spent the last two weeks in Eugene, returned home Monday.

The Thanksgiving dance given at this place was well attended and a good time is reported.

David Fountain has gone to Southern Oregon, where he expects to do some prospecting and will no doubt pick up a fortune.

L. of G. A. R. Attention

In view of the fact that the G. A. R. post election is on Saturday, the 9th, the basket social of the L. G. A. R. will be postponed until Saturday, the 16th. Watch the papers next week. COMMITTEE.

CATARRH THE PLAGUE OF WINTER

Every Catarrh sufferer dreads the return of cold weather, for at the first cold breath of the season this plague of Winter is fanned into life with all its miserable symptoms. The nostrils are stopped up, and a constant dropping of mucus back into the throat keeps up a continual hawking and spitting, the patient has dull headaches, ringing noises in the ears and a half sick, depressed feeling all the time. Every inner lining and tissue of the body becomes inflamed, and secretes an unhealthy matter which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and the disease becomes constitutional. The catarrhal poison brings on stomach troubles, affects the Kidneys and Bladder, attacks the soft bones of the throat and head and if not checked leads to Consumption. A disease so deep-seated and dangerous cannot be washed out, neither can it be smoked away. Sprays, washes, inhalations, etc., are useless, because they only reach the membranes and tissues, while the real cause of the disease is in the blood. S. S. S. cures Catarrh because it attacks it through the blood; it goes into the circulation and drives out all unhealthy accumulations and catarrhal matter, and when this is done every part of the system receives a supply of rich, pure blood. Then the inflamed membranes and tissues heal, all discharge ceases, the depressed feeling of the body is relieved, and every symptom passes away. S. S. S. goes to the very root of the trouble, and by purifying and enriching the blood and building up the entire system, cures Catarrh permanently. If you have Catarrh do not waste time with local remedies, but begin S. S. S. and write for our book and any medical advice without charge.
