TWO CHICKEN THIEVES FINED

Wallace Keller, the young man arrested last evening by Chief of Police Stiles and Deputy Sheriff Bown for stealing four valuable chickens from H. L. Traver, pleaded guilty before Judge Witternmeier and was fined $20 the amount being paid by his father.

Young Keller stated that Dan McDowell, a cook in Vincent's restaurant, helped him steal the chickens. McDowell was arrested. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was held this afternoon. He was found guilty and was fined $30. Not having the money he will spend 15 days in the county jail.

Several residents of Fairmount, where Keller lives, have recently missed a number of chickens and since his arrest they naturally suspect him. In two instances the chickens were killed at the coop and the heads left there.

DANGEROUS BRIDGE

The attention of the city authorities is called to the bridge across the slough at the intersection of Seventeenth and Willamette streets. There is no railing on the bridge with which to prevent pedestrians from falling off the bridge into the slough at night when there is no moon. There is no electric light within four or five blocks of there.

Last night B. N. Hounle, organizer for the Fraternal Brotherhood, while crossing the bridge to go out West Seventeenth street, stepped off and slid into the water, ruining a suit of clothes.

This matter should be attended to before the city has a damage suit on its hands.

We Fill Any Prescription.

You have the same right to choose your druggist that you do your physician. Each should be chosen with care. Many people have the impression that prescriptions must be filled by the druggist upon whose blank they appear. But the blank has nothing whatever to do with it. The physician is apt to pick up whatever one comes handiest, and he has no choice in the matter except that the prescription be filled where the work will be properly done. We make a specialty of high grade prescription work and are equipped to give service of ideal character. No matter what physician you employ he will be glad to have his prescription filled here.
