THE GRANT'S PASS COLLISION

Yesterday's Portland Telegram printed several pictures of the recent railroad wreck at Grant's Pass and one of Fireman John P. Barger, who was killed. The pictures show that the locomotives were literally torn to pieces. A short time before the fatal collision Barger asked for a transfer to a branch line, saying he was afraid of the main line. No doubt he had a premonition of the wreck that was to come.

Died

Otis Morgan, a well-known blacksmith, died at his home in the Sanford block at East Seventh and Oak streets, last night at 8 o'clock from typhoid-pneumonia. He was aged 27 years and 9 months and leaves a wife, father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan, of Brownsville, four brothers and one sister.

The deceased was born in Linn county and has lived in Oregon since. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World.

No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

Card of Thanks

The mother, wife, brothers and sisters of the late John P. Barger take this means of expressing their appreciation of the many kindnesses of their friends in their bereavement. The railroad boys at Roseburg are especially thanked for their assistance.

Born

FROM FAR AWAY INDIA

Frank Rodgers Back From a Two Years' Stay There

Was Representative of Laundry Machinery Company—Tells of That Strange Country

Frank A. Rodgers, who spent two years in India as a representative of laundry machinery, is in Eugene. He says India is awakening from the lethargy of centuries, for which American goods and ideas are responsible in no small degree. They prefer American farm and other machinery to British on account of its far lighter and more durable construction. The American plow is being generally introduced in place of the native wooden article that has done duty from time immemorial.

He says caste is the curse of the country, and cites as an example piles of American corn sent for famine sufferers slowly rotting in Bombay while thousands died of terrible starvation simply because it had to be handled by other and lower castes. And he wastes no love on the missionaries, saying they have made practically no converts—their following as a rule being people whom they support. It is a vermin-cursed country, the hog and the python being the only living creatures that it is allowable to kill, they being held unclean.

Mr. Rodgers talks entertainingly of the country, and any one interested in that strange, far away land would do well to drop around to the Hodes laundry, where he may be found for a few days.

INQUEST OVER KEISUR'S BODY

A coroner's inquest over the body of T. C. Keisur, who was accidentally killed by Walter Foley on an O. & S. E. train Tuesday evening, began at 3 o'clock this afternoon before the justice of the peace at Cottage Grove.

Married

Miss Marie Taplin and J. C. Lee were married at noon today at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Taplin, Rev. Father Moore officiating. The happy couple took the afternoon train for Portland and other points for a brief honey moon.—Yesterday's Salem Journal.

Eighth Grade Examinations

The final eighth grade examination for the public schools will be held on February 1 and 2, May 17 and 18, June 14 and 15, 1906.

Teachers who have pupils ready for the examination should notify the chairman of the school board, whose duty it is to conduct the examination in person or appoint some one other than the teacher, and notify me of the number of questions and who is to conduct said examination so the examiner may receive the questions in time.

OLD PIONEER HERE ON A VISIT

Perry Hyde, an old pioneer and capitalist of Harrisburg, Linn county, is in the city for a few days, transacting a little business and greeting old friends. Mr. Hyde is one of those sturdy, typical Western men who crossed the plains in the early '50s from Missouri and settled in this part of the country, and by their labor made this country what it is today.

When Mr. Hyde arrived in the Willamette valley in 1852 he camped with Eugene Skinner, the founder of this city, on the hillside of what is now Skinner's butte. After a short time spent in the little village of Eugene the sturdy pioneer moved to Harrisburg, where he has since resided. He is 82.

Piano Recital

The students of Mrs. Rose Hollenbeck gave an excellent piano recital at her studio Wednesday evening, January 31, to about 35 invited friends. Each number on the program was given in a scholarly manner. Miss Irene Potts' artistic playing was a feature of the evening, also the vocal numbers by Miss Louise Yoran. After the program a musical contest was indulged in, Miss Lila Prosser winning first honors, Miss Yoran, Mrs. Prosser and Mrs. Yoran also winning prizes. Light refreshments were served.

Following is the program in full:

Wedding March, Mendelssohn, Angie Owen.

Valse Coquette, Schott, Miss Lucile Dunn.

Doll's Dream, Oesten, Nellie Lombard.

Sonata Pathetique, Beethoven, Mrs. Chapman.

Shepherd's Song, Heinn, Miss Goodman.

Mazourka, Spindler, Miss May Sage.

a. Impromptu, Schubert; b. Trill Study, Wolff; c. Octave Study, Kullak; Miss Irene Potts.

Among the Roses, Sartario, Miss Edwina Prosser.

Little Waltz, Rosewig, Dollie Shipley.

Evening Song, Schuete, Miss Ruth Grant.

Norwegian Wedding Procession, Greig, Miss Grace Stevens.

Christmas March, Kohler, Miss Marie Grant.

Polonaise, Mayer, Miss Edna Hoeflin.

Rhapsodie No. 8, List, Miss Irene Potts.

Lorane Items

Lorane, Feb. 1.—The library has reached us at last. It will doubtless prove of great benefit to our neighborhood.

The school gives an entertainment next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Inman have decided to live in Eugene, and the kind wishes of many old friends follow them to their new home. They took an active part in all good works and will be greatly missed in our community.

Our Modern Woodmen will henceforth be aided by their auxiliary, the Royal Neighbors, organized here last week.

Work on the new wagon road to Cottage Grove is progressing nicely this fine weather.

of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. S. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At W. L. DeLano's drug store. ## Typhoid Fever Precautions

At a regular meeting of the Lane County Medical Society, held Saturday evening, January 27th, a full discussion of the typhoid fever situation was had. In view of the unusual prevalence of the disease in the city and surrounding country, it was deemed best by the society to formulate the precautions that ought to be taken, both by the city authorities and by individual citizens, to prevent the further spread of the disease.

It should be remembered that typhoid fever is a strictly preventable disease. The germ is practically always carried into the system by way of the mouth, and usually by means of food and drinks.

Precautions to be observed by the citizen:

1. All water, whatever its source, used for drinking and culinary purposes, should be boiled for ten minutes. This should include that for washing dishes and brushing teeth.

2. All vegetables usually eaten raw should be selected and cleaned with extreme care, or better still, omitted entirely from the dietary for a time.

3. Milk should be pasteurized or boiled unless from a private cow kept where typhoid is known not to prevail, and received in vessels washed in boiled water. Milk may be pasteurized by immersing bottles containing it in a kettle of boiling water just removed from the fire, leaving them for half hour, when they should be removed to cool. The typhoid germ is not in the milk as it comes from the cow, but it may be carried into it by the milker's hands, dirt from the surface of the cow, the water used for washing pails or bottles, or the strainers.

4. All fruits eaten raw should be carefully cleaned and peeled before eating.

5. Hot water boilers should be frequently emptied from the waste faucet. Organic matter settles to the bottom, where the heat is about right to develop the germs and never great enough to destroy them.

6. Remove every possible breeding place of germs around the home. Filth and rubbish of every kind should be cleared up and burned, or otherwise disposed of. Copper sulphate is cheap. Weak solutions of it will kill typhoid germs. Places where waste water or slops stand should be freely flushed with copper solution 1 to 100,00. If a cesspool is being used, large quantities of a strong copper solution should be poured into it through the sink or closet hopper. Caution: Those using "Septic tanks" should not allow antiseptic fluids of any kind to flow into them.

Unused cesspools and closet vaults should be flooded with copper solution, or covered heavily with ashes and then filled up with earth. Open closet vaults should be treated with copper solution and then ashes, or fine dry earth sprinkled on daily.

7. The house fly is a carrier of fever germs. He may be a visitor from your neighbor's cesspool, where typhoid discharges have been emptied and he does not wash his feet before walking over the food on your table. Screen him out or kill him.

Precautions to be taken by the city:

1. The county health officer should be designated as city health officer for the time being, and be given authority and financial backing to put the city in sanitary condition.

2. The law requiring sewer connections to be made should be rigidly enforced, and without further delay. Unsanitary plumbing in buildings used by the public should be condemned.

3. The rear of business houses where bad odors and unsanitary conditions prevail should be inspected and required to be kept in good order.

4. Every public place where food is served should be rigidly inspected and required to be kept in a sanitary condition or be closed.

5. The water system should be rigidly inspected in every detail. Unusual care should be demanded until all danger of an epidemic is past. The reservoir should be scoured more frequently than usual. All dead ends in the mains and sags should be frequently flushed out. A filtering plant should be put in at the earliest possible moment.

6. The millrace in the city limits is in an extremely unsanitary condition and is a menace to public health.

No sewer should be allowed to enter it and adjoining property owners should not be allowed to make it a dumping place for garbage and rubbish.

W. KUYKENDALL,
IRA B. HARTLE,
W. L. CHESHIRE.

We Fill Any Prescription.

You have the same right to ch your druggist that you do your physician. Each should be chosen with care. Many people have the impression that prescriptions must be filled by the druggist upon whose blank they appear. But the blank has nothing whatever to do with it. The physician is apt to pick up whatever one comes handiest, and he has no choice in the matter except that the prescription be filled where the work will be properly done. We make a specialty of high grade prescription work and are equipped to give service of ideal character. No matter what physician you employ he will be glad to have his prescriptions filled here.
