HENRY ANKENY VERY LOW IN PORTLAND

Experienced Severe Sinking Spell At Portland This Morning and His Folks Thought For Awhile He Was Dead---Physicians Succeed in Reviving Him

A telegram was received from Portland by S. H. Friendly this morning about ten o'clock stating that Henry E. Ankeny had died at nine o'clock. A later message stated that it was a mistake about his death but that he was very low, having suffered a severe attack of heart trouble. The report that he had died gained general circulation on the streets, and every hand were heard expressions of sorrow and regret.

Mr. Ankeny has been sick for a long time, suffering from Bright's disease and heart trouble. He was taken to Newport about two months ago and removed to Portland a few days ago, receiving treatment in th North Pacific Sanitorium.

The following dispatch was received at this office this afternoon.

Portland, Ore., Aug 31.—Henry E. Ankeny experienced severe sinking spell this morning. Members of family at his bedside thought he had passed away. Physicians arrived later and Mr. Ankeny revived. Is at present very low, but not suffering.

A. J. GILLETTE APPOINTED EUGENE STATION AGENT

Received His Orders From Headquarters This Morning—Had Endorsement of Commercial Club and Appointment Meets With Universal Approval

A. J. Gillette, who has been acting depot agent for the Southern Pacific Co in Eugene since the retirement of L. G. Adair on July first, this morning received his appointment as permanent agent, to take effect immediately.

Mr. Gillette had the endorsement of the Eugene Commercial Club, and the citizens in general for the position, and in his appointment the company recognizes worth and capability. Mr. Gillette has been passenger agent here for several years, and by his courteous treatment of the public and affable manners has won friends galore, who are pleased to learn that he is to remain at the Eugene depot. J. B. Taylor, of Junction, succeeds him in the passenger department, and Wm. Brown, who has been assisting him here for a few weeks, takes Mr. Taylor's place at Junction.
