Russia Adds to Conditions of Evacuation.

KEEPS SOME MILITARY POSTS

Last of the Provinces to Be Abandoned in a Year-Russian Goods Exempt From Surtax-Prince Ching Is Satisfied.

PEKIN, Saturday, Sept. 11.—(Delayed in transmission.)-Russia has presented to the Chinese Government a new scheme for evacuation, originally fixed for October 8, and proposed certain new conditions in addition to most of the conditions concluded in the last scheme.

Russia now proposes to evacuate Niu Chwang and Moukden Province October 8, Kirin Province four months later, and the third province a year later. Among the new conditions Russia stipulates that she shall maintain military posts on the road from Tsitsihar, capital of Hellungklang. to Blagovoskchensk and on the Sungari River. The reason Russia gives for maintaining these posts is that they are necessary to protect the commerce of the railroad.

There is a vaguely worded clause probibfting heavy duties on goods transported by the railway which the diplomats construe as exempting Russian goods transported on the railway from the surtax which the Japanese and American treaties substitute for the likin duties.

The scheme also contains a provision that Chinese troops shall protect the branches of the Russo-Chinese Bank when mecessary?

Prince Ching, president of the foreign board, has informed the Ministers that he considers the Russian conditions to be very reasonable.

Leaves Opening for Other Powers. LONDON, Sept. 14.-Telegrams from Pekin and Toklo published in this morning's Times record the strong objections to the new Russian proposals regarding the evac-tration of Manchuria, which are regarded as having been made in order to justify Russia's continued occupation as an acceptance of them would create an armed camp in the middle of Manchuria along the Sungari River.

The Tokio correspondent says that should China make such concessions in the case of the Sungari, the other powers will be entitled to similar concessions on any China Picco. any Chinese River.

Added Scandal in Pennsylvania Penitentiary.

Thousands of Cigars Made by Inmates Are Said to Be Unaccounted For-Warden Is Relieved From 9 Duty Temporarily,

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13 .- Following closely upon the exposure of gross irregularities in the cigar department of the Eastern State Penltentlary came the announcement tonight that illegal coinage of minor silver pieces has been carried on by convicts in the big institution. No details of the counterfeiting scheme can be learned from any of the officials connected with the prison, or from the Government officers that have been assigned to the case. The fact that such a daring scheme has been carried out in the penitentiary was made public by George Vaux, Jr., one of the prison inspectors, who summoned newspaper men to his home and voluntarily made the disclosure. He gave out a brief statement, which is spectors on duty at the Eastern State Penitentiary, made the statement that it has come to their official knowledge that within a short time an attempt has been made by certain convicts now confined in the penitentiary to manufacture counterfeit silver coins. But a few pieces were made, and a number of these have come into the possession of the inspectors, to-gether with the metals and chemicals used, the attempt thus being nipped in the bud. The evidence in the case is not yet complete, but all that has been secured has been submitted to the United States authorities."

Mr. Vaux refused absolutely to give any more details than contained in his state-ment. From other sources, however, it was learned that dimes, quarters and half-dollars were the coins manufactured. The discovery was made several days ago, and United States secret service officials were immediately called in. Their in-vestigation, it is learned, is still in progress, their principal object being to learn whether there was collusion between the convicts and employes of the institution. It is believed the discovery of counter-feiters in the prison was the result of the investigation now being carried on as a result of carges of irregularity. These became public last week, and Warden Besduty and the penitentiary placed in charge of Rev. Joseph Welch, the chapiain. It is alleged that thousands of clgars made by the convicts are unaccounted for that thousands of them did not contain the internal revenue stamp and that in many instances the law requiring prison-made cigars to be stamped "convict-made," was ignored. How long this has been cafried on is yet to be learned.

The government of the penitentiary is vested in a board of five inspectors ap-pointed by the Governor, who serve without salary. This board is now making an inspection of each branch of the in-stitution and has employed an expert accountant to go over the books. In addi-tion to this the internal revenue officers are carrying on a separate investigation.

Dr. William D. Robinson, one of the inspectors, in speaking of the affair, said that the inspectors have not found any-thing that militates against the personal integrity and ability of the warden, but had found abundant evidence that the old nethods so long in vogue are faulty and antiquated. Warden Bessinger has been permitted to engage an accountant to protect his interests in the matter of his accounts. Later in the might further details of the counterfelting scheme leaked out. These were to the effect that five men were engaged in the work, the head of the counterfelters being a Philadelphian now completing his second term for this offense. The others were professional criminals who secured, through the plumbing department of the prison, the quiet, when the fellow pulled a pistol and necessary metal made of solder, tin and ground glass. The moulds, it is believed, clwa.

were made of plaster of paris, scraped from the walls of the cells, Some of the coins got into circulation, but in what manner has not yet been fully determined. There is a belief that certain employes who did favors for the prisoners such as mailing letters, in violation of the rules of the institution, were given the bogus money as tips, and that they in-nocently passed it into circulation.

Sheriff Denham started with his prisoner overland toward the New Mexico line.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Denham on the ground that he secured the honoring of requisition papers through a forged telegram to Governor Brodle, advising him that the territorial case against Hughes had been settled.

FORMALFUNCTION DISTASTEFUL

Friday Night's Dinner of the Sen wanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club Gives Rise to a Situation That Requires Explanations, OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 18 -- An unpleasant episode with a phase of interna tional interest, has been the outgrowth of a dinner to be given next Friday night. September 18, by the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club. Through a series of misapprehensions on the part, seemingly, of some members of the club, an apparent slight has been put on Sir Thomas Lipton and President Roosevelt has been placed in the attitude of being discourteous to the British yachtsman.

The Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club has a spacious and beautiful home on Center Island, in Oyster Bay. It is one of the most prominent clubs of the coun-try, being scarcely second in choice to the New York Yacht Club. President Roosevelt is an active member of the organiza-tion, as are many of the best-known yachtsmen of the East, and Sir Thomas Lipton holds an honorary membership in

The day President Roosevelt returned from his trip to Syracuse, Coigate Hoyt, of New York, chairman of the board of directors of the Seawanhaka Club called on him at Sagamore Hill. On behalf of the club he tendered the President an in-vitation to attend the annual dinner of the organization next Friday night and at the same time he extended to him an in-vitation to be a guest of the Ohio Society of New York at a dimner to be given by the society sometime during the approaching Winter.

With expressions of appreciation of the courtesy shown him by the invitations, the President informed Mr. Hoyt that he felt obliged to decline them. He had de-clined many other similar invitations, and felt therefore, that it would not be fair to all of his friends to accept those ten-dered by Mr. Hoyt. Mr. Hoyt was in-sistent, however, that he should attend the yacht club dinner, and the President, after being assured that it was to be purely a "neighborly affair," consented to be present for a short time.

He expressly stipulated that it was not to be a formal function to be attended by guests outside of the club, but that it was to be simply a dinner of the club members. Mr. Hoyt readily acquiesced in the President's suggestion. Subsequently Secretary Loeb, having learned that Sir Thomas Lipton and memlearned that Sir Thomas Lipton and members of his party now sojourning in the United States probably would be guests at the dinner, inquired of Mr. Hoyt if they were to be in attendance. He told Mr. Hoyt, that under the agreement made, that if there were to be other guests, the President would feel obliged to decline the invitation extended to him. He informed Mr. Hoyt that the President was obliged to insist that the dinner be what he had to insist that the dinner be what he had been assured it would be, purely "a neigh-borly affair."

Last Friday Secretary Loeb received a letter from Mr. Hoyt assuring him that the dinner would be conducted in accord-ance with the President's desire. Today at the clubhouse of the Seawan-haka Association on Center Island, Pres-ident Frank Scott, of New York, felt compelled to assume a part of the biame for the unpleasantness which has devel-oped. He said that at the New York Yacht Club a few nights ago he had asked Sir Thomas Lipton if he had an engage-ment for September 13. Being assured that he had not he requested Sir Thomas to hold that date open in order that he might attend the Seawanhaka dinner. He pointed out that a rule of the club per-mitted a member to invite a guest to at-tend the club dinners. His invitation to

Sir Thomas was extended as a member and not on behalf of the club.

Mr. Hoyt, who was at his residence, discussed the episode frankly. He said that President Roosevelt was to be the only guest of honor at the dinner, and that there had been no thought of better the contract of the cont here had been no thought of having any

"We would not for a minute consider having another guest of honor," he said. "The President and I had a thorough un-

Mr. Hoyt was asked if Secretary Loeb has presented as one of the conditions of the President's acceptance of the club's invitation that Sir Thomas Lipton should not be present. "No," he said, "not at all, not at all."

On the por-tico overlooking the court was erected a small throne, which the pope insisted should not be surmounted by a canopy, as the ceremonial prescribes.

Pope Pius, whose arrival was awaited with keen expectation by the throng, appeared in the portico, preceded merely by a few noble guards and accompanied by his secretary, Monsignore Bressan, the master of the chamber, Monsignore Bis letti, and his aimoner, Moneignore Con-stantine.
