MAYOR CALLS HARRIMAN "A GRUNTING ENIGMA"

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 28.—That E. H. Harriman, the railroad Colossus, is a "grunting enigma," is the opinion of Mayor Maddox, of this city, today. The mayor described his recent trip through Atlanta with Harriman and said the railroad man answered all of his questions only by grunting once or twice, "like an Indian." Only once or twice during the day did Harriman evince a sign of humor, declared his critic.

When Harriman was shown the state capitol and was told that it had been built for less than the million dollars appropriated, Maddox declared that the magnate removed his hot with mock solemnity and bowed to the state building, saying: "I take off my hat to a graftless capitol."

HENRY H. BINGHAM.

General Henry Harrison Bingham, who has represented the First Pennsylvania district in congress since 1879 and has been reelected, is one of the "grand old men" of the house.

OKLAHOMA TAKES BACK ITS "UNDESIRABLES"

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 30.—The task of removing the Oklahoma prisoners from the Kansas penitentiary was completed today and for the first time in years there are no Oklahoma convicts in the Kansas institution.

Ever since Oklahoma became a territory it has kept its prisoners in the Kansas penitentiary under contract. It had no adequate prison of its own, and still has none. It paid about forty cents a day for each prisoner. This sum, together with the money realized from convict labor, made it a very desirable arrangement for Kansas, from a financial standpoint.

But recently a question of legality was raised and it was decided to terminate the agreement. Oklahoma began the withdrawal of her convicts, putting many of them at work on the public roads in that State and housing others in the coutny jails.
