NEW YORK SUFFRAGISTS DON WAR PAINT NEXT WEEK

New York, Jan. 15.—New York suffragists will don their war paint and go up to Albany next week, where they will engage in an aggressive warfare on the legislators, demanding their rights. Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont has engaged headquarters at a leading hotel of the capital city and, with Mrs. Clarence Mackay, will be in the thick of the fray from now on. The anti-suffragists have also appointed a lobby, who will beseech the Albany voters not to permit them to vote, or a flow other women to exercise the right of suffrage.

A constitutional amendment must be passed by the voters of the state before the ballot can be extended to women, and before this can be done the question must be discussed in the legislative halls. The committee in charge wants to tell why this question should be submitted to the voters.

Meantime Mrs. Nelson H. Henry, wife of the Adjutant-General, and head of the New York State association opposed to suffrage, is seeking to block legislation.

New York railroad men are much pleased with the selection of Daniel Willard as the new president of the Baltimore & Ohio, to succeed Oscar G. Murray, who retired yesterday. The new head of the great transportation system "got on the job" today, and he may be expected to stay there.

Mr. Willard is no stranger to either the Baltimore & Ohio or men identified with it. Previous connection with it from 1900 to 1903, as assistant general manager, gave him thorough knowledge concerning the road, its affairs and men long connected with it. He left the Baltimore & Ohio to go with the Erie. He had been found by F. D. Underwood in a subordinate position on the Soo Line in the Northwest, where he had risen by sheer ability from the position of a storekeeper's clerk to an operating officer. Mr. Willard was given credit for many of the forms that were established in the operating department af the Baltimore & Ohio system, while he was with the road. His good work attracted the attention of J. J. Hill, who had just secured control of the Burlington, and he induced him to go with that line as second vice-president and general manager.

James W. Gerard, a Tammany Justice of the supreme court of New York proposes a tax upon foreign marriages. The American heiresses who marry abroad and whose dowry from American investments goes abroad in an unbroken stream should, the justice believes, pay heavily into the state treasury for the privilege of transferring the earnings of American men to the pockets of foreign noblemenn. He instances the recent marriage of Miss Gotlet to the Duke of Roxburghe, by which $500,000 a year, earned by New York real estate, will go to England. This case is one of many.

Plans are well under way for the erection of a great bronze column on Staten Island which will probably be known as the Peace Memorial. It will be surmounted by the colossal figure of an Indian, and the combined height of column and figure will be 580 feet. Add to this the altitude of the position on which it will rest and the top of the figure will be in the neighborhood of 900 feet above the sea level.

This will be the highest point on the Atlantic coast between Maine and Mexico. In the base of the figure there will be a library for Indian relics. In the words of those who have the matter in hand the column will be "erected in memory of the North American Indian and dedicated to the school children of the United States of America."

NEW CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEARING COMPLETION

Good Building Being Erected by Fairmount Christian Congregation.

The new Christian church at the corner of East Seventeenth street and Columbia avenue in Fairmount will be completed some time in February. The building is now enclosed and would have been completed by the first of February had not the cold weather interfered with building operations.

The new house of worship is 48 feet square and is so constructed that the interior may be divided into eight separate reciting rooms for the Sunday School with the use of sliding doors.

The church was organized last May with a membership of 26 and there are at the present time 50 members. The Christian Endeavor society has 50 members and there is an average attendance at the Sunday School of 162. Rev. J. M. Morris is the efficecent pastor. He donates his salary to the church for the first year.

In the long run which pays the best—to deal with a well-known, established business house, whose reputation and quality of goods stand unquestioned, or to deal with strangers? The merits of the Stevens & Hulin Piano House stand unexcelled, and their world-famous makes of pianos (the Weber, Chickering, Hobart M. Cable and many others) need no defense, for every one knows what they are. Before buying a piano or organ, investigate at the Stevens & Hulin Piano House, Commercial Club block. tf

BJORNSTJERNE BJORNSON AND HIS FAMILY.

The illness of the aged Norwegian poet, dramatist and novelist Bjornstjerne Bjornson arouses sympathy among the lovers of true literature all over the world. Bjornson is now seventy-seven years old. He was born on Dec. 8, 1832. In his youth he took up journalism after leaving college and early turned his attention to the drama. He was director of the Bergen theater in the latter fifties, after which he resided for a time in Italy, Germany and Denmark. Returning to Norway, he took charge of the Christiania theater, which he directed for several years. He was in America in 1881 and 1882, lecturing in all the larger cities.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The following from the pen of our gifted ex-president, Mrs. Additon, will be appreciated by her many friends:

Lents, January 1, 1910.

Dear Comrades Militant: As the portals of a new untried year swing wide open and we enter trustfully, and hopefully, we remember the admonition of St. Paul, and it seems to come with more force to us than ever before. (See Philipians 3, 13, 14.) Yet even though we try to forget those things that are now behind, still have we no regret over lost opportunities of good regret that we did not always give the sympathetic touch, the "cup of cold water", that have refreshed some weary souls? Regret that we have not done our very best in winning souls for the Master? Yet these regrets will give way to the joy that we stand on the threshold of a new year of opportunity, with great possibilities of good spreading out before us like an illuminated panorama, and we catch a vision of "time redeemed", and the delight consistce of promise, to forget the failures of the past year, and to take our place in the progressive march onward and upward, with our faces set sternly to the stars. Will the vision not give us an enlarged faith, a more intense desire to work for the Master? Shall we resolve to consecrate all our powers as never before? It is better to resolve to make the vision a reality in our lives, and even then fail, than not to resolve at all to reach for better things. Beloved, God wants you and me—our lives—that He may express Himself to the world through us.

Oh for an ideal life, not strenuous, not merely simple, but the two blended into a balanced life of the true Christian. The stones of the structure cemented with loving thoughts and kindly words of courage, that soon will rise the structure to a perfect life, a palace radiant in its beauty, a temple fit for God to dwell therein, for He has held thee in his hand, has shed his light in purest ray upon thy path, sustained thee in thy trials. Before thy eyes has been the true ideals of this, His Temple, erected in the likeness of the living God, in whom you live and move and have being. And he shall take up His abode therein, and bring thee into everlasting life. How shall we gain this ideal life? As God gives us the hours, and days and years, each hour studded with sixty diamond seconds, each one to be lived out as He sends them just as near our conception of right, as possible. Has God given us a glimmer of truth? Then open the windows of the soul, and let it shine out. The world has need, as never before, for light on every problem of life. Light is truth when it comes from God. Let your light shine, says the blessed word, remember it says your light. Have you a glimmer of light to show the path toward child-culture, citizenship, universal fellowship? Then hold it aloft, so all may see its glory. Think truth, live truth, and its radiance will flash from soul fo soul and its brilliant rays burn away the evil and make luminous the common good. The fact that 1910 is as yet for each one of us, a white unwritten page, what shall we write upon it is a vital question to you and to me. What new resolutions are we to make and try earnestly and prayerfully to keep? I have been thinking over all the resolutions we ought to make and keep, and seems they all resolve themselves into this: "To be too strong for worry, too noble for anger, too brave for fear; remembering that I am on God's side so long as I am true to the very best that is in me. My ambition for the coming year is, that it will bring to me added grace, patience, and steadfastness, that will enable me to encourage many weak souls, and to inspire them to noble, higher and better life."

And now to you, a happy New Year.

New blessings, new mercies, new light on the way,
New courage, new hope and new strength for each day;
New hopes of Thanksgiving, new chords of delight;
New gifts from God's treasures, new smiles from his face,
New streams from the fountain of infinite grace;
New gleams of His glory that waits us above;
New light of His countenance full and unpriced;
All this to be the joy of a new life in Christ.

God bless and keep you and may the tie that binds our hearts be wielded together stronger than ever before, for the greatest of riches is in the ministries of a true friendship. Thank God for Real Friends.

Lovingly Yours,
LUCIA H. ADDITON.
