FUR SHIPPERS, BEWARE.

This is the time of the year to be very careful in shipping your furs. Many firms, at this season of the year grade all furs as "springy" or "rubbed" regardless of whether they were recently caught or caught during the months of December or January.

Let us again caution you of this practice of some firms. Mr. Rubenstein is now in New York and has advised us to send him at once all the furs we can get. We pay the highest price. Do not delay, bring in all of your furs now and get the most for them.

CHICAGO MARKETS

Chicago, March 13.—Big breaks in the grain market came today on reports that demand for grains for export was slight. Reports influencing the market were that over 65,000,000 bushels of wheat was now enroute overseas, which is about enough to care for the demand.

Corn prices dropped on information that the visible supply had increased 3,000,000 bushel which makes the greatest visible supply on record. Provisions were lower.

May wheat opened up 1-4 at 137 1-2 and closed off 5c. July opened at 118 up 1-4, closing off 3.

May corn opened up 1-8 at 63 1-4, closing off 2 3-8. July corn opened at 66 1-4 up 1-4 and closed off 2 3-8 July corn opened at 66 1-4 up 1-4 and closed off 2 3-8. May oats opened at 30 3-4 off 1-8 and closed off 1. July oats opened unchanged at 43 3-8 and closed off 3 1-8.
