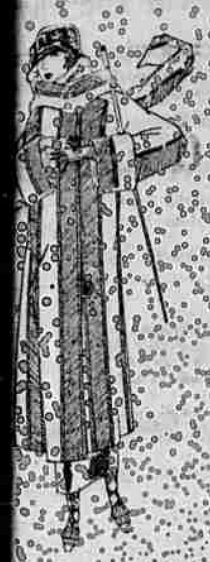
PRACTICAL

Spring Coats

For Sports or Motoring

$14.75 to $29.50



The smart, practical coat is indispensable for spring wear, so it takes the front of the stage when sports togs are in question.

Women may choose their new wraps here with the assurance that they will meet every requirement for spring wear. Polo Cloth, Homespun and Shadow Plaid mixtures are here in an interesting assortment of spring models.

LARGE'S

865 Willamette St.

CITY NEWS

Officers at Ashland—
Officers of Kappa Christian sorority, are in attendance at convention at Ashland.

Science Lecture—
Mrs. H. S. Herring, representative of Christian Science Mothers of Boston, will deliver a lecture on Christian Science at the armory next Monday evening, April 24.

Visit—
Mrs. Southern, Willamette Dorcas society president, is visiting the society meeting at Springfield this evening.

To Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnhart have moved from Springfield to Portland.

Administrator—
Mr. L. Vaughn has been appointed administrator of the estate of Rosanne Vaughn, who died April 5. The estate is valued at $1,500.

Tank Coated—
A water tank has shipped from Eugene to be used in trying from the proposed Fairmount reservoir to Hillsboro to be coated with creosote.

Miller to Leave—
Henry Martin Miller, member of the faculty of Oregon law school for 21 years, will leave Oregon to teach in the law school of the University of Iowa next year. Professor Miller, formerly of the law school faculty, graduated from Harvard in 1895.

Dance at Cottage Grove—
Cottage Grove Lodge No. 1 will give a dance in the Cottage Grove armory next Friday and there will be no meeting on the night of the school following Mr. Miller's departure.

Science Lecture—
Mrs. H. S. Herring, representative of Christian Science Mothers of Boston, will deliver a lecture on Christian Science at the armory next Monday evening, April 24.

Visit—
Mrs. Southern, Willamette Dorcas society president, is visiting the society meeting at Springfield this evening.

To Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnhart have moved from Springfield to Portland.

Administrator—
Mr. L. Vaughn has been appointed administrator of the estate of Rosanne Vaughn, who died April 5. The estate is valued at $1,500.

Tank Coated—
A water tank has shipped from Eugene to be used in trying from the proposed Fairmount reservoir to Hillsboro to be coated with creosote.

Miller to Leave—
Henry Martin Miller, member of the faculty of Oregon law school for 21 years, will leave Oregon to teach in the law school of the University of Iowa next year. Professor Miller, formerly of the law school faculty, graduated from Harvard in 1895.

Dance at Cottage Grove—
Cottage Grove Lodge No. 1 will give a dance in the Cottage Grove armory next Friday and there will be no meeting on the night of the school following Mr. Miller's departure.

Avalina Stadters, harper on the McKenzie river who was arrested two days ago on a charge of assault, was released yesterday after a hearing before Judge C. H. Dimmick, in which he was bound same. Stadters was arrested after he had threatened neighbors in the community and had intoxicated his family, say the officers.

Strays Picked Up—
The police have picked up two strays and impounded them in the East Ninth street dog pen. One is a horse and the other a colt. Both are bays. They were found wandering around on Jefferson street.

Morris Commended—
For the work of himself and his committee at the last legislative session, Dan Morris of this city has received from Harry N. Nelson, department commander of the American Legion of Oregon, a letter of commendation. Morris headed the state legislative committee of the organization. The letter follows: "Dear Comrade Morris: The state executive committee, in session at Portland, Oregon, April 14, extended a vote of thanks to you and the members of your committee for their very able and efficient work at the last session of the state legislature, and the success with which your committee has on the American Legion program. Trusting that you will find the state executive committee and the legislature, I remain, with personal regards, Yours, Harry N. Nelson, department commander."

Grotto to Dance—
Calif Grotto Gillebe hosts to all Masons at a dance at the Anchorage Thursday, April 27. This is the last Grotto affair of the season.

Will Build Garage—
Dr. L. B. Baker has taken out a permit to erect a $500 garage at 1220 Pearl street.

Down from Portland—
Darrell Hyde, Kappa Sigma and Oregon University of Oregon student, is here from Portland for the week-end.

Visiting Mother Here—
Miss Emma Brown, teacher in Portland, is spending the week-end with her mother in Eugene.

Get First Dog Licenses—
Although it is not yet April, dog licenses were issued by the county clerk yesterday to Ralph Allen, who was the first one of the year to get a license, and to Ralph King, who is regarded, perhaps, as the oldest dog owner in Lane county. The dog of Mr. Allen is a bird dog and Mr. King's dog is a hound.

Hail Manager Here—
H. J. Hughes, of San Francisco, assistant traffic manager of the Southern Pacific railroad, passed through Eugene Friday night, on route to Portland. He was here concerning traffic matters in Oregon.

Bug Spider Explained—
Bulletins of the Blue Bug Spider have been sent out by O. A. C. to the Eugene Chamber of Commerce. Hop growers who wish to produce the bugs can get the bulletins at the chamber or by writing to O. A. C.

Returns to Vancouver—
Mrs. A. E. Hagegard of Vancouver, Washington, returned home Friday night after visiting for two weeks in Eugene at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles May.

Petitions of Bankruptcy Filed—
Ernest H. Hughes, of Hector and O. H. Skolfield, formerly of Eugene, but now resident of Portland, have filed petitions of bankruptcy in federal court.

Visits in Salem—
Mrs. D. A. Elkins went to Salem today to spend the week-end with her husband, insurance commissioner Elkins.

Tiernan People Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Webster, of Tiernan, are guests at the Shores hotel.

Three Couples to Wed—
Marriage licenses have been issued by the county clerk to Lewis Henry Porter, 25, and Irene B. Allister, 25, both of Langlow; to Edward Marion Sanborn, 21, of Tacoma, and Sarah Whitney, 20, of Cottman, and to Willis V. Kibbe, 19, and Mabel Carter, 18, both of Eugene.

Storlie Estate Valued at $19,000—
The estate of Knut O. Storlie, a native Norwegian Lutheran minister, who died April 17, 1923, in Portland, is valued at $19,000 in personal property, according to the petition to admit the will to probate filed in court by Anna Storlie, the widow, petitions to be appointed executrix.

W. U. Reduces Cable Rates—
The Western Union Telegraph company announces reduction in Mediterranean cable rates effective April 20. The rate to Great Britain and Ireland is reduced from thirty-six cents per word to thirty-four cents per word. Across Sicilia lines the reduction is one cent per word. France, 48; Germany, 39; Italy, 39; Switzerland, 41; Austria, 42; Czechoslovakia, 46; Jugo Slavia, 45; Poland, 46; Roumania, 47; Spain, 47; Hungary, 47. There are corresponding reductions in the rates to other European countries.

Student Corps Inspected—
The R. O. T. C. at the University of Oregon was given regular inspection Friday afternoon by Major H. T. Bull, Major W. Kingsley and H. L. Jordan, as well as Colonel W. S. Sinclair, commanding officer, and President P. L. Campbell of the University. The object was to determine estimates. Recommendations were not announced. This morning the three visiting officers inspected O. A. C.

Sick Woman Was Thief—
Mrs. M. Wahl, who owns the house on 6th Charnelton has complained to the police that some other articles were stolen from her place by some one in a party of two women and a child who went through her house while she was away. Mrs. Wahl came home to find two women in the house. They put up a good excuse and then departed, but she missed a hairbrush and she followed them to Seventh and Willamette where she chased her property. The young woman paid her $1 in order to avoid trouble, says Mrs. Wahl, while the older woman remained silent. On returning home Mrs. Wahl found other things missing. She has entered the police in an effort to recover the articles.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

The engagement of Miss LeVerne Leslie to Preston Wilcox was announced last Thursday evening at an attractive dinner at the Chi Omega house. The table was elaborately decorated in pastel shades, with a large centerpiece of sweet peas and candelabra. To the candy courage bouquets at each place were tied the cards bearing the names of the bridal pair. In addition to the Chi Omegas, seven additional guests were added to the affair, including Mrs. Irene Burgess, Miss Charlotte Banfield, Mrs. P. A. Boisman, Miss Janet Moores, Miss Velma Farnham, Miss Marjorie Lawson, and Mrs. Percie Boyd.

Miss Leslie is a popular Eugene girl and attended the University here for several years, during one of which she was a member of the queen's court. Mr. Wilcox is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and graduated from the University of Oregon. He is now with the California Packing company in San Francisco.

Coming home from Portland where she was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Burgess, Mrs. Charles Hope was accompanied by Mrs. Burgess and Miss Jessie Burgess, who will be her guests for a few days.

Mrs. Ben Dorris and Mrs. Frank Chapman will be hostesses at a bridge luncheon next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dorris, 1000 Alder street, for members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans.

Mrs. Ralph Ingalls, president of the Eugene Woman's club, will be one of the speakers at the Woman's club of Springfield next Friday afternoon. Mrs. Ingalls will speak on "Our Community Problem." Mrs. Ingalls will be accompanied by Mrs. Ben Dorris, who will sing a group of songs.

Mrs. Sam McKnight and this evening entertained at a dinner party for Miss Ingalls, who will sing a group of songs. Mrs. Ben Dorris will be accompanied by Mrs. Ben Dorris, who will sing a group of songs.

Mrs. P. F. Chapman will meet on Monday evening, April 23, with Mrs. D. W. Price, 1 C street, between Eighth and Ninth, Springfield.

Division number one of the Associated Charities will meet at the Osburn hotel this afternoon.

President Harding has proclaimed the Week of April 22 to 28 as Forest Protection Week. This community's greatest asset it its timber. Help protect our forests; be careful with fire in the woods ALL the time.

TO THE ADVANTAGE OF BETTER SELECTIONS FROM OUR

Immense Stocks of Dependable Merchandise—Fairly Priced

—is added the convenience of the most pleasant shopping conditions—various departments, stocks and displays arranged to facilitate shopping—quick, courteous and efficient service, prompt deliveries—and our iron-bound money-back guarantee that insures your purchases at this progressive store.

ENTRAORDINARY SELLING OF

High Grade Wraps and Coats

—Every thing that goes to make a Coat distinctive is combined in these smart wraps—soft, high quality fabrics and workmanship of glorious skill, all the season's most desirable styles to choose from; wrappy styles—coats with blouse backs and straight line styles. In every desirable color, and black.

SPECIAL PRICINGS ARE

Values to $65.00 $49.50 | Values to $83.00 $69.50 | Values to $125.00 $89.50

Special Showing of Fine Mercerized Lisle Hose

—Burlington and Holeproof fine mercerized lisle Hose in such favorite shades as castor, light grey, medium grey, gunmetal, taupe and dark. Some are full-fashioned, others semi-fashioned. Fully reinforced foot and strong elastic tops. All sizes in each shade. Priced at 50c, 65c and $1.00 Pr.

Initial Display of

Heisey Distinctive Glassware

—Complete stocks of Heisey famous Glassware in their lead blown American Crystal and heavier Colonial styles. Priced unusually low for such high quality glassware.

Heisey Thin Blown, Etched Glassware

—Goblets $9.25 and $12.00 doz.
—Wine Glasses $8.75 doz.
—Saucer Champagnes $12.00 doz.
—Saucer Champagnes $9.25 doz.
—Cocktail Glasses $9.00 and $11.50 doz.
—Sherbets $9.00 and $11.50 doz.
—Ice Tea Glasses $6.00 and $8.50 doz.

Colonial Utility Style

—Champagne Glasses $4.00 doz.
—Sherbets $3.50 doz.
—Jelly Dishes 35c each
—Mayonnaise Dishes 55c each
—Berry Sets $2.08 each set
—Flower Vases $1.25 each
—Fancy Baskets $1.35 each
—Water Jugs $1.25 each
—Water Glasses $2.50 doz.
—General Utility Plates 20c each

Dainty Kerchiefs of Embroidered Lawn 5c Each

—A special lot of these good looking and practical Hand kerchiefs of fine lawn, Colored borders of pink, blue or lavender. Fancy flower and basket embroidered designs. Unusually low priced at 5c each.

Women's Munsing Bloomers 79c 2 Pr. for $1.50

—Good quality Cotton Bloomers in pink and white. Famous Munsing Wear brand. All sizes, very specially priced at 79c pr. or 2 pr. for $1.50.

Interesting Specials From

THE SILK SHOP

Very New! "King Tut" Fancy Crepes $3.50 Yard
—Wonderful color combinations of orange, or chick, green, etc. 36 in. wide. Soft and graceful.

Imported Colored Pongee $1.75 Yard
—36 inches wide; very popular for lingerie material. All desirable colors.

Tubular Silk Jersey Vesting, $1.75 Yard
—Colors of pink, orchid and apricot.

56-Inch Kelley Tweeds $1.98 Yard
—Handsome wool tweeds, specially designed for outing toggery. Decidedly under priced at $1.98 yard.

Soft, Sleep-enticing Bed Pillows.

—Big shipment in soft, fluffy Pillows, filled with all new and sanitary goose down. Fancy Belgian ticking. All sizes, 17x24 to 21x27. Priced $1.50 to $5.00 each.
—12x16 Baby Pillows. Fine Sateen covering, filled with soft down, $1.95 each.

New Japanese Shade Pulls 40c

—Made of fine fancy Japanese rings of rose, amber, king's blue and white. Each in colored cards.

The Choice of Particular Women

Marvel Italian Silk Jersey Bloomers

$5.00

—Excellently made of genuine Italian silk jersey, in flesh, white and dark colors. Specially designed to prevent ripping. Priced at $5.00 pair. Extra large sizes $5.95.

NEW!—
Shadow-proof Petticoats

—The new feature of double lined panels is in special favor. Made of the quality sateens, rib silks, and crepe de chenes, in white and flesh colors. Some are full lined throughout. Priced from $1.98 to $6.95.

McMorran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY
Eugene's Foremost Store.

dressed as clothe your feet.—In Exercer socks.

you can judge the style for yourself-- the satisfaction we guarantee

these things we guarantee

Green Merrell Co.
men's wear
"one of Eugene's best stores"

The Methodist General Aid society will meet at the church on Tuesday, April 24, at 2 o'clock for a short business meeting. The usual tea will be served so that the women will be able to go to the Ice Follies.

Mrs. Donald Young entertained members of the Mother's Study Club at her home on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Gregg led the study. After it was over the hostess, Mrs. Jean Young, a nurse, and others were invited to accompany their mothers, and they enjoyed a birthday cake and an enjoyable time. Mrs. Alfred Morgan assisted in serving.

Mrs. Agnes Schiller of Seattle, Washington, will give a lecture in the Unitarian church Sunday afternoon at three o'clock upon the topic "Two Individuals who Went in Conversion and Telling Story of Responsibility for World Peace." Everybody is invited to attend.

On Thursday evening a number of gentlemen of the W. R. C. ladies and their husbands met at the home of Mrs. Freda Charles and from there walked to the home of Mr. Humphrey home and during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey took possession of the house until they returned. This was by way of a surprise on the couple to celebrate their thirty-second wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in conversation and telling stories and games. Mrs. Bessie Barrington entertained with several musical selections on the piano, and later in the evening all enjoyed delicious refreshments of sweets and coffee brought with them. The couple received a lily as a beautiful wax cake server with which the bride's cake was served. They also received a bouquet of tulips. Mrs. Jenny Higgins made the presentation speech. Those present were Captain and Mrs. W. H. Kingsland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hydorn, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Farrington, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Fortune, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kiester, Mrs. E. R. Black, Mrs. Jenny Higgins, Mrs. Rose Riley, Mrs. Minda Slatter, Mrs. Freda Charles, Mrs. Fred Lodford, Mrs. M. L. Gilbert, Mrs. I. L. Stage, Miss Edna Humphrey, Mrs. C. E. Adrian, Mrs. Carrie James and son, Mrs. Helen Woods, Mrs. Ella Williams, Clive Humphrey.

Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Rosa Hedges's ninety second birthday, a number of the W. R. C. ladies went from the group to her home and took a box of good things to eat, also a few gifts, as a surprise which was a success and enjoyed by all. She is the widow of a G. A. R. veteran and a wonderful old lady. She served ice cream and cake, chicken pie and a pleasant hour was spent together.