BANK ROBBER SENTENCED

Roseburg, Ore., July 13—Clyde Weekly, alias Larsen, who robbed the Glendale State bank of $1000 in a sensational manner June 2, was yesterday sentenced to 15 years in the state penitentiary by Circuit Judge John C. Kendall of Marshfield, who opened a special term of court here today. Weekly had entered a plea of guilty upon being arraigned this morning and through his attorney asked for leniency. He objected to that section of the indictment which stated that he was prepared to kill if resisted, but District Attorney Neuner, on behalf of the state, maintained that the fact he carried a loaded revolver and pointed it at Margaret McGee, assistant cashier, and forced her to deliver the bank funds to him, rightly forces a conclusion that he was desperate enough to kill if resisted, and the contention was sustained by the court.

BRIDGE PROPOSALS

Bids will be received at office of County Clerk in Court house, Eugene, Ore., until Aug. 1, 1923, at 10 o'clock a. m., for labor and material and repairs to County Bridge at Springfield, Ore., according to plans and specifications on file with County Clerk. A bid check of 5 per cent must accompany bid. Rights reserved to reject any or all bids.
By order of Lane County Court.

CHICAGO GRAINS

Chicago, July 13.—Grain prices closed generally higher on the Chicago Board of Trade today. Wheat moved to higher levels on persistent reports of damage by black rust in the American northwest and a good class of local speculative buying. The rally met a setback near the close on report of huge wheat crops in Canada, Italy and Russia.
Corn prices were erratic, showing frequent signs of strength at different points in the market. July deliveries opened strong and then weakened on reports of a freer movement of the crop in the west and southwest. Oats was slow and the market dull. Prices finished about even with opening levels. July deliveries showed some independent strength.
Provisions were lower.

CHICAGO WHEAT

Chicago, July 13.—Wheat rallied to more than $1 a bushel on the Chicago board of trade today.
Reports that rains were delaying harvesting sent prices up after a slump the last few days that made new record lows since 1914. July wheat shortly before noon sold at 100½; September $1 and December 102 7-8.

OLCOTT GETS PROMOTION

Salem, Ore., July 13.—Ex-Governor Olcott, who some time ago accepted a position as traveling representative for the Bank of Italy, with headquarters at San Francisco, has been promoted to the management of the corporation's bank at Long Beach, Cal. This was the information received by the executive's friends here today.
Mrs. Olcott and children, who are in Salem, probably will spend the summer at Cannon beach, and will join Mr. Olcott next September.

SPRINGFIELD NEWS

Springfield, July 13.—On Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eugene Kester, little Miss Betty Jarvis was the hostess at a birthday party. Betty is the granddaughter of Mrs. Kester who lives at Fourth and C streets. An enjoyable time was reported.
Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kintzley of Los Angeles arrived here Monday evening. They will spend an indefinite period at the home of their sister, Mrs. Bert Doane.
Mrs. Ernest Parr, who has been visiting with friends and relatives at Albany, has returned home.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank McBee and family, who spent a week at Crescent City, Cal., and Marshfield, have returned to their home.
The Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Margie Moshier on Wednesday afternoon. After the regular business meeting the members were the guests of Mrs. Moshier's and Mrs. Murphys and attended the silver tea given by the Baptist Ladies aid at the church.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page of Walterville spent Tuesday in town on business.
The M. A. Aid society had a silver tea at the church on Wednesday afternoon.
Mr. Gambill of Lebanon spent Monday in town with friends.
Again there is a call from the American Legion auxiliary for cookies for the hospital cookie jar. Donations are to be left at the home of Mrs. M. B. Huntley on south Second street.

For quality cigars, Prince Nemo.
