Friendship Club Letters To Mary Jordan

The perplexing questions of heart and home discussed sympathetically and sensibly by a Lane county woman.

Broadcast from Eugene Radio Station KORE on Wednesdays from 5 to 5:30 P. M.

By MARY JORDAN

DO I approve of drinking beer?—That is the question that Puzzled Friends ask.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Do you think it proper, or does it ruin a boy's opinion of girls who smoke or drink beer before them, but not to any extent?

If it ruins a boy's opinion, how may we win back his respect?

Please answer in a day or two as we are leaving for a few days and will not enjoy our trip unless we know. Thank you kindly.

—PUZZLED FRIENDS.

Answer:

My dear girls, it all depends upon what sort of boy he is, whether or not he loses interest in a girl who smokes and drinks beer. But in my opinion if he is the right kind, and his opinion of any value, he would prefer girls who set a little higher standard.

That is what I tell the girls who read the Friendship club column: Be yourselves—your best selves. It may mean that sometimes a boy will prefer to step out with a jazz baby, but the more worth while boys will like you for it.

There is noe sure way of winning back a good opinion which one has lost, and that is by acknowledging the mistake, at least to oneself, and making a right-about-face. It may take a little time for the thought to percolate that a casual smoke is not the regular thing and that you were very just doing it to be smart, and are now sorry you were silly, but if you show in every way from now on that you want to do only the things which are in good taste and in keeping with the higher ideal, you are bound to win out in the long run.

The trouble with most persons is that when they have made a mistake they feel obliged to justify themselves instead of changing their tune and doing differently, and so they never progress, but simply keep repeating old mistakes and pretending they think it is the thing to do.

Have a nice time on your vacation, and while you are away it will be a good time to make up your minds just what your best selves are.
