JOHN BAIRD
731 Willamette St.
Would you trade your property here for land all under irrigation in the Yakima valley, which is the best valley in the United States, where they grow 6 to 10 tons of alfalfa per acre, 100 bushels of corn per acre, and as high as 90 bushels of wheat per acre? These are the crops every year. If interested in land of this kind, see me, as I have a few choice properties to exchange for property here.
15 ACRES, close to Eugene, improved with a fine set of buildings, nearly new. Land lays fine, all in bearing trees, mostly prunes, cherries and walnuts, in fine shape. Owner is asking $15,000 and it will pay interest at that price. Consider some Eugene property and give terms on the balance.
TWO well located lots in the west end, close to good school, east front, all improvements in. Price, if sold this week, $350 each.
