DAILY MARKET REPORT

OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7.—Weak undertone is showing in the market for butter here although there is a general disposition among local creameries to continue previous quotations on prints.

Cube situation is inclined to show more or less depression. State cubes are offered more freely and in abundance. General bids for extras are around 42½@43c a pound, a loss of ½c generally from previous quotations, although some of the better makes of centralizer output are quoted around 44c.

At the best trade in cubes is inclined to stagnate. Some limited business is available with the north, but Tuesday's cut in the California price softened the price views of the entire Pacific Northwest trade, especially as it is necessary to obtain other markets for the surplus output.

EGG TRADE CONTINUES ACTIVE
Market for eggs continues very active here, with no general change in the price announced for either buying or selling Wednesday. Receipts are not quite so liberal, while demand is greater.

SMELT PRICES ARE AGAIN DOWN
Columbia river smelt are quoted flat at 3c a pound wholesale in 50-pound boxes, with liberal offerings. Fresh salmon continues nominal. Halibut in better supply, with large 20c, chickens 22c, and medium 23c a pound.

COUNTRY MEATS ARE STRONG
Strength is generally continued unabated for country-killed meats and especially calves. While there was a better supply during the 24 hours, the trade has been famished for some days. Prices are unchanged for both veal and hogs.

EASTERN CHEESE AT LOW PRICE
Fresh Eastern triplet cheese is being offered freely here down to 26c a pound, compared with 32c as the box price for Tillamook supplies. The market for cheese is inclined to sag somewhat as a result of lower prices elsewhere.

CHINESE ARE SEEKING DUCKS
Because of the approaching Chinese holiday, there is a very liberal demand here for live ducks, with only a very scant supply in sight. The Chinese do not purchase dead fowls. Chicken market generally is steady and fairly active. Geese slow. Good call for fancy turkeys.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7. — These are prices retailers pay wholesalers, except as otherwise noted.

Butter—Selling prices, box lots: Creamery prices—Prints, extras, 48c lb. for plain wrappers; cubes, 42½@43½c per lb.; dairy, buying price, 32c per lb.

Butterfat—Portland delivery basis: No. 1 grade, 48@49c; No. 2, 45@46c; No. 1 cone, 46c for "A" grade.
