FINAL CLEARANCE

Even though picnic days do not end until after Labor day, clothes for the summer must be quickly disposed of; hence, the final clearance sales now in progress. Sharp reductions are in effect in every department.

WASH Frocks

Reduced to Lowest Levels

$2.95 to $6.95

$8.95 and $10.95

Final reductions on the finest of Summer Tub Frocks, including Gingham, Linen and Ratine models. The styles are exceptionally desirable to wear during remaining summer days and prices are very inviting.

LARGE'S

865 Willamette Street

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

...t Sunday from Beach—Al... Kirk and Floyd Ruch re... Sunday from a short time ...t the Newport beach.

• • •

...e at Landax—Charles M. ..., local insurance agent, spent ...r at Landax on a business ...d returned here last even...

• • •

...d from County Jail — ... Worthley, who has com... 10-day sentence in the ...jail on a charge of va... was released yesterday.

• • •

...age License Issued — A ...e license was issued yes... at the office of the county ... to Bert S. Stone and Mrs. ... Oliver, both of Canary, ...

• • •

...ance Merchant Is Here — ... Kyle, merchant of Flor... was a Eugene business visi... yesterday. Mr. Kyle reports ... business is fine in western ... and that practically all mills ...operating and that the out... for an increase is excellent.

• • •

...Blame Fixed at Inquest — ...blame was fixed by the cor... jury at the inquest held ... the body of G. F. Daniels, ...lumberman killed by a log roll... over him in a camp out of ...ing Friday morning. The body will be shipped to his brother E. A. Daniels, only known survivor, who lives at Lawton, Oklahoma.

• • •

Returning from East — J. R. Getchell will return Friday from a month's visit and business trip to Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota.

• • •

Return from Newport—W. H. Hill and wife and Mrs. Bertha Neat have returned from a week's vacation at Newport. They report a very good time.

• • •

Here from Winberry—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Renfro, of Winberry, were visitors here yesterday in connection with the plans for the coming year at the Unity school of that district.

• • •

Here from Illinois — Myron Getchell is spending his vacation of a couple of weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Getchell. He is employed in the catalogueing department of the University of Illinois.

• • •

Home Is Nearing Completion—The new home of Dr. E. V. Stivers, pastor of the First Christian church, which is under construction at 1348 Oak street, is nearing completion, and within the next few weeks will be ready for occupancy, according to Dr. Stivers. Dr. and Mrs. Stivers are at present residing at 1210 Patterson street.

• • •

Tonsils Removed — Miss Mary Nelson of Junction City sustained an operation for the removal of her tonsils in this city yesterday.

• • •

Boys to Visit Medford Friends —Vernon Graner, Eugene high school boy, left Sunday to visit friends at Medford for several weeks.

• • •

Portland Visitor Here—Mrs. H. F. Morrison, of Portland, has arrived here to spend the next few days as the guest of relatives in this city.

• • •

Nebergall in Town—H. L. Nebergall, connected with the Nebergall meat packing business, is in town today on business from his home in Albany.

• • •

Justice Wells at Ocean Side — Jesse G. Wells, justice of the peace, is away for the week on a vacation trip to Ocean Side, near Tillamook. Mrs. Wells has been there for some time.

• • •

Picnic Planned for Auto Park —W. B. A. of the Maccabees will hold their annual picnic at the city auto park behind the butte Wednesday evening, August 8, instead of Hansen's park.

• • •

Mrs. Pierce Here from Harrisburg—Mrs. Emma Pierce, of Harrisburg, is in Eugene to visit her daughter, Mrs. Paul McHenry, 654 Fifth avenue west. She came Saturday and will leave the latter part of this week.

• • •

Richardson on Vacation—H. E. Richardson, receiving teller with the First National bank, left yesterday with his family on a two weeks' vacaton outng, the larger part of which will be spent at Belknap springs.

• • •

Here From Portland—Mrs. W. L. McCullough and her son, of Portland, arrived here yesterday on their way to Oakridge, where they plan to spend some time. They formerly resided at Springfield. Each year they make a trip to Oakridge for an outing.

• • •

School Officials Visit—Mr. and Mrs. L. J. McLaughlin, officials of the school district at Eagle Rock above Lowell, were here yesterday to confer with E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools. A new teacher is to be employed at the Eagle Rock school this year.

• • •

Appeal to Supreme Court Filed —An appeal to the state supreme court on behalf of E. P. Norton was filed yesterday by Potter, Foster and Immel, attorneys. A judgment of $6500 was recently awarded Wilbur L. Rayburn and Iva B. Rayburn against the defendant, E. P. Norton.

• • •

Starts Business Trip Today—E. Koppe, general manager of the Eugene woolen mill, starts a 10-day business trip to Seattle, Tacoma and other northern Washington cities this afternoon. He will show samples of fall and winter goods being manufactured by the factory here.

• • •

Game Warden Is Here — Ed Hawker, deputy state game warden, was here over the week-end from his home at Albany, checking up on the anglers that whipped the Lane county streams in search of violators of the state game code. The deputy reports that no violations were found.

• • •

Dillard Elkins Here—Dillard A. Elkins, member of the Oregon state industrial accident commission, was here yesterday on his way to Southern Oregon, where he has business to transact in the interests of the state board. Mr. Elkins, formerly in the law business here, now makes his home at Salem.

• • •

Mrs. Ady Writes from Omaha—Mrs. M. S. Ady, Eugene police matron, writes to friends in this city that she is visiting at Omaha and that in obtaining data in connection with her work here she attended a session of the juvenile court there and also conferred with officials in charge of youthful delinquency in that city. Mrs. Ady plans an eastern trip before returning to Eugene.

• • •

Copper and Booze Predominates —Copper and booze in great quantities are in evidence in and near Ely, Nevada, according to word received by Mr. and Mrs. George N. McClean from their children, Mr. and Mrs. McClean, now touring Nevada. Young McClean is engaged in advanced work in geology and mining at the University of Oregon and his tour is with a view of visiting numerous southern mines.

• • •

Hay Market Is Glutted — Hay that is piled up awaiting a market is one of the problems bothering the farmers of the Harrisburg district, according to the report of M. D. Morgan, publisher of the Harrisburg Bulletin, who was a Eugene caller yesterday. That Harrisburg is not alone in having a surplus of hay and that practically all districts of the state are in a similar condition, is the opinion expressed by the visitor.

• • •

State Chamber Requests Data—Data on the drained and swamp lands of Lane county is requested of the local chamber of commerce by the Oregon state chamber as a part of the state development program now under way by the state organization. A questionnaire has been sent to the local officials to fill out. A recent questionnaire on the resources, both agricultural and industrial, of Lane county, was completed by the Eugene officials.

• • •

Camp Fire Permits Are Issued—Camp fire permits issued yesterday at the office of the Cascade national forest here included Ward Johnson, 1577 Moss street, who plans to spend a week on the upper Willamette and Crater lake, H. M. Morris, motor route 1, who will camp on the Willamette for a week; E. H. Settle, who plans a two weeks' stay on the Willamette; S. E. Stevens, McKenzie river trip, and H. Lombard, who will spend four or five days on the North Fork.

• • •

Start Week's Trip Today — A week of roughing it with the added pleasures which mountain streams and lakes can bring is to be the opportunity of P. A. Boatman, of the Price shoe store; F. Hiller and C. A. Cressy, the latter of Cressy's book store. The three young men start today on a week's trip to Odell lake, Salt creek springs, and as they say, "all way points."

• • •

J. S. Magladry Returns—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Magladry have returned here after a visit of a week at Newport and other points on the coast.

• • •

Dr. Fox and Family to Vacation —Dr. Irvine K. Fox and family expect to motor to Newport tomorrow to enjoy a vacation there until August 15.

• • •

Claypool on Vacation — Sidney Claypool, drug clerk and pharmacist in Carroll's pharmacy, is on a week's vacation which he is spending in Portland.

• • •

Calkins Back Today — W. W. Calkins, president of the United States National bank, is expected back today from a week-end business trip to Portland.

• • •

Portland Manager Here — M. Davis, manager of the Brunswick, Balke, Collender company's head office in Portland, was in the city yesterday transacting business for his firm.

• • •

Guests Here Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foster, of Hoskins, with Mrs. A. R. Van Noye who is visiting them from Nebraska, were guests of Eleanor Riley, 1488 Olive street, Sunday.

• • •

Back from Newport—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Calloway and Fred Lamb and son returned Sunday night from a week-end motor trip to the Newport beach.

• • •

Pennington Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Pennington, of Portland, are here to visit friends for a few days. Mr. Pennington was formerly with the Linn Drug company in Eugene.

• • •

Miss Rowland to Portland Today — Gladys Rowland, an employe of the United States National bank, leaves today to visit friends in Portland. She is on a week's vacation from her work.

• • •

Pike Goes to South Dakota—Homer Pike, who for some time has been weigher at the Eugene Fruit Growers' plant in Eugene, left yesterday on a trip to South Dakota where he will look after property he has there.

• • •

Spend Week-End at Springs—Belknap and Foley springs were the lodestones for a week-end vacation for Mrs. Charles Barnett and son, Charlie, Jr., Mrs. Anna Standish and Mrs. E. E. Orton. They returned to Eugene Sunday night.

• • •

Party Week-End at Newport —Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt and family, Mrs. C. A. Hardy and Miss Miss Evangeline Knox made up a party of Eugeneans to spend the week-end at Newport. Betty Pratt remained to spend a week with friends at the beach.

• • •

House to Be Remodeled—F. L. Chambers is planning to remodel his property at 947 Franklin boulevard and add a five-room flat to the upper part of the house. The place is leased to the management of the Anchorage tea shop, which is adjacent.

• • •

On Cross Continent Hike — Charles Remphill passed through Eugene at 8:40 Sunday morning on a cross continental hike. He stated that he had walked across the continent in eight and one-half weeks. He is making the hike on a wager.

• • •

Goulds Back from Trip — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gould, 1108 Olive street, have returned from a fortnight's auto trip around the Seaside-Tillamook loop during which they stopped at several coast resorts. They also visited Mr. Gould's parents in Portland.

• • •

Return from National Park Trip —Dr. and Mrs. Sherman W. Moody returned Sunday from a motor trip to the Glacier and Yellowstone national parks. After traveling in five states they report Oregon as the best of all. There is no valley quite as desirable as the Willamette and no city as pretty as Eugene. There is more new construction in Western Oregon than any other section they passed through and business conditions generally are better here than elsewhere.

• • •

1130 Marks Required for Letter —Some idea of the tremendous deflation of the German monetary system may be gained from the experience of Jean du Buy, who lives at 260 Eleventh avenue east. About two weeks ago he received a letter from Germany on which the postage was three 100-mark stamps. Within the past week another missive has come bearing stamps costing 1130 marks. Comparison of the value of the mark with the pre-war rate of exchange which was about 24 cents American money for a German mark, show that postage on the first letter was $72 while the last one cost the tidy sum of $271.20.

• • •

Mrs. Parsons Back Today—Mrs. E. O. Parsons, of the Northwest hospital, returns today from a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. Henry Parsons of Detroit.

• • •

Miss Farrell on Vacation—Miss Anastasia Farrell, bookkeeper at the Eugene Hardware company, is at Newport on a two weeks' vacation. Miss Anne Schaefers is with her.

• • •

Wilburs on Vacation—V. Wilbur and family left Sunday for a two week's vacation trip to Seattle, where relatives will be visited. Mr. Wilbur is an employe of Skeie's jewelry store.

• • •

Stops Here on Way Home—Miss Lula Moore, of Sutherlin, stopped here on her way home from a trip north to spend Sunday with her friend, Esther Hansen, 1367 Twelfth avenue east.

• • •

Return From McKenzie Trip—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. John of Corvallis, their daughter, Miss Helen John of Walla Walla, Wash., and son, D. W. John, Jr., of Eugene, spent the week-end on the upper McKenzie.

• • •

Buys House as Investment—As an investment, Mrs. Alice Grimes has purchased the house at 462 Jefferson street, the property of E. L. Smith. He goes to Portland soon, to be with his son, who lives in that city.

• • •

Drive to Newport for Vacation—W. C. Underwood and family drove Sunday to Newport, where they expect to spend several weeks vacationing. Mr. Underwood is a member of the Underwood and Elliott grocery firm.

• • •

Buys Cochran Home — James Pointer has purchased the Charlie Cochran home on Twentieth avenue east and will make his home there. Mr. Cochran is a resident of Cottage Grove. W. A. Cooper made the transaction.

• • •

Degree of Honor to Picnic—The Degree of Honor will stage a basket supper at the home of Mrs. L. T. Dillard, 1035 Ferry street, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. All members are invited to come and bring basket lunches.

• • •

Spend Week-End at London Springs—Mrs. Sarah E. Kerr, Mrs. G. B. Pitcher and Earl Hill, all of Cottage Grove, with Edna S. Sullivan, of the Hansen Realty company, were week-end visitors to London Springs. Mrs. Kerr is the mother of Edna Sullivan.

• • •

Leaves for Iowa—Homer Soults, of this city, has left for Iowa where he will join his wife who has been there for the past few weeks. Mrs. Soults left for Iowa owing to the illness of her mother. Mr. Soults expects to return here within two weeks.

• • •

Forest Official Here—F. H. Brundage, in charge of improvements in the national forests, was here yesterday from the Portland district headquarters on his way south to Medford. The forest official called at the local headquarters of the Cascade and Siuslaw districts.

• • •

Titled English People Here Overnight—In Eugene overnight Monday were Sir Michael and Lady Oppenheimer, who are making a drive from Victoria, B. C. to southern California, having previously been to Alaska. They are from a district northwest of Liverpool, England.

• • •

Local Man Married — Clare Parks, of Eugene, was married to Pearl Ashby, of Cottage Grove, at the bride's home in the latter city, Sunday night. Rev. W. A. Elkins drove from Eugene to perform the ceremony. The newly married couple expect to make their home here.

• • •

Will Attend Picnic Tonight — Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Finnerty and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elkins are driving to Cottage Grove tonight to attend a get-together picnic of the Christian church there. Mr. Elkins was pastor of the Cottage Grove Christian church in the years 1907 to 1911.

• • •

Villard Street Home Sold—The Harold Benjamin home on Villard street has been sold to James S. Baker, who will take possession in a few days. Mr. Benjamin in turn, has bought the Rucker house on Nineteenth avenue and Friendly street, and will move from his former home itno the new property. The two transfers were handled by W. A. Cooper.

• • •

Campus Barber Shop Opens—The Campus barber shop, on Thirteenth avenue, between Alder and Kincaid streets, is to open for business today, announces Leo Doffenbacher, proprietor. The shop has been closed for about a month, but activity in the university district has led to the decision to reopen, states Mr. Doffenbacher, who is a student at the university.

• • •

Mrs. Glenn and Children Arrive —Mrs. Joseph Glenn accompanied by her three children arrived here yesterday from Aberdeen South Dakota, to join her husband here who recently arrived to assume his position as superintendent of Eugene schools. Mr. Glenn with his small son has been here for the past three weeks. Mrs. Glenn expresses her delight with Eugene and states that the Oregon greenery is quite a contrast to the trip through Montana.

• • •

Building Permits Issued—Three building permits were issued yesterday at the office of the city building inspecteor. A permit was granted J. W. Redman for the erection of a dwelling at 1690 Moss street, to cost $5500; Baker and Wray are the contractors. Frank Hamblin was granted a permit for the erection of a bungalow at 162 Fifteenth avenue west, to cost $1200. E. A. Bonnett received a permit for the remodeling of the residence at 542 Washington street at an estimated cost of $1200. F. J. Opie is in charge of the building work.

• • •

Navy Man Is Visitor — Harry Lombard, chief special machinist mate of the U. S. destroyer Melville, arrived in Eugene recently for a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. W. B. Kerr, whom he has not seen since he left Eugene in 1915 to enlist in the navy. Mr. Lombard will return to Seattle the end of the week, where the U. S. Melville will be stationed until August 21 when the fleet will leave for its home port at San Diego. James B. Lombard, of Portland, is also here and the two brothers are enjoying a few days' fishing on the Willamette and McKenzie rivers.

• • •

Ditch Work Is Halted—Owing to the dryness of the ground work on blasting of a ditch across the Frank Dunn property as a drain for the Amazon slough has been halted, according to F. L. Chambers. The blasting operations on the ditch which are under the direction of Bud Kompp, will be resumed when the fall rains start, according to Mr. Chambers.

Missing Builder Charged with $150,000 Shortage

Frederick Siebold, Jr.

Frederick Siebold, Jr., missing president of the $1,000,000 Garden Building corporation, of Chicago, is charged with a shortage of $150,000 in his accounts. His wife asserts he has eloped with "Blonde Doll" Jessie Taylor.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. E. Tillson, of Blachly, were in Eugene yesterday

William Sparlin, Harrisburg resident, was in Eugene on business Monday.

Fred Murray, who claims Harrisburg as his home town, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE CLASS IN EVOLUTION will meet at 1307 Fifteenth avenue east Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Visitors are invited.

September Butterick Publications Now on Sale

Mail Orders Filled Promptly — McMorran & Washburne Store — Phone 4 Prompt Service

QUALITY & ECONOMY

Continuing Today and Wednesday
The Sale of 500
Bargains at 89c

—Not a sale of odds and ends, but a mighty trade-building sale of thousands of dollars' worth of seasonable and reliable merchandise. Supply your future needs on this merchandise at decided savings.

Sale Prices Effective Only While Lots Last

—Below are listed just a few of the wonderful bargains offered for Tuesday and Wednesday—hundreds of unadvertised bargains—

50 Pieces Royal Graniteware, regular $1.50	89c
64x76 Cotton Sheet Blankets	89c
Boys' Knee Pants, worth $1.48	89c
Children's Coveralls, all sizes	89c
100 First Quality Brooms, regular $1.39	89c
Black Enameled Thermos Bottles	89c
Decorated Chinese Baskets	89c
American Cut Glass Pieces	89c
Fancy Terry Drapery, worth $1.25 yard	89c
44-inch Tuscon Nets, yard	89c
Women's Crepe and Batiste Gowns	89c
"Lady Sealpax" Underwear	89c
Pretty Gingham Aprons	89c
Women's Knit Union Suits	89c
16-button Chamoisuede Gloves, pair	89c
Women's Neckwear, worth $1.50	89c
Men's Knit Ties, regular 75c each, 2 for	89c
Men's Summer Union Suits	89c
Men's Dress Shirts, worth $1.50	89c
Men's Wash Ties, 2 for	89c
Men's and Boys' Bathing Suits	89c
Boys' Blouses, 2 for	89c
Boys' Wash Suits	89c
Boys' Overalls, regular $1.25	89c
Women's Pure Silk Hose, pair	89c
Imported 12 Mommie Pongee, yard	89c
Japanese Lunch Cloths, 60x60	89c
72x90 Bed Sheets	89c
3 yards Jap Crepe	89c
5 Turkish Towels	89c
5 pair Men's Sox	89c

we sell E. & W. shirts exclusively!

let somebody else carry the piano while you carry the stool!

why swelter? You don't have to - - - why close up your chest like a cedar chest in winter shirts? the stiff collars and heavy fall shirts are all right in their way - - - but in this August weather they weigh entirely too much.

from now until October - - - - our soft collars and soft cuffs are going to get all the attention.

peaches here - - - in handsome plain materials, checks and gay stripes, too, if you say so!

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear

"one of Eugene's best stores"

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE THEATRES TODAY

Rex—Last day, Jack Holt in a flashing Paramount comedy drama, "A Gentleman of Leisure;" Charlie Chaplin in "Dough and Dynamite;" Kinogram News pictures; Literary Digest's "Fun From the Press;" Rosner, organist, in melodious settings on the Rex organ.

Coming—Betty Compson and Richard Dix in "The Woman With Four Faces;" William DeMille's "Only 38 (Years Old)."

Warner tunes pianos. Laraway Music House. Phone 1. 7-26-tf

Auto & Fire Ins. G. N. McLean. tf

Moose Dance

Wednesday night. Dreamland hall. Public invited. 6-19.20 Tues&Wed-tf

18 vs. 38

20 years of pent-up romance turned loose—tomorrow?

C. E. F. Hickox, piano tuner, phone 1523J, or Morris Music House. 8-24-tf

TRIFLING WITH HONOR

ASK for Horlick's ORIGINAL Malted Milk

Safe Milk

For Infants, Invalids & Children

The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunches Home, Office & Fountains. Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder & Tablet Form. Nourishing—Nourishing. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes